Prowlers Score 2 Times in 2d Half to Whip Crookston

The Prowlers played sluggish football throughout the first half of their district and conference game against the Crookston Pirates on Crookston Highland Park field Friday afternoon, but midway in the third period a pass, Al Williamson to Harley Wagner, and with Wagner tossing a lateral to Don Stadum, carried for a thirty-one yard gain, to the Pirates' 37-yard stripe and was the "spark" that brought the locals a 13 to 6 win over Crookston.

The first two periods of the game found the Pirates deep in Prowler territory, with the locals being forced to their ablest defensive play to hold the Crookston eleven to one touchdown. In the first period, Crookston, on a blocked punt, recovered the ball on the Prowlers' 18-yard line. Dave Pilkey made four yards at center, Dick Morlan gained two yards at right end, and then made a first down on the locals' 7-yard line. The Prowlers held for downs, taking the ball on the one-yard line. An out-of-bounds punt gave Crookston the ball on the locals' 30-yard line, and four Pirate plays gained a first down on the Prowlers' 18-yard stripe; but again the stubborn Prowlers held for downs.

Opening the second period, Crookston had the ball on the Prowler 32 yard line, Morlan slid through right tackle for 2 yards, and then on a sweep around right end gained a first down on the 15. A Thief River Falls penalty, for illegal use of the hands, brought the ball to the one-yard line. A five-yard Crookston penalty, being called on backfield in motion, brought the ball back to the 6-yard line. Morlan made two yards at right tackle; and on a dash of right end he carried the ball to the one-foot line. Dave Pilkey dived through right tackle for the score. Don Steenerson's place-kick try for the point was low and to the right of the uprights.

The Prowlers, trailing by a 6 to 0 score, began their first touchdown drive when Williamson, from the Prowler 32-yard line, threw a pass to Wagner, who had angled off the left, and Wagner, completing the pass on the Crookston 50-yard line, tossed a lateral to Don Stadum who scampered down the north sideline to the Pirates' 37-yard line. Wes Olson rolled through left guard for a sixteen yard gain and another first down. Williamson picked up 2 yards at center and Olson, in three plays, made a first down on the 11-yard line. Stadum drove to the Crookston 5-yard line as the third period ended.

Olson gained 2 yards at right guard, and then Wally Grovum cut back over left tackle for the touchdown. The try for the conversion point, on a kick, was wide.

Six plays later the Prowlers scored their winning points when Stadum "hit" Williamson with a pass on the Crookston 32-yard line and Al sprinted across the goal for the winning touchdown. The Prowlers had taken the ball on their own 42-yard line on an out-of-bounds kick. After Wally Grovum had picked up a near-first down on a double reverse the Prowlers, on a 15-yard penalty, had been moved back to their 37-yard marker.

A pass was incomplete, and then Stadum being given fine protection by the Prowler front line, pitched a pass to Williamson, who made the catch near the south side-line on the Crookston 32-yard line, and Al dashed down the field for the score, being tackled by Crookston's Pilkey as he crossed the goal-line. The extra point was added to the locals' total when Stadum passed to Wagner.

Impressive in their play, especially in the second half, were Don Green, guard, and Al Williamson. Green was vicious on defense, being particularly effective in breaking up the Pirates' T-formation plays. And Williamson's fine punting, and his accurate passing, were prime factors in the locals win. Wes Olson did some startling line plunging in the third period drive, and Wes was active on defense, too.

PROWLERS NOSE OUT E. G. FORKS WEDNESDAY 7-6

Al Williamson's Point After Touchdown Gives Narrow Victory Margin

Al Williamson's placekick for the conversion point, following Wes Olson's one-yard plunge for a touchdown in the 3rd period, provided the Prowlers with margin of a 7 to 6 victory over East Grand Forks in a bruising North Valley conference football game played here Wednesday night. With that triumph the locals place tie in the North Valley conference standings.

Stubborn defensive play by the East Grand Forks team held the Prowlers scoreless in the first half, with the locals twice having the ball inside the visitors 20-yard line. Early in the second period the Prowlers carried the ball to the East Side's 9-yard stripe, but a fourth down fumble gave the Green Wave the ball. And just before the first half ended, the blue-and-gold had the ball on the East Grand Forks' 8-yard line, but as fourth down pass failed completion.

In the third period, Al Williamson, from the Prowlers' 30-yard line, booted a kick that was downed on the East Grand Forks' 20-yard line. Erv Skaar recovered a Green Wave fumble on the 13-yard line and four plays later the Prowlers scored a touchdown. Williamson's placekick split the uprights and the locals led, 7 to 0.

A recovered Prowler fumble in the fourth period set up the East Grand Forks touchdown, with the Green Wave taking the ball on the locals' 16-yard line. Big Kermit Christianson plunged five yards on the first play, and then hit center to the 1-yard line. Christianson dove through left tackle for the score; but Paul Larson's placekick try for the point was off the right of the crossbar.

GRAND FORKS TEAM LOOKS LIKE CINCH FOR LEAGUE TITLE

Scores Convincing Win over East Grand Forks Last Wednesday 38 to 7

The standings:

	W.	L.	Pts.	Opp. Pts.
Grand Forks	4	0	141	14
E. Grand Forks	3	1	44	58
T. R. Falls	2	2	20	50
Crookston	2	3	32	51

Results of the week's games:
Grand Forks, 38, at E. Grand Forks, 7.
Thief River Falls, 13, at Crookston, 6
Grafton, 0, at Devils Lake, 26.

Games this week:
E. Grand Forks at Thief River Falls.
Devils Lake at Grand Forks.

The fast-stepping Grand Forks Central team clinched a tie for the North Valley conference football championship by walloping East Grand Forks, 38 to 7, last Wednesday night, and this week coach Ed Bohnhoff's squad is heavily favored to defeat the Devils Lake Satans, in a game to be played Friday night at Grand Forks, and win their second conference title in three years. Last year the Prowlers were the champions.

Ronnie Thompson, Grand Forks' speedy right halfback, sparked Central in their convincing triumph over East Grand Forks, the 145-pound back raced for three touchdowns. Incidentally, those three touchdowns boosted Thompson's individual scoring total to 60 points and a 24-point lead over team-mate Bailey McCracken, who is runner-up with 36 points.

The Prowlers surprised the Crookston Pirates last Friday afternoon by turning in a second half rally that accounted for 13 points and gave coach Wayne Johnson's eleven a well-deserved 13 to 6 victory. Crookston, on a touchdown by Dave Pilkey in the second period, had taken the lead and appeared to have control of the game, but midway in the third quarter the Prowlers began to "click," and two touchdowns in the fourth period, provided the winning margin.

The Devils Lake Satans, with Don Lee scoring three touchdowns and a pair of conversion points, trounced the Grafton Spoilers, 26 to 0, at Devils Lake on Friday night. Lee's scoring splurge lifted him into third place in the individual scoring column, holding a two-point lead over Crookston's Dave Pilkey.

Pointing for Bemidji

Following their bruising game with East Grand Forks last night, the Prowlers will have eight days in which to prepare for their final game of the year, and this season the schedule will be concluded with the traditional Bemidji game. And eight days isn't too long a time to concentrate on the Lumberjacks, for coach Kenneth "Red" Wilson has developed the Bemidji squad into one of the best high school elevens in the state.

Red came out with a pre-season prediction that his "pore li'l boys" would merely go thru the motions of playing football this year, as his material was both light and inexperienced. To date those "pore li'l boys" have won seven games and have been scored on only twice. Last week they romped over a well-regarded Park Rapids team, 31 to 6. With "Tipper" Hirt at fullback and Chuck Ankhus and Buster Skipton at the halfbacks, and with Chuck Grover at tackles, it's no wonder that Bemidji is piling up points and recording a fine won-and-lost mark.

To Play at Bemidji

With the game against the Prowlers slated for November 5th on the B. S. T. C. field, weather conditions may have considerable bearing on the outcome for at that late date snow and freezing cold may be expected. Due to Bemidji's conference schedule it was necessary for the Prowler game to be moved back into November. The Central Eight conference, of which Bemidji is a member, increased its membership to ten teams last year, and if these new conference teams — Detroit Lakes and Aitkin—wish to get the Lumberjacks on their schedules, Bemidji will have to drop their games with the Prowlers and East Grand Forks. It is to be hoped, though, that the Bemidji game will remain on the Prowler schedule, for it is a rivalry that dates back a long time. And, too, Bemidji is a member of the eighth region and it is well for the Lumberjacks to keep their contacts with their regional opponents.

Ducks, Pheasants and Fish

With Indian summer weather prevailing — blue skies and bright sunshine—the duck hunters have been moving around in their shirt sleeves and grumbling about the lack of a "flight movement." There were a few duck limits bagged at Thief lake on Sunday morning, with bluebills being in the majority. Most of the hunters are awaiting a change in the weather, and they hope that the change will come before the season closes on Saturday, November 6th. Last year, it will be remembered, the "flight" came through here a couple of days after the season had ended.

But while the duck hunters were complaining, the pheasant hunters were reporting fine luck on Saturday and Sunday. A number of the local hunters made the jaunt to the west-central counties and the territory around Elbow Lake, Ortonville, Wahpeton, and Morris, and the majority reported getting their limits. Pheasant hunting was especially good on Saturday afternoon, but on Sunday the birds were "tight" and it took considerable effort to get them to flush.

And the partridge hunters, at least those that hunted the Blackduck and Waskish area, came in Sunday night with bag limits being the rule. The heavy timber south and east of Blackduck produced a number of birds as did the country east of Waskish.

And in the fish department, a 12½-pound northern pike was hooked and landed at Neptune on Sunday. While Hank Buen was tramping through the bulrushes in the flooded area adjacent to the Neptune bridge on Red Lake river in the hopes of flushing a duck or two his wife, Jane, was fishing off the bridge. Using a small red-eye wiggler Jane made the catch of the northern pike, and its verified weight was 12½ pounds. Hank has been getting a lot of good-natured ribbing about wasting his time out after duck while his wife was busy bringing in a couple of fish dinners.

VALLEY CHILDREN TO WIN BICYCLES IN ESSAY CONTEST

Valley Medical Society Sponsors Event to End Sunday, October 31st

Two boys and two girls in this Red River Valley area will be mighty happy in a few weeks, for they are going to win the four brand-new deluxe bicycles being offered as prizes for writing the best letters on "Why You Think the Blue Shield Non-profit Medical-Surgical Plan Will Help Improve the Health of Your Community."

The contest is part of a health educational program being conducted by the doctors of the Red River Valley Medical Society in conjunction with the Minnesota Blue Shield Plan. Purpose of the program is to bring before the public in the Red River Valley area the importance of good health to every community and the part that prompt medical care plays in bringing health to all citizens.

Blue Shield, is the Minnesota doctors' own non-profit plan for providing medical-surgical care coverage. It helps to pay the doctor bills for employed persons and their families in the same way that the Blue Cross hospitalization plan helps to pay their hospital bills.

All students in the fifth through twelfth grades in Clearwater, Kittson, Lake of the Woods, Mahnomen, Norman, Pennington, Polk, Marshall, Roseau, and Red Lake counties are eligible to enter the contest, which opened Sunday, October 17, and will close at midnight, Sunday, October 31.

Contest entries will be in the form of letters of 100 words or less. Students can submit as many contest letters as they wish, making sure, however, to include their own name and address with each entry and to mail them to the Minnesota Farm Bureau office, 108 North Main Street, Crookston, Minnesota. All entries must be postmarked on or before midnight, Sunday, October 31.

Students can obtain contest kits containing the full contest rules and information on the Blue Shield medical-surgical plan from their teachers, doctors, nearest hospital or Farm Bureau office.

GOOD ROADS GROUP URGES PASSAGE OF AMENDMENT NO. 1

Would Change Basis of Distribution of Present State Gasoline Tax Fund

Amendment No. 1, the so-called 50-50 amendment to be voted on at the November 2nd election, will determine the distribution of the state gasoline tax and not the amount of tax, according to Mary Miles, executive secretary of the Minnesota Good Roads association. This fact needs to be repeated because there has been considerable confusion about the effect of the amendment, continued Miss Miles.

Gasoline and license taxes will not be increased by the amendment. The 1949 Legislature may increase the gas tax or the license fees, or both, or it may leave them unchanged, whether the amendment passes or not.

The amendment proposes to give one-half of the net gasoline tax receipts to the counties, and one-half to the state trunk highway fund. At present, the trunk highway fund receives two-thirds and the counties one-third. In any event, all the money must be used for roads.

The amendment does not affect motor vehicle license fees. These will continue to be dedicated for state trunk highways.

One fact seems to be generally accepted: If the counties do not receive additional revenue, a large mileage of county roads will be transferred tostrinwe will be transferred to the state trunk highway system. And, unless the trunk highway fund gets additional revenue, any new routes added to the system are not likely to be improved for many years.

Costs of road construction and maintenance are much higher than before the war. If more road improvements are to be made, more money will be needed. This will be true whether the amendment passes, or does not pass. The amount of road revenues will be governed by public demand for better roads. The amendment, it should be repeated, determines only where the gas tax money goes, and not how much will be collected.

LAND APPRAISAL CLINIC ON TUESDAY ATTRACTS 80 MEN

Pennington and Red Lake County Farmers Meet With Authorities Here

More than 80 men from Red Lake, Pennington and Marshall counties attended the land appraisal clinic held Tuesday in Pennington county. The clinic was arranged by Frank A. Hobbs, Pennington county agent, Julian Johnson, Red Lake County Agent, the state agriculture extension service and the Federal Land bank of St. Paul.

The group assembled at 9 a. m. for an explanation of the days program by County Agent Hobbs. Then the group went to the Lloyd Johnson farm for the clinic where they spent most of the forenoon making observations on farm improvements.

Paul Burson, soils specialist from the Minnesota agriculture extension service, used a soil auger to present to the group information on the kind of soil and subsoil, and depth of top soil, and the kind and amount of drainage. These observations were the basis for Mr. Burson's discussio non the cropping system and other practices needed to reduce soil losses from water and wind erosion and to obtain maximum yields of grain, row crops, hay and pasture.

J. B. McNulty, extension economist, University of Minnesota, started the afternoon program with the statement, "Land values in Minesota in July 1948 were 88% higher than in the 1935 to 1939 period". Mr. McNulty brought out that farm product expenses are now increasing more rapidly while prices for farm products are on a decline. He also stated that further inflation would increase the risk and the ability to pay debts should prices of farm products drop further.

Woodrow Wilson, appraiser for the Farm Land bank of St. Paul, followed with an interesting explanation of methods used to establish normal value of the farm as required inmaking farm loans. The group calculated the normal value of the farm visited and compared the value with the one made by the appraiser.

Approximately 350 4-H club members, leaders, and parents took part in the evening's program. Roller skating started at 7:30 p. m. and continued until 11:15. 4-H club members as well as the parents and leaders had a great time skating in the arena.

At 9:30, 4-H club members, parents and leaders were divided up into groups with each group being served a tasty lunch in their respective turns.

The Minnesota state 4-H potato show will be held in connection with the Red River potato market clinic, and 4-H members from all over the state will exhibit their potatoes in the contest, which will be held Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, November 3, 4, and 5 in East Grand Forks.

The market clinic will open Thursday morning with extension workers from both North Dakota and Minnesota taking part in a program centered around potato diseases. Other subjects to be discussed will be potato markets and regulations governing sale of potatoes.

Chevrolet . . . Leader in Value

Your choice for QUALITY on all these counts

. . . at prices that are lower than those of any other car in its field!

Your No. 1 Choice for RIDING SMOOTHNESS

There's a very good reason why people agree that Chevrolet gives a much smoother, steadier, safer ride than other cars in its field. That reason is that Chevrolet alone has the original Unitized Knee-Action Ride, backed by more than 14 years' experience in building Knee-Action units. This feature is found elsewhere only in higher-priced cars.

Your No. 1 Choice for PERFORMANCE with ECONOMY

You will enjoy much finer performance with economy in Chevrolet. Its world's champion Valve-in-Head Thrift-Master engine holds all records for miles served, owners satisfied, and years tested and proved. And Valve-in-Head engine-design, like so many other Big-Car quality features, is an advantage that is found only in Chevrolet and higher-priced cars.

Your No. 1 Choice for ALL-ROUND SAFETY

You and your family will ride in safety, thanks to extra-strong Fisher Unisteel Body-Construction—safety plate glass in windshield and windows—the unmatched road-steadiness of the Unitized Knee-Action Ride—and the greater stopping-power of Positive-Action Hydraulic Brakes—fourfold safety-protection exclusive to Chevrolet and more expensive cars!

Your No. 1 Choice for TASTEFUL BEAUTY

You know—and your friends know—that the emblem, Body by Fisher, is the hallmark of bodies that are better by far. Chevrolet's Bodies by Fisher reveal this finer quality inside and out—in every detail—including the hardware, the upholstery and all appointments. Naturally, these finer bodies are exclusive to Chevrolet and higher-priced cars.

Compare Values! . . . Compare Prices! . . .

CHEVROLET—and Only CHEVROLET—IS FIRST!

Mrs. Charles Taylor Dies

Funeral services were held from the Evangelical Free church, Newfolden, on Wednesday afternoon, October 20, for Mrs. Mable Taylor, who passed away at the hospital in Thief River Falls on Sunday, October 17. Rev. Thv. Myhrer officiated at the service. Friends and relatives from far and near filled the church to capacity, and the many floral and memory wreaths were testimony of the high esteem in which the departed was held. Interment was made in Oak Grove cemetery.

Mable Clara Fish, daughter of Edwin and Ida Fish, was born in Adel, Ia. on June 9, 1884. When she was 12 years old she moved to Warren, Minn. with her parents. On July 9, 1902 she was united in marriage to Charles O. Taylor. To this union were born 11 children, all of whom are living except William, who was killed overseas while serving with our armed forces in World War II.

After their marriage Mrs. Taylor moved with her husband onto a farm in New Maine Township. She grew steadily weaker until she passed away early Sunday morning, October 17. She was at the time of her death 64 years, 4 months and 8 days old.

"LAND O' LAKES Fights Our Battles"
Together in Land O' Lakes, dairy farmers can accomplish what none of them could do alone, declares Albert Peterson, who milks 33 cows on his farm near Milaca, Minn. "By co-operating in Land O'Lakes," he says, "we own our own processing plants and share in the returns from distribution, as well. We farmers have a voice in management. We get patronage dividends. But you can't measure what Land O'Lakes does for us only in terms of dollars and cents. Land O'Lakes represents our interests, fights our battles, all year 'round."

If you milk cows or raise poultry, sell through Land O'Lakes. As farmers testify, it pays.

Vote For WALLACE and TAYLOR and the PROGRESSIVE CANDIDATES

The Republicans and the Democrats are both giving us the same generalities and the same promise and double talk to be forgotten after election.

Remember it was Wallace and Roosevelt who pulled the farmers and the working people out of the dark depression days of 1932. They kept their promises.

Wallace and Taylor and the Progressive Candidates stand for a sound, practical Soil Conservation and Farm Program, with fair and just labor laws, and the repeal of the Taft-Hartly Act.

Wallace and Taylor stand for a sincere peace policy, with an honest effort to keep us out of war. They are not trying to irritate and talk us into war. During the last year the Republicans and the Democrats have united in a bi-partisan program to preach hate, distrust, and war. They are now going 3000 miles away from home to Greece, China, Korea, Indo China, and other countries to meddle in their affairs and to dictate and dominate.

The main stock in trade of the Republicans and Democrats during the last year has been to besmirch others who do not agree with them, by calling them Communists. They even call each other Communist. You have read it in the newspapers, and you have heard it over the radio. The Republicans and Democrats are creating Fascists and Communists. Fascism seems right around the corner. Our liberties are in danger.

We need to correct the bad social and economic conditions that cause us to have Fascists and Communists. We need justice and tolerance for all. We need Wallace and Taylor and the Progressives to protect our civil rights and our four freedoms that the Republicans and Democrats ignore. Wallace and Taylor stand for the rights of man.

Let's vote for the Progressive Candidates and take the government out of the hands of the corporations and Wall Street, and the militarists under the leadership of Marshall and Forrestal. These men are talking and leading us into war and into Fascism.

Wallace and Taylor believe in developing our own country right here at home. They believe in fair laws for the farmer . . . For the working man . . . And for the small business man. They believe in first developing our own natural resources at home rather than 3000 miles away. They believe in protecting our civil rights and the four freedoms, and in correcting the social and economic conditions that cause Fascism and Communism.

LET'S STICK . . . LET'S BUILD THE THIRD PARTY AGAIN . . . LET'S VOTE FOR CANDIDATES WHO ARE PROGRESSIVE.

BE SURE TO VOTE . . . TELL YOUR FRIENDS . . . GET OUT THE VOTE.

POLITICAL ROUNDUP

By Arthur Naftalin

How many people will vote in next Tuesday's general election? The answer to this question will decide the outcome in the several crucial contests that will be sharing the political spotlight and the state may be in for some surprises.

Some rather unusual success for the Democratic-Farmer-Labor Party is not unlikely, and, if that should happen, the curtain will be coming down on a distinct era in Minnesota politics which began with the Republican state sweep in 1938.

Observers generally agree the Presidential contest is a tossup. Polls shown President Truman having a slight advantage, but a light vote could most certainly wipe it out. Franklin Roosevelt carried the state in 1944 over Governor Dewey by only 62,000 votes, or less than two per cent margin in the 1,117,000 votes cast for the Presidency.

The Presidential contest could clearly go either way, but observers are giving a slight edge to Truman. In his favor, they say, are three important factors: (1) The pronounced support for the Democratic Party among the working people, (2) a persistent note of skepticism among farmers over Dewey's stand on agricultural issues, and (3) a purely local factor, the resentment among some otherwise normal Republican voters of Dewey's defeat of former Governor Stassen in the GOP national convention.

In the widely-publicized, much-discussed Senatorial contest, the polls give the advantage to Mayor Hubert H. Humphrey of Minneapolis over the Republican incumbent Joseph H. Ball.

But the Republicans have been campaigning furiously during these final days of the campaign. If intensity of campaigning can reverse a trend, the Republicans conceivably could succeed in blocking Humphrey.

Humphrey's strategists are convinced, however, that the Minneapolis Mayor is certain to win, if the vote is large. This is a big if. A small vote, running substantially less than 1,000,000, could even up the contest. An usually heavy vote, running as high as 1,200,000, in the view of the Humphrey people, would give their man a wide margin, as much as 150,000 to 200,000.

There is cause for concern among Republicans in several of the Congressional races. That certain districts will be extremely close is indicated in a recent Minnesota Poll that showed, on a statewide basis, 43 per cent of the voters favored the Republican candidates and 40 per cent would support the Democrats.

The districts in which the contests are likely to be closest are the Eighth, Fourth, and Third. In the Eigth, DFL incumbent John A. Blatnik is engaged in a close struggle with GOP William Berlin.

A large vote in the Fourth (St. Paul) and in the Third (mostly in Minneapolis) could repeat the 1944 experience when the DFL scored surprise victories in these two districts. In the Fourth, GOP incumbent Edward Devitt is opposed by Eugene McCarthy; in the Third, GOP incumbent George Mac Kinnon is opposed by Roy Wier.

While the DFL's hopes are highest in the districts mentioned, there is still optimism that surprises could happen in the Fifth, where GOP incumbent Walter Judd is opposed by Marcella Killen, and in the Sixth, where the veteran GO. Harold Knutson is opposed by Fred Marshall.

In the Second district, the politicians will also be watching the showing that Milton Maxwell; a new DFL hopeful, will be making against incumbent Joseph O'Hara. This is Maxwell's first political effort, and, while he is not given much of a chance of overtaking O'Hara, he is regarded as one of the important future leaders and candidates of the DFL.

The Democrats once controlled the Second district, and, if the DFL shows real strength this year, this area will most likely become an important point of concentration for the DFL in future years.

Republicans are most confident of success in retaining the Congressional seats in the First, Seventh, and Ninth districts. In the First, August Andresen is opposed by DFL Karl Rolvaag; in the Seventh, H. Carl Anderson is opposed by James Youngdale, and, in the Ninth, GOP Harold Hagen is opposed by Oscar Johnson. Both Youngdale and Johnson are spokesmen for the Henry Wallace Progressive Party.

Added to these significant contests are many local contests that will increase voters' interest. The entire state House of Representatives will be chosen, and there are a large number of races for county commissions that have created widespread interest.

WIVES HELP HUSBANDS "PAINT THE TOWN"

Blue Earth—Carl Thomas and Charles Saunders had more painting contracts than they could handily keep up with. Their work kept them away from home a great deal. Their respective wives weren't too happy about the whole thing. So they became painters, joined their husbands, and now the four of them can be together and get more work done faster to the satisfaction of all.

Want To Join Our Club?

Newcomers to our town are puzzled when they hear talk of "The Barbecue Club." Want to know who can join, and what the purpose is.

Well, the answer is: any one can join who's neighborly inclined. The purpose is simply to enjoy good food, good beer and ale, good conversation—all towards getting to know one another better.

Every other Saturday, at one farm or another, the pit is dug, and the fire started. And by sundown, neighbors from miles around have come together—the women contributing cakes, pies, and coffee, the men contributing the meat for barbecuing, and the beer or ale.

From where I sit, it's this simple wholesome side of country life in America—its spirit of good-fellowship—that makes for tolerance and better understanding between neighbors.

As I say, Neighbor, any one can join up! So come along a week from this Saturday.

INDUSTRY LEADER CITES INCREASED CALL FOR FUEL OIL

Oil Industry Is Set to Meet Record Demand During Coming Winter

With the heavy gasoline consuming season drawing to a close, oil companies are preparing to meet a record demand for fuel oils this coming winter, Walter L. Holmgren, district chairman of the Oil Industry Information Committee said today.

"Oil companies everywhere have broken all production records to meet the unparalleled demand for petroleum products this year and, barring unforeseen circumstances, will continue to do so this winter," declared Mr. Holmgren.

Domestic fuel oil demands this year are estimated at more than double what they were before the war and 20 percent higher than they were last, he said, citing a recent nationwide survey. This means that we are consuming fuel oil at an average rate of 41 million gallons every day of the year, he added. Our consumption of all petroleum products averages close to 250 million gallons a day.

Installations of oil burners for central heating in homes and small stores have skyrocketed since the end of the war, Mr. Holmgren pointed out, adding that the increase in new burners up to the early part of this year amounted to about 55 percent compared with 1941. Oil burning units now in use amount to more than 3,700,000.

Outlining what home owners can do to stretch heating oil supplies as far as possible and also save money, Mr. Holmgren said:

"Much can be done at surprisingly little expense by taking advantage of the current season to modernize present heating plants, or having them checked and cleaned to be sure ytu will get the most efficient use of your fuel oil. Also check for leaks around window sashes, door frames, and floor plates, and install storm windows and insulation to keep heat in and cold out next winter."

DRIVERS TIMID? 504 SKIP THEIR LICENSE EXAMS

Nothing About Tests to Be Afraid of, Says License Supervisor

Quite a number of Minnesota motorists, particularly women drivers, are permitting their licenses to be cancelled because they have some unfounded apprehension about taking driver examinations, in the opinion of E. P. Lee, drivers license supervisor of the highway department.

Out of 599 drivers licenses canceled last month only 59 were cancelled for failure to pass the driving tests but 504 were voided because of failure of the applicants to come into an examination station and take the test. Singularly, the number of such applicants who were women was all out of proportion to the normal ratio of men and women drivers.

"It is regrettable that any applicant for a drivers license should stay away from taking the examinations because he or she is afraid to take the tests," Mr. Lee commented. "There is nothing about these exams for anyone to be afraid of. Their only purpose is to determine that a person is competent to drive a motor vehicle with a reasonable degree of safety.

"Every examiner on the force is there to help toward this end. Even if an applicant does not pass on the first test, that is no mark against the individual. The worst that can happen is simply that the applicant be advised to get some further instructions and come back again. The very fact that virtually all applicants ultimately do pass the examinations successfully is, in itself, an indication that everyone who takes the tests is a better driver for having taken them, and no one should have any hesitancy about taking advantage of the examiners' services."

ANNUAL MEETING OF PENNINGTON CO. FAIR ASSN. NOV. 4

To Elect Four Members of Board of Directors and Hear Annual Report

The Pennington County Agricultural society, sponsor of the county fair in this city, will hold its annual meeting next Thursday evening, November 4, at 8 o'clock in the Civic and Commerce room, A. F. Berge, secretary, stated today.

Three members of the board of directors will be elected, the 3-year terms of Robert Lund, Albert Koop and Stuart McLeod expiring at this time. The post held by Karl Gerstner, recently appointed to the board to succeed W. E. Dahlquist, resigned, also will come up for election.

At the meeting secretary Berge will submit his report covering the financial outcome of the 1948 fair, and plans for next year's event will be discussed.

State Commission on Constitution Proposes Changes

The Constitutional Commission, created by act of the 1947 Minnesota legislature "to study and consider the constitution in relation to political, economic, and social changes and developments and to recommend amendments determined to be in the public interest necessary or proper to meet present and probable future governmental requirements" has completed its work.

The commission's final report has been filed with the secretary of state and copies have been [illegible] to members of the legislature, to the governor, and to the justices of the supreme court. A limited supply of multilithed copies of the report are available now for public distribution and printed copies can be had upon request at a later date.

The commission and its several committees have been engaged in a continuous and thorough study of our state constitution since July 1, 1947. Altogether, some fifty persons have shared in this important undertaking, including legislators, judges, administrators, lawyers, business men, farmers, labor leaders, and educators. They have endeavored to preserve and strengthen the basic foundations upon which our state governmental system was founded and at the same time to provide a state government adequately organized and empowered to meet present day problems.

The commission's report recommends no amendments to 40 sections of the present constitution and only minor changes are recommended in 34 sections, in addition to 6 wholly new sections. Some of the major amendments proposed by the commission are:

1. The addition of the peaceable assembly and petition for redress of grievances to the Bill of Rights.

2. A new section on legislative apportionment designed to insure action every ten years.

3. Authorization to the legislature to extend the 90-day limit on regular sessions.

4. Removal from the constitution of the elective offices of secretary of state, treasurer, and auditor.

5. A new provision for a state auditor chosen by and responsible to the legislature.

6. More adequate provision for succession to the governorship.

7. Constitutional status for the executive budget and merit systems which are now provided by statute.

8. A more unified state judicial system, with provision for an administration of the courts.

9. Compulsory retirement of judges at age 70.

10. Consolidation and simplification of constitutional provisions for public lands and educational trust funds.

11. Strengthening and clarifying the legislature's taxing powers.

12. A revised section on state indebtedness removing the limit on amount but making strict provisions for debt retirement.

13. Making all dedicated revenues subject to biennial legislative appropriation and providing that only the "net proceeds" of such revenues and trust funds shall be so dedicated or reserved.

14. Elimination of nearly all the present sections on state banks and private corporations.

15. Strengthening home rule for cities, extending it to counties, and restricting special legislation for local governments by requiring that such laws be subject to local referenda.

16. Removing from the constitution the detailed description of the original 70 routes of the trunk highway system and authorizing the legislature, advised by a new highway commission, to add to, delete, or alter existing routes other than the original 70.

17. Requiring a two-thirds vote of the legislature instead of a majority as at present to propose constitutional amendments, but requiring only a majority of those voting on the question to adopt an amendment.

18. Provision for submitting to the people every twenty years the question of calling a constitutional convention.

The commission points out in its report that if all of the changes it is proposing were adopted, the length of the constitution would be reduced from 19,493 to 9,729 words.

The commission's recommendations now go to the legislature for consideration and possible action. The legislature may decide at the 1949 and subsequent sessions to submit one or all of the proposals to the people in the form of amendments or it may decide that the need for constitutional revision is such as to warrant submitting to the people the question of calling a constitutional convention. Amendments Nos. 2 and 3 to be voted upon November 2, if adopted, will modify the procedures necessary for constitutional change.

The members of the commission, in submitting their report, express confidence in the fact that, after months of careful study, they have arrived at final decisions with virtual unanimity, and they hope the report will serve the people of Minnesota and their elected representatives as a basis for effective constitutional revision.

For the Good of All . . . . .

DEWEY AND WARREN

Thomas E. Dewey grew up in a small town here in the Middle West. He worked on a farm as a boy, and now lives on a farm. He stands committed to a program of price supports, expansion of rural electrification and improved soil conservation.

For Parity Program

He repeatedly has declared his support of the long-range farm program passed by the last Congress, supporting farm prices at 90% of parity through the 1949 crop year and setting up a flexible plan of support thereafter, so that farmers will be protected in the degree of their need. Said he recently:

"We must make sure that the farmer, while being encouraged to produce plentifully to meet the needs of the people for food, does not become the victim of his own production. Our program of price supports must be maintained. It will benefit the farmers and it is for the good of all the people."

Freedom and opportunity for all men is Dewey's goal. An able administrator, he has established efficiency and integrity in New York's state government and increased its usefulness to the people. Ably assisted by Governor Warren as Vice-President, he will revamp the government in Washington and place it on a new plane of service as he did the government of New York.

JOE BALL

Joe Ball has never looked for the easy way out. From the earliest days of his service in the United States Senate, he had the courage to be honest. While others hesitated, he told the people clearly and unequivocally what he proposed to do on the great issues facing the country.

His Fight for Peace

While most officials waited, uncertain of public opinion and unwilling to risk criticism, Joe introduced a resolution seeking to put the Senate on record for a strong international organization for peace. He carried his campaign to the people, and helped more than any other official to create the public support that has made possible the United Nations.

Time after time Joe Ball has fought for the things he thinks are right, regardless of political consequences. An editor wrote on one of these occasions:

"Joe Ball considered his country first and his job second. He called the his turn as he saw it, and he gets our vote." Said another editor: "He has placed the country's future above small-time political considerations. We couldn't vote against him and go to bed that night with a clear conscience."

He led the fight for legislation that would curb the abuses in the field of labor relations and yet preserve the rights and privileges of workers.

For Price Supports

Appreciative of the needs of agriculture, he fought for the long-range farm program adopted by the last Congress, the first action ever taken to assure farmers of long-range protection against crippling price drops.

He opposed repeal of the federal tax on oleomargarine. He fought for the biggest appropriation ever made for rural electrification and has consistently urged the expansion of soil conservation facilities.

YOUNGDAHL

All Minnesota looks to Governor Luther W. Youngdahl as the champion of youth. All over the state, his pleas for better opportunities for boys and girls have stirred audiences.

Plan to Aid Youth

Believing its youth are Minnesota's greatest asset, he obtained passage of an act setting up a Youth Conservation Commission, which is (1) directing the treatment of youthful offenders along new lines, shaped to promote their rehabilitation, and (2) stimulating activities to prevent boys and girls getting into trouble.

He drove slot machines out of the state, because, he said, they are a menace to the welfare of youth.

More Aid to Schools

He led in the fight for improvement of state school aid distribution and more ample school support, which, among other gains, increased state aid to local schools $11,000,000 a year. He recognized the plight of persons depending on the state's assistance programs and fought for increased allowances. He championed a bill providing state aid for public health nursing. He has embarked upon a far-reaching plan to improve care of the mentally ill and give them the fullest opportunity for rehabilitation. In field after field, he has sought to improve the state's services. "God bless you," parents have written, "for trying to make Minnesota a better place in which to live."

HUNTERS URGED TO AID IN PREVENTION OF FOREST FIRES

Chester Wilson, State Conservation Chief, Appeals to Nimrods

An appeal to hunters to carry fire fighting tools and cooperate in preventing and extinguishing forest fires was issued today by Chester S. Wilson, commissioner of conservation.

"Due to recent rains in northern Minnesota, we do not consider it necessary to close hunting seasons at this time," Mr. Wilson said. "However, we are watching conditions closely, and may have to shut down on hunting in the forest region if it should get dry again.

"Continuance of hunting will depend largely on the operation of the hunters themselves in preventing and fighting fires. Seasons carrying the greatest fire hazard will be the squirrel and rabbit season, opening Oct. 15, and the ruffed grouse season opening October 23, as they attract hunters into forest areas.

We urge every hunter to cooperate as follows:

1. Make sure you extinguish burning cigarettes, matches, camp fires, or other sources of fire.
2. Carry in your car and keep handy in camp the following tools for fire fighting: shovel, axe, water pail, and gunny sacks to wet for beating out fires.
3. Put out any uncontrolled forest fire you encounter if you can.
4. If a fire is too big for you to handle, immediately notify the nearest forest ranger, game warden, or other conservation officers.

'U' CANCER CENTER TESTS 957 TO DATE

More Than Half Found to Need eMdical Help

More than one-half of the 957 Minnesota men and women examined at the University of Minnesota's cancer detection center during the first seven months of its operation were found to have abnormalities requiring medical attention, Dr. David State, director of the center, reported this week.

Ailments diagnosed in 527 patrons of the center included: 15 definite cases of cancer, 235 pre-cancerous lesions or sores, 131 benign (non-malignant) tumors, 270 non-tumorous but abnormal conditions and 49 suspicious tumors. Some of the patients with abnormalities were suffering from two or even three conditions requiring a physician's care, Dr. State reported.

The 95 patrons examined at the center from March 1 to September 30, included 478 women and 479 men.

Although 430 patrons were in good health at the time of their examinations, they were advised to return to the center every six months in order to assure themselves that they are still free of cancerous or pre-cancerous conditions.

Approximately 4,000 are waiting for appointments at the present time, according to Dr. State. The center is open to men and women of Minnesota in the age bracket in which cancer occurs most frequently, 45 and over. Located on Church street just west of University Hospitals, the center is operated on an appointment basis, and examinations are conducted on Tuesdays for women and Thursdays for men.

All persons requiring medical attention are referred to their personal physicians for treatment after examination at the center.

Each person examined is asked to pay a $5 registration fee, and the same amount on each return visit. If the patient is unable to meet the charge, however, the fee is usually waived.

A project of the University's medical school, the cancer detection center is financed in part by the Minnesota state division of the American Cancer society, the National Cancer Institute of the United Staes Public Health service and the University's malignant disease research fund.

Fuel in Central America

Since Central America has no proved coal or oil deposits, wood (or charcoal) was once the only fuel of home and industry alike. Later, some hydroelectric power was developed, particularly in Costa Rica. Imported kerosene, however, long ago became the indispensable household fuel.

Expenditures for Federal printing and publications have risen until they now exceed a cost estimated at 53 million dollars annualliy.

G. E. LAMBERSON, WARREN FARMER, SAYS . . .

Mr. Lamberson is a well known farmer—operator of Lake View Farm near Warren, Minn. Active in church and lodge circles. He says—

"I'm Voting for Senator Ball

because . . .

He has proved that he's got what it takes to be a good Senator. You know, electing a Senator is a good deal like picking a hired man on the farm. Two fellows apply for the job. One of them has worked on farms for years; he knows livestock and crops and machinery. He'll take care of your property and make money for you. The other one is willing enough, but the nearest he's ever come to farming is the city hall flower garden. Which would you hire? So would I—and that's why I'm voting for Joe Ball."

County Eligible to Get $13,200 U. S. Road Aid Next Year

Pennington county will be eligible to receive $13,200 in federal aid secondary highway funds in each of the next two years for improvements on the 48 miles of its county roads which have been incorporated into Minnesota's approved F.A.S. system, according to allotments authorized this week by State Highway Commissioner M. J. Hoffman. Marshall county is eligible for $35,600, and Red Lake county for $10,800.

A total of $4,000,000 of the state's federal aid secondary funds for the fiscal years 1950 and 1951 was allocated to Minnesota counties under the commissioner's announcement, released today. This will finance up to 50 per cent of the cost of an $8,000,000 program of county road construction, which will be addition to approximately $12,500,000 worth of County-F.A.S. projects now either completed, in progress, under contact or in approved programs as a result of previous allotments since 1946 totalling $6,224,000.

The federal funds allotted require 50-50 matching by county funds, which in turn may be paid either out of county tax revenues or the state collected funds allotted to the counties for state aid and county aid roads, or both.

The 1950 allotments totalling $2,000,000 will become available for re-imbursement on approved county projects on July 1, 1949, according to a letter addressed to all county engineers and county auditors by O. L. Kipp, highway department assistant commissioner and chief engineer. Thus counties can proceed at once to complete plans, surveys and programs for early lettings next spring.

Mr. Kipp explained that Commissioner Hoffman had based his county allotments on the full $2,000,000 figure, even though Congress had reduced F.A.S. appropriations for the next two fiscal years by 10 per cent. Rather than pass the 10 per cent reduction on to the counties, Kipp's letter explained, the highway commissioner made county allotments on the same basis as last year with the reservation that the state can reclaim up to 10 per cent, or $200,000, for each fiscal year in the event such amounts are not used as allocated.

CONGRESSMEN SEE DANGER IF OLEO TAX IS REPEALED

5 Incumbents Say Dem Platform Proposal Would Hurt Farmers Seriously

Five of Minnesota's congressmen, representing rural areas of the state, in a broadcast heard throughout the state this past week reviewed the benefits expected from passage of the first long-range farm program ever adopted and warned against proposals which may prove detrimental to the farmer.

A special target of the speakers was the proposal in the Democratic national platform, adopted in Philadelphia, calling for repeal of the oleo tax. All five of the congressmen taking part in the discussion—Representatives August H. Andresen, Joseph P. O'Hara, H. Carl Andersen, Harold Knutson and Harold C. Hagen — joined in sounding the warning against the proposal, just as they opposed the repeal measure when it was before the last session of Congress. Said Knutson:

"This proposal is one of the most serious to the prosperity of rural communities. The loss to farmers in my district alone from the oleo tax repeal could easily exceed $6,000,000 a year. A loss in farm buying power like that ought to make the business men and citizens of farm communities sit up and take notice."

Representative Hagen said: "The last Congress appropriated $800,000,000 for Rural Electrification, largest amount by far ever appropriated for this purpose. We are going forward with this program and push as rapidly as we can the job of lighting up rural America." Congressman O'Hara added that the last Congress had appropriated for REA fully 42% of all the money voted to it in its 14 years of history.

All agreed on the importance of extending and improving the soil conservation services.

Authors of the ten best scripts are to receive medals given by the Auxiliary and in addition will be heard in broadcasts over Radio Station WCCO, Minneapolis. Transportation costs to the Twin Cities are paid.

Three hundred and twenty Minnesota motorists forfeited their drivers licenses by revocation last month for driving while drunk. This brought to 2,907 the number of driving permits revoked by courts throughout the state for drunken driving during the first nine months of the year, the state highway department's monthly report of drivers license activities disclosed today.

Formula for Misfortune

A BEGGAR clutched at the coat of a benevolent-looking passer-by.

"Five cents, sir, for a cup of coffee," he whined.

The other turned to him.

"Why should I give you five cents?" he asked. "What brought you to this terrible plight?"

"A terrible catastrophe, sir," the beggar replied. "Two years ago, like you, I enjoyed business prosperity. I worked hard. On the wall above my desk was the motto: 'Think Constructively! Act Decisively!' Wealth poured my way. And then. . . one night. . ."

"Yes, yes?"

The beggar's frame shook convulsively. "The janitor burned my motto."

"I'm Voting for Senator Ball because . . . .
Joe Ball appeals to me as a straight-forward statesman, and we in Minnesota can justly feel proud of him. I like the way he promoted the cause of the soldiers during the war and insisted on our being well equipped. I like his clear-headed approach to our many national and foreign problems and his ability to work for the best interests of all of us, regardless of pressure groups. He is still a young man with 8 years in the Senate, and his seniority is valuable to us in Minnesota."

PUBLIC OPINION

Editor the Times:

In 1917, 10,000 citizens of our country lost their lives due to fire. 30,000 others were maimed and crippled. Most of these deaths and casualties were among small children.

We therefore wish to take this opportunity to thank the various lodges, organizations, school personnel, the Times, radio Station K. T. R. F., the insurance people and especially the Junior Chamber of Commerce for the splendid support given us during Fire Prevention Week. Only by united effort can we cut down the mounting destruction [illegible] Thief River Falls Fire Department.

Bloomquist Attends Elks Meeting in Minneapolis

With 86 delegates present and 22 lodges represented, the Minnesota State Elks Association meeting at Minneapolis Elks Lodge, awarded the 1949 convention to Mankato, to be held some time in June. Among guests present were Sam Stern, grand trustee, of Fargo, N. D.; and District Deputies M. T. Nilan of Austin and J. E. Bloomquist of Thief River Falls.

W. C. T. U. News Notes

The local W. C. T. U. enjoyed a fine get-together in the form of "Family Night" at the Zion church on Friday evening. A fine meal was served by the members to over 80 persons, and a splendid program followed. Dr. Arvid Carlson of Warren was guest speaker and his son Paul played the coronet with Mrs. Carlson at the piano. Miss Cook led in prayer before the supper. Mrs. Betty Dow and Mrs. Bernard Lanska sang two selections. Vernon McMahon led in devotion.

Dr. Carlson had worked in a Veterans' mental hospital in Roanoke, Va., and was shocked to see the results of drinking. Over 50 per cent of the 1100 patients were there because of liquor. Medical circles have come to the decision that alcohol is a depressant and not a stimulant. We must face the facts concerning what alcohol does to the human body and mind and take a definite stand against it. The only safe rule is total abstinence. We need the constant interest of all people opposed to liquor. We must educate society and work for proper legislation.

Jean Vielguth gave a splendid talk on "Youth Speaks." Mrs. Westacott spoke on "A Sunday School Superintendent speaks." Miss Cook, our district president made comments and the meeting closed with prayer.

GROWING WITH YOUR CHILD

Institute of Child Welfare, University of Minnesota

Social Skills, Too, Are Learned

One kind of situation in which parents are most anxious for their children to conform is that of social occasions. Many an upset has followed an afternoon in which the little ones, who have been so carefully trained at home, have behaved atrociously in public.

What are you to do when, having no alternative, you take young Johnny shopping with you and he handles the merchandise with gay abandon and dashes around getting in everyone's way? Or, when you take the youngsters to a nice restaurant for an experience in "dining out," they contrive to spill things, whine, or tell all your family secrets to the roomful of people, do you lose sight of your good intentions and wish that you had stayed at home?

One thing to remember is that the social amenities are very real to you because they have been learned by a long and tedious process, but they are totally new and vague concepts to a child. Give him all the information you can beforehand about what things will be like and what is expected of him and above all, don't ask any more of him than he is capable of doing.

Some parents have found that a short "dry run" shopping trip helps to initiate the child into the exciting mysteries of a department store at a time when you can give your attention to explaining things to him and answering his questions. A gradual beginning in eating out can be made by an occasional dish of ice cream or a sandwich in a restaurant.

Remember, too, that the young child's interest is not great in a shopping trip or a social occasion of any kind. Whenever possible, give him some particular, personal part in it, something he can look forward to and direct his attention toward, such as helping to pick out his new coveralls. This gives some purpose to the trip for him, too. All such excursions, whether for experience or for the real thing, should be short because they are tiring and the child's interest soon lags. He is unable to keep track of the many things his mother wants to do and he never knows what to expect next. To bring him home exhausted and confused and scolded for misbehavior that he doesn't understand will mean starting out the next time with a feeling of uneasiness. Every successful social occasion makes the next one more likely to be pleasant, also.

Strength of Jewish Army

Haganah, the first Hebrew army to take the field in the Holy Land in 2,000 years, is unofficially estimated to be 53,000 strong in full battle strength. With universal conscription, Haganah has at its disposal the full manpower of Jewish Palestine. All Jews between the ages of 18 and 35 get red conscription cards, after their medical examinations, showing their call-up dates. Fathers and only sons are exempt.

Brandt Attacks CIO for Seeking Return of 60-cent Butter

An attempt of the C.I.O. Political Action Committee to impress upon voters the necessity of electing a congress that will bring butter back to 60 cents a pound was attacked today by John Brandt, president of Land O' Lakes Creameries, Inc., as an injustice to the entire economy.

He cited an advertisement prepared and paid for by the C.I.O. body that appeared in New Republic magazine. This ad, he said, advises voters for whom they should vote to accomplish the 60 cents a pound butter price.

"I wonder what the labor leaders in America would say," he declared, "if farm leaders should prepare and pay for an ad advocating the same drastic reduction in the hourly income of labor that 60 cents retail butter will mean in the way of a reduction in the farmers' income. This would leave the farmer about 45 cents a pound for his butter at his creamery, out of which must be taken the manufacturing cost.

"At a price level on the wholesale market of 71 cents, which is the equivalent of about 85 cents retail per pound, the farmer receives only 53 cents an hour for the actual labor he puts in the care and milking of his cows."

The figure of 53 cents an hour, Mr. Brandt pointed out, is based on two official reports of the University of Minnesota, Division of Agricultural Economics, and the U. S. Department covering 201 dairy farmers in Southern Minnesota.

"Farmers are not demanding drastic reductions in the wages paid to labor," he said, "because they realize that under present conditions the economy of America cannot stand the kind of deflation that a return to 60 cents butter would bring about. This would start a progression of events that would not only mean lower income for agriculture but would also affect the earnings of labor and industry.

"Farmers and their whole families must work long hours, Sundays and holidays included, to make both ends meet at the price levels for dairy products that have prevailed the last year.

"If farmers worked only five eight-hour days, consumers would not only be short of dairy products, but would go hungry for want of a sufficient amount of food raised on our farms.

"The best way to start a depression is for farm prices to be pushed down to the point where farmers cannot make ends meet. Already prices have been drastically reduced, while the farmers' cost of operation has been materially increased."

Mr. Brandt said that there has never been a time in this generation when an hour's work would purchase as much butter as today.

He urged farmers to go out and vote on November 2 for men who are not jeopardizing the entire nation by advocating further drastic reductions in the price of agricultural products.

Truman, Humphrey, Youngdahl Win Tuesday

NEAR-RECORD VOTE OF 5,600 IN PENNINGTON

Truman Given Strong Support; Close Races for the County Board

With a near-record total of approximately 5,600 votes cast, more than half of them in Thief River Falls, Pennington county voters in the general election Tuesday strongly supported the Democratic ticket in the national election, President Truman leading Thomas E. Dewey, Republican, by the top-heavy majority of 3,402 to 1,754. Henry A. Wallace, Progressive candidate, trailed with 416 votes.

By nearly as decisive a margin, Hubert Humphrey, DFL aspirant for the U. S. Senate, led incumbent Joseph H. Ball, Republican, the county lead being 3,548 to 2,069. Governor Luther W. Youngdahl led his DFL opponent, Charles L. Halsted 3,100 to 2,383, and Mike Holm, secretary of state, carried Pennington county as usual with 3,254 votes to 2,323 for Koscie H. Marsh, his DFL opponent.

In the other partisan contests in the county, DFL contenders led their Republican rivals.

Oscar R. Knutson received a strong endorsement here in his first campaign for associate justice of the supreme court, tallying 4,126 votes, while Thomas Gallagher, seeking the other supreme court post, received 2,724 votes.

Judge Paul A. Lundgren of the district court, who was unopposed for election, received a large complimentary vote, as did Probate Judge Herman A. Kjos and Clerk of Court Henry Storhaug.

Harold C. Hagen, Ninth district representative in Congress, showed less than his usual vote-getting power in Pennington county in nosing out his DFL left-wing opponent, Oscar A. Johnson, by a vote of 2,859 to 2,731.

Odin C. Hanson, sticker candidate for county commissioner from the first district, was elected by the narrow margin of 384 votes to 376 for Theodore P. Hyland, incumbent, and 332 for Frank Race, former commissioner.

In the third district, Paul Roy, veteran incumbent, eked out a victory over Carl R. Anderson by the close vote of 422 to 401. In the fifth, Glenn Tasa defeated Simon Brelland 443 to 405 for the seat soon to be relinquished by O. M. Mant.

22 Teams of Solicitors Meet Good Response at Outset of Campaign

Following a kickoff breakfast Monday morning in the Rex Cafe, 22 teams of solicitors began making the rounds of the business district in behalf of the campaign for the Pennington County Community Fund.

The teams reported to Vic Jung, city chairman, that they were meeting with a cooperative attitude from the public, which apparently is heartily in sympathy with the drive's objective of eliminating the numerous separate solicitations conducted in the past.

Jung stated that it is hoped to complete the solicitation in Thief River Falls by the end of the week, and that workers have been requested to complete their calls and report in to headquarters Friday.

Mrs. Frank Hardisty is heading the drive in the rural areas of the county, and is being assisted by women of the Farm Bureau. As is to be expected, the coverage of the rural districts will take longer than in the city, and may not be completed before November 20.

The $9,000 it is hoped to raise for the Community Fund will be divided among the Sister Kenny Foundation, the National Cancer Society, USO, Salvation Army and Boy and Girl Scouts, with a reserve set up in a contingent fund to take care of any other solicitations that sponsors of various agencies might contemplate in the future.

Incumbent Minnesota State Officials Win Reelection Tuesday

President Harry S Truman, the man whom pre-election polls predicted didn't have a chance of being elected president, confounded the experts in the general election Tuesday by defeating his Republican opponent, Governor Thomas E. Dewey, by a margin of 22,229,000 popular votes to 20,371,000, with 122,083 of the nations 135,867 precincts reported. Henry A. Wallace got slightly more than 1,000,000 votes, and Strom Thurmond got 862,000.

The Democrats, as a result of the election, also will take over firm control of the 81st session of Congress. With 218 members needed to dominate the House, they elected 256 members, while 23 senators were elected by the Democrats, in addition to which the party has 30 holdover seats.

Republicans and Democratic-Farmer-Laborites shared honors in Tuesday's general election in Minnesota, but the DFL walked off with biggest prizes.

The DFL won:

The state's 11 electoral votes for President Truman.

The seat in the U. S. senate held for the last eight years by Republican Senator Joseph H. Ball.

Four seats in the house of representatives, a gain of three. One of the seats was wrested from the veteran sixth district representative, Harold Knutson, chairman of the house ways and means committee.

A railroad and warehouse commissionership previously held by a Republican.

Against this the Republicans held onto five seats in congress, the governorship and four other state offices. In every case but one, that of Secretary of State Mike Holm, they had to overcome threatening early leads to hold their posts.

President—2,859 of 3,738 precincts, Truman 504,459; Gov. Thomas E. Dewey 367,119; Henry Wallace 17,743.

Senator—Mayor Hubert Humphrey of Minneapolis; DFL, 530,423; Ball 365,032.

DFL PARTY GAINS IN STATE ELECTION

Governor — Gov. Luther W. Youngdahl, Republican, 479,244; Charles Halsted, DFL, 393,891; Orville Olson, Progressive, 8,987.

Republicans re-elected were August Andresen first district; Joseph P. O'Hara second; Walter Judd, fifth; H. Carl Andersen, seventh; and Harold Hagen, ninth.

Rep. John Blatnik, until now the state's only DFL representative, was re-elected from the eighth district. Joining him, besides Marshall, will be Roy Wier, third district, and Eugene McCarthy, fourth district.

Republican state officials elected, besides Governor Youngdahl and Secretary Holm, were Lt. Gov. C. Elmer Anderson, State Treasurer Julius Schmahl and Attorney General A. J. Burnquist.

Railroad and Warehouse Commissioner Rollin Johnson lost to Clifford Peterson, DFL nominee. Johnson was nominated by the Republican party and appointed to the commission by Governor Youngdahl after the death of Commissioner Ray P. Chase. Chase died 10 days after being renominated at the September primary.

Two present associate supreme court justices, Thomas Gallagher and Oscar Knutson, were re-elected.

Two of four proposed constitutional amendments won favorable votes. One proposing a larger share of the state gasoline tax for the counties gained favor after losing in early returns. Also given a majority of "yes" votes was the amendment authorizing a state bonus for World War II veterans. To pass they need a majority of all the votes cast, so the final results will be determined by the state canvassing board.

Two amendments planned to simplify amending and revising the constitution were defeated.

Halloween Party Enjoyed at Peter Breznay Home

The Juvenile division of the Women's Catholic Order of Foresters was entertained at a delightful and hilarious Hallowe'en party at the home of their director, Mrs. Pete Breznay, on Friday evening. The evening was spent in traditional Halloween fashion. Gruesome, spine-tingling stunts, games, gay fortunes, and roasting marshmellows over a bonfire proved much fun for the girls.

All the guests were in costume, some of the most colorful being Gloria Brunelle as a prince and Gloria Cloutier as "his" princess; Janice Hanson as a railway brakeman; Marilyn Shumway and Margaret Haider as Harlem gals and Norma and Barbara Belland as their Negro boyfriends. Other characterizations were jolly gypsies and glamorous, "be-jeweled" ladies. Mrs. Anthony Kozojed assisted Mrs. Breznay with the Hallowe'en stunts.

Of the twenty-six girls in attendance, five were new members of the Juvenile Foresters, including Arlene Cota, Janice Rosette, Mildred Corriveau, Gloria Brunelle, and Rozanne Hesse.

One thing we can all feel good about is the fact that Tuesday's election was decisively in favor of one party, and gives to that party a good working majority. That means we will have a government that has the power to make decisions and the authority to adopt and maintain policies. It means the end of divided responsibility. It should mean greater harmony at home and greater respect for our government abroad. Our people have spoken clearly and in a manner that should be understood by all. That, we believe, is very fortunate.

The fellows who conduct polls of public opinions and tell us exactly how we think on every conceivable subject, should conduct one more poll. They should get out into the field at once and tell us just what we think about public opinion polls. Of course it would be the last one—but there must be other ways of making a living.

Biggest election upset in our book was Odin Hanson's election as county commissioner in the first district. After being eliminated in the primary in a three-cornered race he reentered the contest as a sticker candidate and we wrote him off as a sure loser. The result confirms our suspicion that in the field of political forecasting we are not too bright.

A week from today is the anniversary of a storm that most of us can still remember—as one we would not like to see repeated. Only reason for mentioning it now is to suggest that at this time of the year, regardless of how balmy the weather may be, we should be prepared for a rough time. Some heavy clothes in the back end of the car might prove to be useful. We have been told too that a few containers of canned heat are god things to have in reserve.

Surface Drain YOUR FIELDS Quickly at Low Cost with an

EVERSMAN AUTOMATIC
LAND LEVELER and DIRT MOVER

The EVERSMAN is a 3 purpose machine. It moves dirt, it planes and levels the surface, it pulverizes and packs the soil, forming a fine seed bed. Moves fast using your own tractor.

Now easy to drain comparatively flat fields where low areas gather water. This fall, when your fields are dry, simply determine fall of land. Using the Eversman as a dirt mover go out to a point about on a grade with area where water stands. Move dirt back into low place to fill. Long blade mounted on exclusive Eversman crank axle makes possible wide, shallow, perfectly controlled cuts and smoothly leveled, well packed fills so that field surfaces drain readily. Water spreads out evenly over the surface of the land. No ditches to hinder farming or to start erosion.

Send today for free booklet showing many more uses for the EVERSMAN AUTOMATIC LAND LEVELER and DIRT MOVER on your farm.

Stitch in Time

Skirts are getting longer, girls, so why not let your hems down? In doing this you may find that there is not enough material left to give the desired width. Two or three rows of seam tape can be sewed together and used to make the hem wider.

ONCE IS ENOUGH!

Yes, one application of Dr. Salsbury's Vapo-Roost is enough to get rid of all the lice and feather mites in your laying house. Just spread a thin line of Vapo-Roost on roost poles. Fumes do the rest. Treatment remains effective for days — long enough to kill young lice which hatch later.

Results of the week's games:
E. Grand Forks, 6, at T. R. Falls, 7
Devils Lake, 0, at Grand Forks, 46

Coach Ed Bohnoff's high-scoring Grand Forks Central team won the North Valley conference football championship by marking up a record of five wins and no losses. The Maroons ended their conference schedule on Friday night by romping over the Devils Lake Satans, 46 to 0, in a game played at Grand Forks. That 46-point total boosted the Grand Forks scoring total to 187 points for the five conference games and broke the record established by Grand Forks in 1946.

This season's championship marks the second time in the three years that the North Valley conference has been in operation that Grand Forks has won the title. Last year the local Prowlers were the league champions.

The Prowlers moved into a second place tie in the conference standings by squeezing past the East Grand Forks eleven, 7 to 6, in a rugged game played here last Wednesday night. The one-point win gave the Prowlers a conference record of three wins and two losses, to tie the East Grand Forks team.

The individual scoring race proved to be "walk-away" for Grand Forks' speedy right halfback Ronnie Thompson. Thompson, against Devils Lake, raced for three touchdowns to increase his conference scoring total to 78 points. Thompson's 78 points surpassed the conference record set by Grand Forks' Lloyd "Boom" Hallada last year when the husky Central fullback scored eight touchdowns and eight conversion points for a 56-point total.

Runner-up to Thompson in the scoring column was teammate Bailey McCracken, the Maroon's fullback, who was credited with 49 points on eight touchdowns and a conversion point.

The conference scorers:

Airplane Spraying

Airplane spraying requires only 1¼ to 2 gallons of spray solution, in oil or water, per acre. Flying from 4 to 12 feet above ground, a pilot can cover a swath equal to the width of the wing tips, and up to 200 acres per hour. The equipment is such that the pilot can operate it himself.

The Windup

This evening, at 7:30 p. m., the Prowlers will trot out on the B. S. T. C. field at Bemidji for the opening kickoff in their windup game of the season, meeting the Central Ten champions and one of the state's "Top Five" teams, the Bemidji Lumberjacks.

The game was originally scheduled for Friday night, Nov. 5th, but to avoid a conflict with the Bemidji Teachers College schedule, the Prowlers vs. Lumberjacks game was advanced to tonight.

The locals completed their North Valley schedule and district competition last Wednesday night when they defeated a stubborn East Grand Forks eleven, 7 to 6, and with that victory the Prowlers gained second place in the conference standings and a claim on the district title. Tonights game will, in a sense, determine the eighth regional championship.

The Bemidji Lumberjacks, having clinched the Central Ten title by a 27 to 19 win over St. Cloud Tech last week, will be heavily favored to rack up a three-touchdown triumph over the Prowlers. In Chuck Aakhus and Tipper Hirt, the Jacks have a pair of backfield stars that have caught the attention of University of Minnesota enthusiasts, and the two boys will perhaps be anxious to add to their prestige by turning in a bang-up performance against the locals.

May Produce an Upset

The Prowlers are in a fine position to produce an upset, being physically relaxed and with a proper mental attitude. Jack Winter and Harry Simons, halfback and tackle, respectively, who have been out of action for more than a month due to leg injuries, have been in uniform the past week and the two boys will "suit up" for the game tonight. But while the Prowlers gained a pair of players this week, they also suffered a loss when, on Tuesday afternoon, Jerry Furuseth, a reserve back, fractured his left ankle.

Regardless of the outcome of tonight's traditional game with Bemidji, the Prowlers are to be congratulated on a successful season. Graduation took the chief threats from the backfield that brought the Prowlers a conference title last year, and several sturdy linemen left by the squad through graduation, too. But in spite of these losses, the Prowlers were able to edge into second place in the conference rating, and they remained undefeated in 31st district play. The boys can look back on this season with considerable satisfaction.

They Missed Herb

The North Dakota A. C. surprised the North Dakota U on Saturday when they registered a 19 to 7 win, but it's doubtful if the Bison would have had that game in their win column if the Sioux could have had Herb Claffy ready and able to play. Herb, a former Prowler captain, and a sophomore at North Dakota, played first-rate football for the Sioux at left halfback until he was injured in the game against South Dakota.

Herb, although barely over the 150-pound mark, possesses terrific drive, and he runs with a remarkably long stride and he has the ability to utilize his speed to the best effect. Claffy was a district and regional winner in the hurdles in his high school days, and he still has that breakaway speed. North Dakota U fans are emphatic in stating that if Herb had played in Saturday's game, the result would have been different, and they are probably right.

Geese

The duck hunting season had just been re-opened on Monday forenoon when Dr. Ed Bratrud and Ken Olson hurriedly gathered their gear, decoys, etc., and headed for Thief lake. And they reported a fine trip for they came back with three geese. Doc Ed has been specializing on geese the past few years and it isn't an accident when he adds a goose to his game bag. Monday's geese, though, were splendid specimens and he and Ken have a right to be proud of them.

Incidentally, it is probable that the duck hunting season, which was curtailed for a couple of days, will be extended to November 10th. And if that happens, and it has been recommended to the U. S. Wildlife Service, the local hunters will perhaps get a chance at the northern flight.

No Rest

The Prowler football players will put away their uniforms on Friday, but on Monday coach Bob Nick will issue a call to the candidates for the Prowler varsity basketball squad to report for preliminary practice. The boys participating in football and basketball don't get much rest these days.

LINCOLN JUNIORS PREPARE FOR PLAY

To Offer "Little Women" Two Nights, Nov. 22-23

For their class play the juniors of Lincoln high school have chosen "Little Women," a dramatization of Louisa Alcott's famous novel, by Arthur Jearue. The play will be presented two nights, November 22 and 23, at 8 p. m. in the high school auditorium.

Among the large cast of 19 members, the audience can easily recognize the beloved characters as well known as friends and neighbors today. The tall, impetuous Jo, the sisterly Meg, spoiled but lovable Amy and shy sweet Beth all live again on the stage as they circle around warm hearted Marmee and the kind, understanding father.

Hannah, the housekeeper, irascible Aunt March, gentle Aunt Carrol, the generous neighbor, Mr. Lawrence with his gay and gallant grandson, Laurie, John Brook and Professor Baer each contribute to a dramatic production which offers an evening of entertainment not soon forgotten.

AGENTS FOR BLUE SHIELD PLAN WILL BE HERE NOV. 8-12

To Explain Details of Prepaid Medical Plan Sponsored by Doctors

Thief River citizens will have an opportunity next week to get first hand information about the Blue Shield medical plan they're hearing so much about lately.

Robert Hagle and James Flavin, representatives of the Minnesota Blue Cross and Blue Shield Plans, will be in Thief River November 8 to 12 so that the people here can find out all the details regarding Blue Shield benefits.

Messrs. Heagle and Flavin will be here as part of the Blue Shield educational campaign which is now being conducted by the Red River Valley Medical Society in conjunction with the Minnesota Blue Shield Plan.

Since Blue Shield is quite new in this state, and new particularly to the people in the Red River Valley area, the doctors in Clearwater, Kittson, Lake of the Woods, Mahnomen, Norman, Penington, Polk, Marshall, Roseau and Red Lake counties are putting this program on now so that citizens in these counties will have an opportunity to learn about Blue Shield and to enroll in it for coverages of their doctor bills.

Complete information on Blue Shield plan benefits and costs can be obtained from Messrs. Heagle and Flavin next week, who will be available for appointments and can be contacted through Mercy Hospital here.

HUNTING MISHAPS ON THE INCREASE

Pheasant and Duck Hunters Lose Lives

The Minnesota department of conservation says Minnesota deer hunters should be forewarned that hunting accidents this fall seem to be on the increase. Incomplete records of the duck and pheasant hunting accidents indicate an increase for 1948 over previous years.

Three duck hunters were drowned and a dozen injured by careless gun handling. Three hunters were injured in almost identical accidents, getting into or out of the duck boat when loaded guns were discharged. Falls while carrying loaded guns, or accidental discharges have caused injuries from minor wounds to the loss of an eye and loss of the arm.

Three pheasant hunters were fatally shot, two apparently shot by the discharge when they stumbled and the third by a stray .22 bullet.

More than one-half of the accidents already reported involve young hunters from 16 to 19 years of age.

Thirty-two accidents were reported during the 1947 deer hunting season, eight of which were fatalities. If the record this year is to be reduced, the hunters will have to remember to follow the easy safety rules which are: always treat a gun as though it were loaded; be sure of the target; wear red clothing.

Minnesota may never fully return to its former dependence upon butter as an outlet for its dairy products. The state is now better equipped to handle other products however.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

"Husbands, Wives, and Marriage"

Maybe you read that survey published recently in a national magazine, entitled "Husbands, Wives, and Marriage."

It showed that among happily married couples, those who criticized themselves outnumbered those who criticized the other person. Among unhappily married couples, it was just the opposite—each one tended to criticize the other.

That's the way it is in our town, as I guess it is in yours. Criticism, whether it's of a wife's taste for hats, or a husband's taste for pipe tobacco and an evening glass of beer or ale, is a sure start towards unhappiness.

As for what made happy marriages, companionship within the home was listed most important of all. And from where I sit, a husband and wife who can spend an evening by the fire—with nothing more exciting than a mellow glass of beer, and a friendly conversation—are a truly well-matched couple!

GUIDE BOOK DATA NEEDED AT ONCE FROM INDUSTRIES

State Department of Business Research Is Collecting Information

The state department of business research and development is now completing one of its major projects, the publication of its Guide Book to Minnesota Industry. This handsomely designed book will present a classified directory of manufacturers of the state arranged according to both product and geographical location. In addition, each community with a population in excess of 500 will be afforded a short narrative description of its industrial aspects.

The Guide Book to Minnesota Industry will be based upon information received on return post cards recently mailed from the state capitol offices of the department. These cards have been mailed to all known manufacturing enterprises in the state other than those in the Twin Cities, where the local chambers of commerce are assuming the responsibility of acquiring the necessary data.

Commissioner James W. Clark emphasizes the fact that, although the records of the department are believed to be complete, it is possible that some few firms may be overlooked. Manufacturers, no matter what size or what type of product, who have not received this card are asked to notify the Department of Business Research and Development 201 State Capitol, St. Paul, 1, Minnesota. Cards will be mailed to them for completion and return. Mr. Clark requests those who have not yet returned their cards to do so immediately.

This Guide Book to Minnesota Industry represents the only complete listing of Minnesota manufacturers and products in existence. Previous issues have circulated both nationally and internationally and have been of material benefit to producers throughout the state. They have advertised our cities and our products. There is no charge for the listing. Manufacturers are urged to take advantage of this opportunity for free publicity for their products.

Cars Must Show Both Front and Rear Licenses

The highway patrol division of the state highway department this week issued a timely warning that purchasers of new 1949 motor vehicle license plates must have both front and rear plates properly attached to their cars.

A considerable number of violations of this regulation were found during the current year, but motorists in some cases were treated leniently both by traffic officers and the courts because of the earlier war-time waiver underwhich only one plate was required to be displayed. The law now requires that both plates be displayed and front bumper brackets which for a time were in short supply are now readily obtainable, warning stated.

OCTOBER STILL HAS SPRINGLIKE TOUCH

Late in October wild strawberries were picked near Two Harbors. An apple tree in the W. B. Gislason yard at Minnesota was in bloom October 11. From all over the state come reports of fruits and flowers in unseasonable profusion.

POLITICAL ROUNDUP

By Arthur Naftalin

The general election is over, but political excitement in Minnesota is not likely to take a very long vacation. Voters' interest will now shift to the legislative front, and present indications are that the 1949 session is likely to be one of the liveliest in recent years.

It does not require a very profound knowledge of government or economics for one to observe that our state government faces an array of the most difficult problems. If the legislators are to emerge from the forthcoming session with anything resembling a satisfactory answer for the many pressing needs, they are going to have to demonstrate some unusual ingenuity.

On the one hand there are unprecedented demands for new and expanded services. Education, highways, public institutions, old age assistance, conservation—and a host of other functions—are in need of vastly increased sums in order to maintain present standards, which in some cases, notably the schools and public institutions, are none too high.

On the other hand there is a strong resistance to increasing taxes. In the campaign just completed, the Republicans—on a national level—urged reduction of federal expenditures, and they are not likely to be favorably disposed towards increasing state expenditures and taxes.

But the need is so apparent for additional appropriations for basic services, it is doubtful whether the '49 legislature will be able to escape some substantial increase in both expenditures and existing taxes.

Even if no soldiers' bonus is adopted—which would require at a minimum $100,000,000—just the normal increase in appropriations to meet rising costs for employes' salaries, for building materials, and for regular supplies is estimated to run as high as $25,000,000 for each year of the biennium.

In this situation, it is a certainty that adoption of a sales tax will be one of the main controversies of the session. The sales tax appears at present to have few friends. During the campaign no one appeared to be speaking in support of it. The Democratic-Farmer-Labor Party openly campaigned against it, and an anti-sales tax organization was formed for the express purpose of fighting it.

But, as the financial plight of the legislature deepens, advocates of a sales tax are certain to come forth. The case that will go before the people of Minnesota will be presented in terms of a choice between maintaining essential services and adopting the sales tax in some form or other or drastic curtailment of many major activities.

Opponents of the sales tax argue that the state legislature has failed to tax fully the mining of Minnesota iron ore. They insist that this source is capable of yielding additional millions of dollars in annual tax revenue.

Consequently, the entire tax structure will come in for some wide-spread and thorough analysis. The income tax, alcoholic beverages taxes, the property tax—and such new possibilities as a state admissions tax on entertainments—will all get an airing.

But there will be powerful groups opposing any particular tax increase. Meanwhile, the insistent demands for increased appropriations will grow in volume. The legislator's lot will not be a happy one as he listens to the persistent refrain of money, money, money.

This problem of finances is likely to project two governmental leaders to the forefront. Governor Luther Youngdahl has clearly stated his support of measures that will improve public institutions, health facilities, conservation and other services, and Roy E. Dunn, the majority leader in the house of representatives, has said that he supports the Governor's program.

But beneath this surface harmony there is reported to be a cleavage of views. This is supposedly involved in a contest for leadership within the Republican Party, but deeper than this are the two conflicting views that beset every party, expanded governmental service vs. economy.

Politicos will be watching with interest how Governor Youngdahl handles this problem in his messages to the legislature.

Among the most anxious groups seeking aid from the legislature will be representatives of the cities of the state. Limited to the exclusive use of the property tax, cities are groaning under an ever-mounting load of municipal debt. They want desperately to share with the state some old or new tax. To this the legislature has so far shown not great sympathy, but the demand is certain to be made again.

After washing your chenille bedspreads hang them on the line double and inside out. The tufts, by rubbing against each other, will dry fluffy.

One look!... One ride!... You'll know it's...
the modern design for '49
new Hudson

Come in, see the car that's years ahead—drive the New Hudson—experience the amazing roadability, comfort and safety of the only car you step down-into!

Here's your chance to get the thrill of a real discovery—to see and feel what one of the great advances in motor-car history offers you.

You'll see a Hudson of distinguished, streamlined beauty and low-built silhouette that is instantly recognizable because it is the natural result of a basically new design principle—a principle that puts this car so far ahead it is a protected investment in motor-car value!

The key to this new design principle is a recessed floor. The New Hudson is the only car you step down into!

By using a "step-down" zone in an exclusive, all-steel Monobilt Body-and-frame*, Hudson achieves the lowest car on the highway—only five feet from ground to top—while maintaining more head room than in any mass-produced car built today!

But no amount of looking at this amazing car—beautiful as it is—can equal the thrill of a Hudson ride! And you are invited to enjoy that ride today!

Hudson has a smooth, hug-the-road way of going in cross winds and on every conceivable kind of highway. When you see the way it takes even the sharpest curves, you'll know once again that this car has "The modern design for '49"—and for years to come!

Hudson's remarkable ride is largely due to the fact that its "step-down" design provides the lowest center of gravity in any American stock car, yet road clearance is ample! It is a widely recognized fact that the lower to the ground a car can be built, the more stability it will have and the safer it will be.

You sense a delightful conformity to the road the minute you begin your ride, and this stability, plus the protection of riding encircled by a sturdy box-section steel frame, is a grand experience in serene, safe well-being.

This grand feeling is further heightened by the remarkable ease with which this car is controlled. You enjoy this generous roominess in complete relaxation as the New Hudson glides smoothly along.

We cordially invite you to see and drive the New Hudson, to thoroughly enjoy the ride that comes only with "The modern design for '49."

Duck Hunting Ban in State Ends; May Get Longer Open Season

The state executive council Monday suspended the ban on waterfowl hunting in the northern two-thirds of Minnesota. The action was taken in an emergency session.

The executive council, however voted to keep in force the prohibition on all upland game and upland wild animals, including trapping.

Action to open hunting of waterfowl in the Northern two-thirds of the state, which was closed by order of the executive council last Thursday, came on recommendation of Chester S. Wilson, state commissioner of conservation. Backing up Wilson's recommendations were A. E. Pimley, state forestry director and Clarence Prout, director of game and fish.

Gov. Youngdahl, who has been in constant touch with Wilson since the ban on hunting, called the extraordinary session after reports of good rains in the areas previously threatened by forest fires.

Wilson told the executive council that it is his conclusion that "it is saf to permit waterfowl hunting throughout the entire area" but it was too soon to lift the prohibition on upland game.

Commissioner Wilson renewed his request to the U. S. fish and wildlife service to extend the duck season from Nov. 6 to Nov. 14. This request has been denied, but Senator Edward J. Thye has interceded, and it was indicated the season might be extended thru Nov. 10.

Crookston Aggies Win from Morris Team 40-0

The "Aggie" football team of the Northwest School, Crookston, won the Agricultural School conference title in football by defeating the West Central Aggies from Morris on Saturday, Oct. 30 by a score of 40 to 0. The largest crowd of alumni and former students in years helped the Northwest School celebrate the Homecoming victory.

FARMERS ASKED TO GET SOIL SAMPLES

Soils Clinic to be Held in City in January, 1949

Farmers of Pennington county are asked to collect soil samples for the soils clinic to be held some time in January.

Frank A. Hobbs, county agent, stated that it is very important to select several samples from 5 or 6 inches or to the depth of the plowing on the entire field which might be a special problem to the farmer. It is also very important that the soil samples should be thoroughly dry at the time of testing in January.

Paul Burson, extension soil specialist from the University of Minnesota, will be present for the meeting in January to give recommendations on what fertilizer should be used and what cropping program should probably be followed on that particular field. Further announcement of the soils clinic will be given later.

AIRPORT NEWS

Every one at the airport extends congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Mostrom on their latest acquisition—twin boys!

Captain McCoy, AAF-CAP liaison officer from Fargo flew over last week with an AT6 to pick up Captain E. J. Barzen. The two returned to Fargo where they were joined by two other planes bearing CAP officers, all en route to a business session of the Civil Air Patrol. Captain McCoy brought Captain Barzen back to Thief River Falls on Monday.

Another practical use for airplanes was demonstrated on Sunday when Chris Kierk was asked to help in the search for some cattle which had strayed from a farm southwest of Thief River Falls. Chris and Hans climbed into the Aeronca and flew around a little, finally locating the six heifers with another herd near St. Hilaire.

Lloyd Bennes completed the first part of his flight training and soloed last week.

Two students were granted private pilot's licenses last week by Harold Chandler. They were John Macki from Alvarado, who took his flight test in an Aeronca, and Mrs. H. A. Baumann of Thief River Falls, who took her flight test in the Ercoupe.

John Halberg from Park River, North Dakota, was a recent business visitor at the airport. He was flying an Aeronca Chief.

John Lind, flying his Beechcraft Bonanza, left Thursday on his return trip to Santa Fe, New Mexico, to rejoin his family there.

Mac McCall from Wadena flew a Stinson to Thief River Falls Thursday bringing Mrs. Davies, wife of the editor of the Wadena paper, and the editor and his wife from Bertha, Minnesota, as passengers.

Sig Jensen of Stephen, Minnesota and LaMar Anderson from Hallock, flying a Cub, were airport visitors Friday.

The Stinson formerly owned by John Lind has changed owners and is now the property of Herb Jung. Herb likes to fly and will no doubt get a lot of enjoyment out of a plane of his own.

Harold Chandler flew the Cruiser on a chartered trip Sunday, taking John Howland of Grygla north of Red Lake to check on the fire situation there.

Chris Kierk and Hans Anton flew to Bemidji Sunday in the Aeronca.

Bob Goodrich from Warren was an out-of-town visitor at the airport on Sunday.

Trinity Brotherhood Hears of European Trip

Miss Lorayne Stedje of the Lincoln high school faculty was the speaker at last week's meeting of the Lutheran Brotherhood at Trinity church. The members heard an interesting travelogue covering a trip to Europe recently completed by the speaker. Final arrangements for the annual lutefisk supper on November 17th were also announced by the president, Glen Ahre. M. C. Gulbranson is the chairman in charge of the various committees thru whom the work conected with the affair will be completed.

VALLEY DAIRYMEN RECEIVE TRIBUTE

Men from This Locality Are Honored at Bemidji

Sixty-eight dairy farmers of northwestern Minnesota were honored at the 1948 convention of the Red River Valley Dairymen's association in Bemidji Saturday.

Included among the honor dairymen, who received gold medals and certificates of accomplishments, are Martin Abrahamsen of Gatzke, Albert Anderson of Greenbush, Merle Anderson of Oklee, Joe Boutain, Emil and Christine Christopherson, Henry Delorme, George Gagnon and Raymond Zutz all of Red Lake Falls.

Hilmer Finstad and C. H. Swanson of Thief River Falls, John Luoto and Martin Rantanen of Middle River, Kernel Paulson of Grygla, Emil Shern of Viking, Arthur Swan of Newfolden, E. L. Swanson of Goodridge, Ralph and Ada Torstenson of Trail.

An extra supply of protein concentrate should be given Minnesota dairy cows this winter to make up for the poorer roughage that many farmers are being forced to feed.

NFW SAVINGS BOND CAMPAIGN TO OPEN

American Legion Posts to Cooperate in Drive

Spearheaded by the American Legion as part of its program for making America stronger, a special promotion campaign for U. S. savings bonds will begin on Armistice Day across the nation.

Minnesota's goal by the year's end is to increase the number of regular bond buyer's on the payroll savings plan by 20,000, and the number of bank depositors on the Bond-a-Month plan by 3,000, as this state's pro rata share of the national goals of 1,250,000 additional payroll savers and 150,000 more Bond-a-Month buyers. This was announced today by Darrell Bandy, state director. There will be no dollar sales quotas.

Another phase of the campaign is to get farmers to build up their financial reserves by putting away more than 1948 crop money in savings bonds. In this, Mr. Bandy said, savings bonds committees in rural areas will have the aid of the National Retail Farm Equipment Association, whose 18,350 dealer members serve every farming community in the nation.

Dairymen Meeting at Bemidji Commend Oleo Fight Leaders

The Red River Valley Dairymen's association in convention at Bemidji Saturday commended Senators Joseph H. Ball and Edward J. Thye and five Minnesota congressman for their fight against repeal of the oleomargarine tax.

The five congressman are August H. Andresen, H. Carl Anderson, Harold C. Hagen, Harold Knutson and Joseph P. O'Hara.

The commendation came in the form of a resolution adopted which said their fight protected the dairy industry "from wholesale bootlegging of synthetic products" colored to imitate butter.

The association, meeting in annual convention, selected Crookston as next fall's meeting city. No date was set. Stuart McLeod, Thief River Falls, and G. H. Bakken of Hawley were reelected to the board of directors which will elect association officers within 10 days. McLeod is president.

Another resolution adopted "strongly urges the state department of agriculture, dairy and food to enforce to the letter the newly passed quality improvement last or milk and cream." The association also urged the U. S. department of agriculture to take action to stabilize the price of dairy products.

John Brandt, president of Land O'Lakes was the banquet speaker Saturday night.

Dodger Fan

One Brooklyn Dodger rooter feels so strongly about "Dem Bums" that he has suggested naming the several new trackless trolleys the city has on order after present and past players of the team.

TROUBLE IS HE'S INELIGIBLE . . . Any football coach might be excused for going dreamy-eyed over the idea of getting a tackle the size of this Kodiak bear, which is what these members of Brown university's gridiron staff are doing. This nine foot four inch stuffed specimen was presented to Brown by the school's Midwest alumni. Coach Rip Engle (second from left) probably is thinking that the bear would be a bear at backing up the line.

ACCIDENTS CAUSE 1,396 DEATHS IN STATE TO SEPT. 30

Total Fatalities for Nine Months Are Nearly 100 Below 1947 Figure

A saving of 97 lives in the first nine months this year has resulted from the state safety campaign, which has as its slogan, "Save 400 Lives in 1948, 399 and Your."

Although it appears that the campaign will fall short of its goal of 400 lives saved, figures just released by the division of vital statistics, state department of health, show that 1,396 fatal accidents occurred in the first nine months this year compared with 1,493 in the comparable period last year.

In only two categories has there been an increase over last year. The nine-months totals reveal that there were 34 more home accident fatalities this year than last and two more deaths on farms, which occurred as occupational accidents.

"It must be remembered," Dr. A. J. Chesley, secretary and executive officer, state department of health, said, "that the accident rate has been reduced even more than the statistics indicate. Actually if we had the same number of accidental deaths this year, there would be a saving of lives because of such factors as increased population." For example, in the first six months of 1948 the rate of gasoline consumption in the State increased slightly more than 10% over the same period last year, and yet there was a reduction in motor vehicle fatalities."

The greatest reduction in accidental deaths for the first three quarters of 1948 occurred in farm homes with 46 fewer fatalities. There were 43 fewer public accident deaths other than motor vehicle fatalities, 25 fewer motor vehicle deaths, and 18 fewer non-farm occupational deaths. In April, May, and July this year, there were more accident aftalities than in the same months last year, but in the other six months there was an improvement over the 1947 record.

UNIVERSITY LISTS INCOME, EXPENSES FOR YEAR 1947-48

Institution Reports Total Expenses for Year of $43,673,000

University of Minnesota expenditures for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1948, totaled $43,673,879.62, while the institution's income for the year amounted to $43,676,232.50, of which $11,138,720.16 or approximately one-fourth was derived from the state of Minnesota, according to a summary of the university's financial operations issued this week by W. T. Middlebrook, business vice president.

Other sources of university income were reported by Middlebrook as follows: fees and receipts, $9,087,773.59 including $5,515,653.06 in student tuition fees; service enterprises and revolving funds, $17,490,433.446 the permanent University fund ($21,776,641.14 on June 30, 1948), $515,616.42; trust funds, $3,670,502.40; intercollegiate athletics, $725,746.83; and the federal government, $1,038,796.21. An additional $8,643.45 represented the free unencumbered balance remaining from the previous year's operations.

University income from the state of Minnesota, aggregating $1,138,720.16, consisted of: legislative maintenance appropriations of $8,087,248 for the general support and maintenance of the university and of $266,169 for the operation of the Duluth branch; a legislative appropriation of $728,000 for special projects administered and carried on by the university for the general benefit of the people of the state.

Heaviest outlay by the University during the period of the report was $16,138,622.06 for operating and capital expenditures for the self-supporting service enterprises and revolving funds which produced an income of $17,490,433.44. Among these service enterprises are dormitories, dining halls, cafeterias and the University printing department.

Second largest expenditure was the sum paid out for instruction and research, $14,874,223.21. This includes the expenses of college instruction and research, the Duluth Branch, the agricultural schools and experiment stations, University Hospitals, summer session and agricultural and general extension.

Trust fund expenditures for teaching and research, care of the sick, scholarships, fellowships, prizes and other trust purposes drained $3,629,887.02 from the University's available funds, while the expenses of maintaining and operating the buildings and effecting improvements on the St. Paul and Minneapolis campuses cost $2,262,446.48.

Put Children to Bed

Children never admit they are tired as long as there is some exciting activity going on, so it is necessary for adults to watch for the first signs of fatigue and quietly and calmly insist on bedtime for the youngsters. Parents who are concerned with the welfare of their children know that sufficient hours of sleep on level, firm sleeping equipment are of vital importance to normal growth and development.

Illiteracy in Pennsylvania has shifted from the country to the city, Pennsylvania State college found in a detailed population study. On the basis on census data, 4.3 per cent of the urban population is classified as illiterate, compared to 3.5 per cent for the rural. AUTUMN TRAFFIC DEATHS DOWN 37

54 Killed in First 28 Days of October

With one final October weekend still to go at the time the standings were mailed out by the highway department's office in St. Paul, Minnesota's traffic safety drive has showed marked headway during September and October months of the fall driving season.

As of Friday morning, October 29, the month's traffic fatalities stood at 54 as compared to 74 deaths for the full month of October a year ago. September fatalities totalled 57 this year as compared with 74 a year ago. Thus the state's tentative traffic death score, with two days of October to be reported, stood at 111 deaths for September and October as compared with 148 for the same two months of 1947.

This decrease was regarded as encouraging by safety officials of the highway department and the Minnesota Safety Council, particularly in view of October's bad start with 17 deaths in the first our days of the month, including the multiple death crash near Gilbert which claimed six youthful lives. Minnesota's 1948 fatality record up to October 29 was 455 deaths as compared to 497 during the first ten months of 1947—but with one heavy-traffic week-end still to go.

Whooping Cough

Whooping cough is found throughout the world. It is more common among the female sex, and its pattern of occurrence is much like that of summer diarrheal diseases. Highest death rate now occurs in rural rather than urban populations. It takes its heaviest toll during the first seven months of life.

SALES CLINIC AT CROOKSTON NOV. 9

Twin City Businessmen Will Give Information

Twin Cities businessmen representing nearly every division of retail sales will attend the retail sales conference in Crookston November 9, according to A. E. Ness, Crookston, co-chairman of the meeting.

The Crookston Chamber of Commerce, with Secretary Deane Wiley in charge, is sponsoring the conference to which retailers from throughout the northwestern part of the state are invited.

Matters of retailing from employment problems to what may be expected next year will be discussed at a series of lectures and panel discussion, Wiley said.

Listing the subjects which will be discussed, Wiley included the following: employee hiring and training; compensating employees; credits and credit control; advertising; store arrangement and lighting; inventory and service departments.

Opportunities for questioning those conducting the discussions will be offered at at each lecture, Ness explaind. He said the conference will be keyed around the theme of how retailers can increase their sales next year.

The conference will open at 1:00 p. m. at the Armory in Crookston, and will last all day, with a break for a social hour and banquet at 5:00 p. m.

MRS. HUGH BEST IS KILLED FRIDAY IN IOWA AUTO CRASH

Accident Victim Had Been Resident of This Community Since 1915

Mrs. Hugh Best, 72, resident of this community since 1915, was killed last Friday evening in an automobile collision at a highway intersection eight miles east of Grinnell, Iowa.

Her husband, driver of the car, suffered a fractured kneecap and lacerations, and was hospitalized at Grinnell. He is expected to be able to return to his home here within a week.

At the time of the accident they were on their way to Grundy Center from Albia, Iowa, where they had attended funeral services for Mr. Best's sister.

Funeral rites for Mrs. Best were held Tuesday afternoon from the Community Methodist church, Rev. D. T. Beadle officiating, and interment was in Greenwood cemetery.

Born in Monroe county, Iowa, January 13, 1876, Mrs. Best was married in 1906 to Hugh Best at Moravia, Iowa. They farmed in Iowa and Wyoming until 1915 when they settled on a farm in Excel township north of Thief River Falls. In 1946 they disposed of their farm, and since that time had lived with their son Lawrence Best in this city.

In addition to her husband and son Lawrence, Mrs. Best is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Henry Ortloff of this community and Mrs. William Hahner, of Portland, Oregon. Also surviving are three sisters: Mrs. Ben Puffer, Hitchcock, S. D., and Mrs. Carrie Tissue and Mrs. Laura Hoffman, Moravia, Iowa.

N. W. Bell Telephone Company and Union Reach New Wage Agreement

An agreement to increase wages of Northwestern Bell Telephone employees represented by the union has been reached between the union board and the company, according to an announcement by J. H. Kremers, chairman of the phone firm's bargaining committee.

"The new contract, which must be approved by the National board of the Communications Workers of America and ratified by the membership of Northwestern division 45, provides for increases ranging up to 15 cents an hour for skilled plant craftsmen in the larger cities, and up to 10 cents an hour for traffic operators," Kremers said: "The Company's payroll and related costs resulting from this contract, together with other wage increases to personnel not covered by contract, will total more than $1,000,000 annually. If approved and ratified by the Union by November 10, the contract will become effective October 31, 1948, and remain in effect for two years, with the privilege of reopening wages once."

Commenting on the agreement just reached after more than six months of intermittent bargaining, Kremers said:

"In the long run the telephone customer pays the wage bill. Our three post war general wage increases have totalled about $13,500,000 and our payroll now amounts to about two-thirds of our operating expenses. The increase in wages plus the continued rise in price of materials and supplies points to but one conclusion; some telephone prices will have to be adjusted.

"In order to provide good telephone service we need millions of dollars of investors' money. To attract this money, our earnings must be satisfactory to those who are willing to put their savings into the business. If earnings are too low, the end result would be deterioration of a vital service on which so many depend."

GROWING WITH YOUR CHILD

Institute of Child Welfare,
University of Minnesota

"Wash Day" Blues

"How can I ever teach Billy to wash himself?" asks a puzzled mother. "The bowl's too high, he spills all over the floor, he seemingly takes forever and then isn't clean."

Here in one sentence appear three of the trying situations which mother meets them largely determines how soon they will be overcome.

The problem of adult size equipment can be lessened to some extent by providing a box, stool, or steps for the child to climb on so he can reach the wash bowl and faucets. Installing a low towel rod is a simple matter, and makes it possible for the child to reach and hang up his own towel and washcloth without assistance.

Soap and water are fascinating to the young child, so in the beginning he should have some opportunity to splash and experiment without too much concern over spilling. As these exploratory movements become better coordinated and as he becomes familiar with the procedure he is to follow, there will be less spilling. The mother's understanding manner during this exploratory period will be rewarded by the child's developing and ability in the process.

Slowness and lack of efficiency on the child's part are trying to the mother and she is tempted to step in and do the job herself. It is difficult for the adult to put more importance on the child's attitude and willingness to help himself than on his actual cleanness. Promotion of self-help can begin with the very young child. He is interested in the activity and will enjoy helping in the simplest ways; putting in the stopper, turning on the water shutting it off, rubbing on and rinsing off soap, rinsing the bowl. Given sufficient time and approval for the help he is able to give, the child will develop skill and efficiency and will find increasing satisfaction in his ability to help himself.

Modern shop equipment means high availability for service of Great Northern's diesel locomotives. A drop table makes possible the replacement of locomotive trucks in about one-fifth the time it formerly required for this operation.

DIESELS EASY ON OIL SUPPLY

Farmers and ranchers have learned that while a medium-size tractor costs more than a team of horses, it has far greater work capacity, and in the long pull is more economical than Old Dobbin.

What the tractor is to the man on the land, the diesel locomotive has become to the railway industry. Diesel freight, passenger and switching locomotives are going to work for the nation's railways in increasing numbers. Great Northern now has in service 156 diesels, or 276 separate units of this power. Although more are on order, the diesel is not expected to completely replace the steam locomotive for a long time—if ever.

A diesel locomotive costs more than a steam engine of comparable power rating; but, from there on the difference markedly favors the diesel. Expanded use of diesel power is keeping down operating costs—an extremely vital factor these days when wage, material and supply costs are far out of proportion to charges the railways are told they can make for their services.

The diesel locomotive is superior to its steam-driven cousin in many other respects. It is able to haul freight trains on more reliable schedules. It provides a faster, more comfortable, cleaner ride for passengers. It is a swift, efficient power plant in switching service.

And, outstanding among the virtues of the diesel locomotive is its economical consumption of fuel oil.

The war made Americans oil-conscious, and the postwar shortages of petroleum products—especially liquid fuel for home heating—created wide speculation to the effect that diesel locomotives are excessively rough on the nation's oil supply.

General Motors Corporation has made an exhaustive study of petroleum consumption by this country's principal users. The study developed these facts:

- The approximately 5,000 diesel locomotives in railway service today burn only 1 per cent of the total petroleum products consumed in this country.
- If diesel locomotives had performed all work on the railways in 1947, the quantity of diesel fuel burned would have been less than 5 per cent of the total consumption of petroleum products in all fields last year.

The expanding use of diesel power by Great Northern is of two-fold consequence: better railway service and real conservation of America's oil resources.

FUEL OIL REPORT FREE. The complete report on the study of fuel oil consumption in the U. S. is available without charge. Write to C. W. Moore, Executive Assistant, Great Northern Railway, St. Paul 1, Minn.

VOTE REQUEST FOR SURVEY OF DRAINAGE AREA

Action Taken Thursday at Meeting Attended by Men from Five Counties

Definite action was taken last Thursday afternoon at a meeting of men from five Northwestern Minnesota counties concerned with the drainage problem in the area to petition the board of the Red Lake Clearwater river drainage and conservancy district to undertake a survey of the present ditch system in the area with a view to ascertaining what changes should be made to better serve this territory.

E. H. Pomerenke, chairman of the committe appointed to circulate the petitions, presided at the meeting, assisted by W. E. Dahlquist. The petitions were to be presented to the district board without delay, Pomerenke indicated.

Assurances of cooperation in making the survey were given by the state department of conservation, represented at the meeting by E. V. Willard, deputy commissioner, who pointed out that while the task will not be an easy one, it must be undertaken.

Willard also suggested various sources of valuable information that are available, including county highway records and records in the offices of the clerk of court in the various counties.

Herbert A. Flueck of St. Paul, representing the soil conservation service, recommended bringing soil maps of the area up to date as a means of determining which lands are best suited for agriculture, and he offered the cooperation of his agency in connection with that portion of the project included in soil conservation districts.

A desire to cooperate also was expressed by Thomas Schrader of the U. S. fish and wild life survey, which has charge of the Mud Lake wild life preserve. He emphasized that his agency does not object to drainage where it is economically feasible.

Pert Farver, superintendent of the Red Lake Indian agency, said he was in sympathy with the proposed survey, since the agency is planning ditch improvements with a view to developing more of its land for agricultural purposes.

Represented at the meeting were Eastern Pennington and Marshall, Western Beltrami, Northern Clearwater and Northeastern Polk counties.

5685 Ballots Cast in County; Vote on Amendments Given

The Pennington county vote in the November 2 general election was examined by the county canvassing board last Thursday and no material errors were found in the figures as tabulated in the unofficial returns published in the Times last week, County Auditor A. M. Senstad announced this week. He added that a total of 5,865 ballots were cast.

The complete county vote on the constitutional amendments was as follows:

No. 1, gas tax division: Yes, 3,828; No. 1,362.

No. 2, method of voting on amendments to the constitution: Yes, 1,965; No. 2,477.

No. 3, calling a constitutional convention: Yes, 1,711; No. 2,601.

No. 4, authorizing a state bonus for World War II veterans: Yes, 3,548; No. 1,411.

The soldiers bonus amendment apparently has been approved by Minnesota voters by a safe margin, it was indicated Tuesday night.

Almost complete unofficial returns, coupled with a study of the total vote recorded in the secretary of state's office in 72 of the state's 87 counties, showed the amendment leading by about 30,090 votes.

A majority of the total vote is required for approval. Returns tabulated from 3,701 of the state's 3,738 precincts gave — Yes, 648,650; No, 416,224.

A check of the 72 counties which sent a duplicate of the official report to the secretary of state's office showed the total vote in these counties was 1,136,101. The total "yes" vote cast in these counties was 593,257.

This is approximately 30,000 more than the required count for approval.

SMALL PROFIT REPORTED FOR '48 COUNTY FAIR

3 Directors Reelected; Jim Parkins Named to Succeed Robert Lund

The financial report submitted by Secretary A. F. Berge at the annual meeting of the Pennington County Agricultural society last Thursday evening revealed that the 1948 county fair netted a small profit. Frank Hardisty, president, conducted the meeting.

In the election of directors, Stuart McLeod and Albert Koop were retained for three-year terms and Karl Gerstner for a one-year term, while Jim Parkins was elected for a three-year term to succeed Robert J. Lund, who stated he was not a candidate for reelection.

The secretary's report revealed that receipts during the fair this year included among the principal items, gate admissions $3,098.14; grandstand, $2,785.92; concessions, $2,799.05; parking, $483.50; and federal admissions taxes, $1,396.96; or a total of $10,771.72.

Other receipts during the year aggregated $2,652.25, including state and county aids of $1,938.25, and rentals of $700, making total income of $13,423.97.

Expenditures for the year amounted to $12,871.65, the major items including premiums, $1,634.65; entertainment features, $4,925; and federal admissions taxes, $1,396.96. The association ended its fiscal year with $9,717.04 in cash on hand, and with total assets including land and buildings of $30,417.

At the meeting a committee was authorized to proceed with plans for rebuilding the race track so that horse races and midget auto races can again be steged at the fair here.

Also discussed was the acute need for a new grandstand on the fair grounds. The cost of a steel structure with a seating capacity of 2,000 was estimated at in the vicinity of $25,000, and it was agreed that this outlay would be beyond the capacity of the fair association unless financial cooperation is secured from the city or some other sourse.

President Hardisty was authorized to appoint a committee of three members to confer with the city council and local board of education relative to the possibility of further developing the fair grounds as a recreation center.

He added that the rink at the Washington school will be prepared after the first snowfall.

FARMERS WILL SELECT THEIR AAA LEADERS

County Committeemen in Pennington Will Be Named in Next 2 Weeks

Community committeemen who will administer the national farm program in Pennington county for the next year will be elected at meetings throughout the county within the next two weeks, Patrick W. Culkins, chairman of the county Agricultural Conservation committee, said today.

"I urge every eligible farmer to vote in the election in his community," Mr. Culkins said.

"Through these elected committeemen, farmers have a direct channel to those who administer farm programs in the state and in the nation. It is up to Pennington county farmers to elect committeemen who understand local farm problems and who will best administer the farm programs," he said.

Vital decisions dealing with price support and soil and water conservation are ahead. That is why it is so important that the committeemen elected in the community and county elections be the choice of the majority of farmers in the locality, Mr. Culkins explained.

Eligible farmers, he said, are those who participated in the 1948 agricultural conservation program, those who are eligible for a commodity loan or other price support, or who have an insurance contract with the federal crop insurance program.

Three community committeemen and two alternates and a delegate to the county convention will be elected at the meetings. Only a few of the meetings have been scheduled to date. Those are as follows:

Black River and River Falls, Jackson Hall, St. Hilaire, 8:00 p. m. Nov. 15.

Deer Park and Hickory, Hanson School Dist. No. 67, 3:00 p. m. Nov. 16.

COUNCIL ASKED TO BUY TRACT ON EAST SIDE

Park Board Asks Action; Vorachek Denied Permit to Repair His Building

Appearing before the city council at a lengthy session Tuesday evening, Roy M. Barzen and Lawrence Bjorkman, members of the park board, recommended that the city purchase ten and one-half lots owned by Judge Paul A. Lundgren and adjoining Tindolph park on the south.

Mr. Barzen stated that the lots, which are located north of Taft st. between Crocker and Tindolph avs., are available until November 20 at a price of $2,000. He and Mr. Bjorkman also pointed out the extensive use to which the park is put in the summer months, and cited the need for additional parking facilities, which the purchase would provide.

The matter was referred for study to a committee including Aldermen Carl Gjernes, Tom Fuller and Ernest Hellquist.

After lengthy discussion, the council denied the application of C. W. Vorachek for a permit to expend an estimated $2,000 on improving his building at the corner of LaBree av. and First st. The property was recently in litigation after having been condemned as a fire hazard by the state fire marshal.

Mr. Vorachek, who was present at the session, expressed the opinion that his building was in no worse condition than some other local structures that have not been condemned.

Bill LaFave, member of the local recreation board, brought up the matter of supervision for the midget hockey teams during the winter months. He suggested the advisability of engaging the services of a full-time recreation director to supervise both winter and summer sports. The council authorized appointment of a committee to study the proposal.

Acting at the request of the council, Llum and Burdick, Grand Forks engineering firm, submitted a rough estimate indicating that the proposed new water treatment plant would cost in the neighborhood of $488,000 if constructed at the present time.

A bond issue of $250,000 to aid in financing the project was sold in 1945, and this sum is now on hand, being invested largely in government obligations. The council Tuesday briefly discussed plans to hold a special election in December to vote on a supplemental bond issue of the same amount, deferring definite action to an adjourned session next Wednesday evening, November 17.

The quarterly audit of the municipal liquor dispensary revealed that in the nine-months period from January 1 to September 30 the enterprise earned a net profit of approximately $73,000.

TURKEY CROP FAR BELOW 1947 TOTAL

Good Prices Are Assured on Thanksgiving Market

Local turkey marketing agencies reported this week that there is a firm market for Thanksgiving birds, young hens being quoted Monday at 65 cents per pound, and medium weight toms at 54, 55 cents.

However, with many growers discouraged by conditions a year ago there has been a sharp reduction in size of folks in the Thief River Falls area this year, variously estimated at from 40 per cent to as much as 65 per cent below the marketing in 1947.

Most of the birds are expected to be marketed in advance of Thanksgiving with a smaller percentage to be held for the Christmas season.

SCHOOL HOUSE IN DISTRICT 73 SOLD AT PRICE OF $1750

Thief River Falls Board of Education Accepts High Bid of Golf Club

The local board of education, at its November session Monday evening, accepted the bid of the Thief River Falls Golf club in the amount of $1,750 for the rural school house in former District 73, Rocksbury township. It was the higher of two bids received.

No bids were received on the school house in former District 165, which also has been added to the local district, and it was indicated that offers will be received on it. Both structures are to be removed from their present locations by the buyers.

Supt. W. G. Claffy informed the board that all Pennington county school buses had been inspected at a bus clinic held October 20, and that the Thief River Falls buses were found to be in excellent condition, needing only a few minor repairs.

Mr. Claffy also stated that the home economics courses in Lincoln high school had been brought under the federal Smith-Hughes act, thus increasing the amount of aids available.

Community Fund on Way to Goal; $4,654 to Date

Donations Designated for Red Cross Will Be Returned to Givers

With less than half of the teams of city solicitors reporting up to Wednesday, and with only a few scattered reports from the rural areas, total collections in the Community Fund campaign yesterday aggregated $4,654, or approximately one-half of the $9,000 goal.

Of the total, about ten per cent had been reported from the rural areas.

Vic Jung, chairman of the drive in Thief River Falls, today urged that all solicitors complete their rounds without delay and report by Saturday if possible.

Mr. Classe, attorney for the St. Louis office of the American Red Cross, came to this city last Friday to object to local solicitors accepting contributions for the Red Cross while canvassing for the Community Fund.

Classe stated that the Red Cross makes a practice of having no conection with any Community Fund campaign, and he demanded that contributions received locally for the Red Cross be returned to the donors. The local committee agreed to do this, and it was indicated that checks will be mailed out shortly.

The traditional wedding marches were played by Mrs. G. E. Ahre, and the groom's cousin, Mrs. Dale McLeod of Fargo, N. Dak., sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of white slipper satin, with marquisette drop-shoulder effect yoke, button back, long train, and long sleeves which came to a point at the wrist. A beaded coronet held its fingertip veil in place. She also wore the groom's gift, a string of pearls, and carried a white prayer book topped with a white purple lipped orchid and ribbon streamers.

The groom was attended by Ronald McLeod of Fargo as best man, and Dale McLeod and Thomas Cameron.

Mrs. Louze and Mrs. Cameron were dressed in royal blue with black accessories and gardenia corsages. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Louze wore a navy blue figured dress and a rose corsage.

Following the ceremony, 175 guests were entertaind at a reception in the church parlors. The bride is a graduate of Lincoln high school, class of 1945, and is employed at the Merchant's National bank in Fargo. The groom was graduated from Erie high school, class of 1943, and is an accountant at Smith, Inc., Fargo.

Kryl Orchestra Is Praised by Critic

By Mrs. H. F. Harrison

The Thief River Falls community was given a special musical treat on Monday afternoon and evening, when Bohumir Kryl and his 35-piece All-Girl Symphony Orchestra presented a program of very fine and inspiring music. Mr. Kryl gave his audience a variety of selections, lending enjoyment to both the average listener and the serious minded musician.

The program opened with the overture from the "Merry Wives of Windsor," always a favorite with the musical public. It was so well done by this group of artists, that it left the audience eagerly anticipating the following numbers.

The tenor soloist, Herbert Moulton, gave a fine interpretation of "The Dream" from Manon by Massenet. The fine quality of his voice and the ease with which he performed his numbers brought him much deserved applause.

The harp is an instrument that most people enjoy but hear too seldom. Miss Shirley Miller, harp soloist, performed very capably and with much feeling. Her versatility was particularly evident in her encore "Song of the Night" — very modernistic but so cleverly done that the listener found it delightful.

The orchestra, under its capable and inspired director, Bohumir Kryl, gave unusually fine performances of both "Andante Cantabile" from Symphony No. 5 by Tschaikowsky and "Fantasia on Gypsy Airs" by Sarasate. Miss Anne Greenway was the French horn soloist in the first number and left no doubt as to her ability. Miss Vlasta Sedlovska, a most convincing artist on the violin, gave a most outstanding performance. Her tone was beautiful and the difficulty of the number gave her a fine chance to display her technical and interpretive skill.

One of the most unusual numbers was "The Plow that Broke the Plains," by Virgil Thomson. It was in the form of six movements — "Prelude," "Pastorale," "Cattle," "Blues," "Drought," and "Devastation," and was of a very descriptive and moody type of music. Sharp dissonances were used frequently in this very modernistic composition with rhythmic melodies appearing often enough to give a lilting and pleasing effect. This number was in fine contrast to the previous part of the program. Mr. Kryl did an unusually fine job of bringing out the best in his group of artists in a number especially difficult to put across to an audience.

Miss Bette Zastrow, soprano soloist, gave an excellent performance of "One Fine Day" from "Madame Butterfly." The audience was very receptive to her warmth and clarity of tone plus a most charming personality, but because of the poor acoustics of the stage, one had the feeling that she was giving more than the audience received. Her second number, "My Hero" from the "Chocolate Soldier" was exceptionally delightful and the audience loved it.

The combined artistry of Miss Zastrow and Mr. Moulton in a group of duets was most enjoyable. They sang "Give Me Thy Hand, My Dearest" from "Don Giovanni" by Mozart and "Love As True As Ours" from "The Bartered Bride" by Smetana, followed by the "Sweetheart Song" from "Maytime."

As a most satisfying ending, Mr. Kryl directed the orchestra in "Emperor Waltzes" by Strauss and a pleasing rendition of the "Flight of the Bumble Bee" by Rimsky-Korsakov and "Pavanne" by Morton Gould.

The Civic and Commerce association is to be congratulated on bringing such a fine organization to our community. The audience was very enthusiastic and appreciative but was far too small. A program of this quality should have received the whole-hearted support of the community.

BUSINESS WOMEN HEAR MISS BEDDIE

Health and Safety Are Topics Tuesday Evening

The local Business and Professional Women's club gave its attention to the subject of health and safety at a dinner meeting Tuesday evening in the Terrace Room of the Rex Cafe.

Principal speaker was Miss Ruth Beddie, area director for the Girl Scouts of America. Miss Beddie emphasized particularly current activities in Minnesota that are promoting the public health. She pointed out that the safety program is continuous. She described the new Mayo Clinic to be erected on the campus of the University of Minnesota. Of real interest was the fact that Kittson County had subscribed 300 percent more than the amount asked as a contribution to the cancer fund to be used toward the building of a cancer clinic.

Another Minnesota activity, Miss Beddie said, is the dental health program for school children now being developed, and the continuous fight in controlling communicable diseases.

Club president, Joanne Wedul, presided at the dinner meeting. She named a committee of Christine Stevens, Mabel Christofferson, and Yvonne Rosen to plan the next meeting set for December 7th. Also discussed were plans for a rummage sale to be held the latter part of the month, and the club voted to give a generous contribution to the Thief River Falls Community Fund.

School Faculty Men Go to Meeting in Warren

HOME PROJECT IS PLANNED FOR YEAR

Furniture Refinishing, Upholstering Are Topics

Home extension leaders met last Thursday to plan a home project program for the coming year. Miss Evelyn Morrow, home demonstration supervisor from the University of Minnesota, was present to help with the planning.

The group chose refinishing furniture and upholstering as topics for their two meetings. Refinishing of furniture includes information on the removal of old finishes and the preparation of the surface for new finishes. Upholstering includes work on chairs and foot stools where webbing springs, padding, upholstery fabrics, and other coverings are handled.

The group of extension leaders represented almost every township in Pennington County and adopted the following resolution: "We, the home extension leaders of Pennington county, resolve that the county commissioners be requested to take action to employ a home demonstration agent for the furtherance of 4-H club work and home project work in Pennington county".

Pacific Grave for Heroic Cruiser

Because of radio-activity, one of the navy's proudest fighting ships, the Salt Lake City, our oldest heavy cruiser, was sent to the bottom of the Pacific ocean. She was hero of several of the principal engagements in the Pacific war and a survivor of the Bikini atomic bomb tests. Her crew claimed she was the first ship in Adm. William Halsey's "shoestring" raid of February 1, 1942, to open fire against Wotje Atoll in the Marshall islands. Although stationed only 400 yards from the central battleship, Arkansas, during the underwater bomb tests, she survived.

Luminescent Pigments

Although phosphorescent and fluorescent materials long have been recognized, it took the demands of World War II to demonstrate and develop their practical usefulness on a large scale. During the war, men had to be able to operate at night—to see such items as maps, instruments, dials, pontoon bridges, packages and equipment. Yet, what is equally important, they had to use light sources that were invisible to the enemy. Luminescent pigments, both phosphorescent and fluorescent, answered this vital need. Phosphorescent pigments were employed to some extent as paints. A considerably larger application was in the form of coatings for adhesive-backed marking tapes, which became standard equipment on all ships of 3,000 tons or over. They also found considerable use in bomb shelters and buildings.

Stop Many Household Pests In Nick of Time with DDT

Sprinkling 10 per cent DDT powder in places where it will be covered and out of sight is a good safe way of stopping many household insect pests before they get a start. This is a preventive defense. Both the housewife and the handy man who does repairs can very well keep a supply of DDT powder on hand to use whenever the chance arises, say entomologists of the U. S. department of agriculture. Typical examples of times and places for DDT dusting are:

In replacing linoleum for kitchen floors, dust lightly in cracks in the floor and an area six inches or more wide near the baseboard.

When carpets are up for cleaning, dust with DDT before relaying them.

If baseboards or quarter rounds are up or loose, use an insect powder gun to distribute DDT in crevices before replacing or renailing. Cracks likely to be hospitable to insects may be dusted before painting or repainting.

See that there is DDT under the shields and around pipes where plumbing goes through the floor or wall.

These suggestions are merely illustrative, the entomologists say. Used in this way, DDT is effective for a long time. Bedbug sprays have proved effective for at least a year in careful tests. Sheltered from sunlight, DDT is likely to last long. Covered and out of sight and touch, it is not a hazard to pets and children.

Cracks and crevices are favored homes and hiding places for invading insects—ants, roaches, clothes moths, carpet beetles, spiders, fleas, silverfish, bedbugs, and other pests. If there is DDT present when the insect arrives the chances are excellent that the pest will not live to multiply its kind. This kind of preventive defense costs little either in money or in time and effort.

At its worst the beetle is an important crop destroyer. The grub stage seriously injures the roots of [illegible], and the adult beetle feeds on many kinds of flowers, shrubs, and trees in home grounds, parks and pastures. Chemicals and the milky disease are used for control and protection.

Bacteria caused the milky disease which attacks and kills beetle grubs. Inside the bodies of diseased grubs, the bacteria form spores which live for a long time in the soil. Spores mixed with talc can be placed on the turf in recently established infestations. As an increasing number of grubs become infected and die, more spores are left to kill succeeding broods. This accounts for a decline in the beetles. Spore dust may be used at any season except when the soil is frozen.

Research by the bureau of entomology and plant quarantine showed how to manufacture spore dust. Standardized commercial dust supplies 200 million spores to a level teaspoonful. Spot-planted, this dust gives relatively good protection to turf after a few seasons. The dust does not directly affect adult beetles, but no adults emerge from diseased grubs.

How Hybrid Corn Is Produced

"Families" of corn seed were inbred for generations. Plants were made to fertilize themselves. This is comparatively simple with corn. Pollen from a plant is sprinkled on the tassels of the same plant. The plant is kept from mating with any other plant. After many generations of this inbreeding, two families of plants, entirely unrelated, are "mated" to each other. Pollen from plants of one family is sprinkled on the tassels of another. Results are startling. The new plants, called "true hybrids", produce far more corn on far fewer acres, and with less labor than ever has been possible before. Now a way has been found to do inbreeding successfully with an insect—the bee.

The defeated politician has the consolation that he doesn't have to keep his promises. (We know what you're going to say, so don't bother to say it.)—Imperial Magazine.

EDUCATION WEEK

"Education Week" is a once-a-year special invitation to examine our system of education with the view of making it better. In the spirit of the occasion we will be glad to revive a couple of old ideas by dropping them into the suggestion box for further consideration.

Our first plug goes for a reorganization of our secondary school system with greater emphasis on vocational education. The high school is the end of the education road for most of our young people and in high school they should be given greater opportunities to learn how to do useful things. Vocational training probably should be divorced from the academic school or at least given greater independence under the direction of leaders who would think more in terms of practical training and less of scholastic and cultural considerations.

Second plug is for more junior colleges, in the interests of broader opportunities for advanced education. Junior colleges should be encouraged in centers of population that are without college facilities. Such a decentralization of the pre-professional training courses would enable our advanced schools to concentrate in the field for which they are especially fitted and for which they are primarily responsible.

And, in the interests of a recruiting program for future teachers we would like to put in a word in favor of education as a means of earning a living. Education today is suffering from a lack of teachers and to some extent this lack of teachers is due to unfavorable publicity. Young America has been told again and again that there are no opportunities in education. Well let's not overlook the fact that recently it has attracted men like Harold Stassen and Ike Eisenhower, who no doubt had opportunities in other fields.

There are great opportunities in education, both in the fields of instruction and in administration, for young men and women who are ambitious and who are willing to work to advance themselves within their profession.

So much for this education week.

Community Fund officials set out to do a super-job of raising funds for charitable purposes this year. They had in mind one drive to raise the money that would be needed for all organizations, a thing much to be desired both from the standpoint of the solicitors and the solicited. And they were doing all right until the Red Cross threw a wrench in their nicely set up machinery. The Red Cross would not go along in this sort of thing. Money for the Red Cross would have to be rasied by a special group of solicitors and at a special time and if it couldn't be handled thataway then the Red Cross would refuse to accept a thin dime and if Thief River Falls didn't watch out this city might even lose its chapter. We might be forced to struggle along here without a Red Cross Chapter—that is until we would agree to do as we were told. So said a Red Cross official who journeyed here from St. Louis, heavily armed with court restraining orders. So rather than languish for months and maybe years behind Uncle Sam's prison bars, the local do-gooders pulled in their horns, agreed to return what money they had collected and promised from now on never to think of such a thing again. Such is life in our country's broad field of charity.

Looking Backward

1928—TWENTY YEARS AGO

Herbert Hoover, elected president Tuesday, carried Pennington county by a wide margin over Al Smith.—Math Barzen, one of the pioneer builders of the Thief River Falls community, died November 1 after a heart attack at the age of 61.—Mrs. J. M. Bishop will deliver an Armistice Day address over Radio Station WCCO, Minneapolis.—The city tax levy at $10,750, is unchanged from last year.—The Rex Cafe will open for business Saturday.

1938—TEN YEARS AGO

The local Elks lodge celebrated its 20th birthday with a banquet.—The John Lind Motor Supply took over the building on Main Ave. vacated by the National Tea company store.—A cornhusking contest at the Gus Hillyer farm sponsored by the Civic and Commerce association, attracted an attendance of 2,000 persons. Andrew Hoefer of Sanders township won the championship contest.—Harold Stassen was elected governor of Minnesota, defeating Elmer A. Benson by a decisive margin.

"Self Service" for Meat Markets

America's food industry is now considering the pre-packaging of meats which will enable housewives to serve themselves at the butcher's counter. There are, of course, many difficulties in the way of presenting fresh meat in this way, such as refrigeration, special counters, preparation, pricing and others. "Levels of efficiency now considered visionary can be reached by America's food industry," says Sidney R. Rabb, chairman of the Super-Market institute. "Using the nation's super markets as a working laboratory, we can develop many ways of cooperating with the grower, processor and manufacturer, yes, even with the government."

Buttermilk and Beauty

Beauty experts say the complexion often can be improved by drinking a quart of buttermilk daily.

Hard to Satisfy

A SHABBILY dressed man asked the circus manager for a job.

"What can you do?" asked the manager.

"I can dive head first from a 150-foot ladder onto a block of concrete," said the man.

"That I want to see," said the manager. He had a 150-foot tower built and a block of concrete placed in front of it. The man mounted the tower, soared off and lit head first on the concrete. He got up, shook his head. The excited circus manager rushed up.

"You're hired," he shouted. "I'll pay you $300 a week."

The man shook his head.

"Why don't you want the job?" asked the circus manager.

"Well," replied the man, "that was the first time I have ever tried it, and I don't like it."

ONE-TRACK MIND

Blonde: "How do you like your new boss?"

Brunette: "Oh, he's okay but a little narrow-minded."

Blonde: "What makes you think so?"

Brunette: "He thinks words can only be spelled one way."

"Look heah, Rastus, you all know what you're doin'? You goin' away for de week-end and there ain't a stick of wood cut for de house."

"Well, what you all whinin' about, woman? I ain't takin' de axe, am I?"

HEALTH HINTS for LIVESTOCK
PREPARED BY AMERICAN FOUNDATION FOR ANIMAL HEALTH

FOUR REASONS WHY COWPOX IS SERIOUS

Never underestimate the serious nature of cowpox. It is one of the most costly, troublesome and prevalent diseases affecting the nation's milk cows.

In the first place, cowpox causes a heavy financial loss. Milk production falls off sharply, and teats may become so severely inflamed that the cow cannot be milked.

A mild case of cow pox.

Second, cowpox is a highly-contagious, fast-spreading disease. The virus is hardy and long-living. It spreads by contact with infected premises or animals, and on the hands of milkers.

Third, cowpox leaves the animal highly susceptible to two other serious diseases—inflammation of the teats, and acute mastitis. Cracks and sores on the teats are invitations to secondary infection which may prove fatal.

Fourth, milkers and caretakers may be infected on the hands and arms with a painful skin eruption.

Cowpox eruption is usually confined to the cow's teats, and occurs during the milking period. Two types of virus cause the disease. The "true cowpox" type confers immunity on recovered cows. But the "false" or "natural" type does not confer immunity; it may recur again and again, and is much more difficult to control.

When the first sign of cowpox is detected, the veterinarian should be called and the affected cow should be segregated from the rest of the herd at once. Her stall should be thoroughly cleaned and disinfected. Milkers should carefully disinfect their hands and arms. The owner risks his own health and that of his herd if he ignores this persistent disease.

PERMANENT . . . Mrs. Martha Jane Thompson of Valencia, Pa., who recently turned 100, is convinced that a woman should try to look her best at any age. So she got a permanent wave. She says she is opposed to shawls.

Do Not Minimize on Space When Planning a Bathroom

When planning a bathroom, don't short-cut on space needs.

For safety and convenience, every bathroom needs space for the door to open full width, space enough between fixtures for a person to move around and clean them easily, and adequate space for storage cabinets and towel rods.

The minimum spaces around fixtures are given here, with the added comment that more space is desirable, if it can be arranged.

Two feet between the front of any fixture and the wall across from it; one and one-half feet between the front of the lavatory and the front of the water closet; a floor area of 20 inches along the side of the bathtub by 20 inches, for a person to clean the tub.

At sides of fixtures, for cleaning there should be at least: two inches between closet tank and lavatory; three inches between closet tank and tub; four inches between closet tank and wall at side of it; six inches between lavatory and wall.

Make cut-outs of brown paper or newspaper exactly the size of the fixtures selected. Then arrange the cutouts on the floor of the room to be used for a bathroom, or on a floor space of the same size, until the best arrangement is found.

Cost of Transportation

The cost of transporting all food products adds about 10 per cent to the price consumers pay, and the expense of moving fruits and vegetables rapidly enough to avoid excessive waste makes up 30 per cent of the final price charged for those classes of foods. One of the agricultural research projects approved for immediate action is an investigation of ways to cut food transportation costs.

'Pantry Poll'

Housewives' cupboard inventories of groceries aren't nearly as large as they were a year ago, a "pantry poll" conducted by Northwestern university indicates. Shoppers, eyeing shelves of canned goods and other groceries, are showing a marked tendency to take home fewer purchases.

Yes, one application of Dr. Salsbury's Vapo-Roost is enough to get rid of all the lice and feather mites in your laying house. Just spread a thin line of Vapo-Roost on roost poles. Fumes do the rest. Treatment remains effective for days — long enough to kill young lice which hatch later.

Cities Need "Small Change"

Because of higher transit fares, several cities have had to get millions more small coins for "small change." Detroit has increased its street car fare from 10 to 13 cents; Chicago upped its street car fares from 10 to 11 cents, and its elevated fares from 12 to 13 cents. Transit fares have been increased in 44 of the nation's largest cities in the last two years.

Prowlers End 1948 Season With 44-18 Defeat at Bemidji

The Bemidji Lumberjacks, sparked by 183-pound Chuck Aakhus at left halfback and 185-pound Jim Hirt at fullback, each of whom scored three touchdowns, defeated the Prowlers, 44 to 18, in an eighth regional football game played on the B. S. T. C. field in Bemidji Thursday night. The game was the season's finale for both teams, with Bemidji putting a successful "cap" on their undefeated schedule, while the Prowlers ended their season's play with a record of five wins and three losses.

Bemidji, the Central Ten champions, scored a touchdown early in the first period when Skipton recovered a Prowler fumble on the kickoff to give the Jacks the ball on the locals' 32-yard line. A couple of penalties moved Bemidji back to midfield, but an end-around play, with Robinson carrying the ball, brought the ball to the 32. A pass, Hirt to Robinson, and with Robinson flipping a lateral to Skipton, gained a first down on the 15-yard line. Hirt drove around left end for 6 yards, and then Aakhus turned right end for a touchdown. Robinson placekicked the conversion.

The Jacks, taking the ball in midfield on a punt, scored their second touchdown on a double reverse from the Prowlers' 35-yard line after Hirt and Aakhus, in three plays, had carried the ball from the 50 to the 35-yard line. Robinson again kicked the point to give coach Ken Wilson's team a 14 to 0 lead.

Following the kickoff, the Prowlers, from a spread formation, completed a pass, Al Williamson to Harley Wagner, and the local left end, after nearly breaking loose for a touchdown run, was downed on the Bemidji 22-yard line. The play gained 47 yards. Jack Winter slashed off tackle and went out-of-bounds on the 19. Williamson, on a sneak, broke through for a first down on the 8-yard line. Winter then stepped through right guard for the first Prowler touchdown.

Chuck Aakhus, touchdown, on a spinner from the Prowler 12-yard line, tallied Bemidji's third touchdown and gave the Jacks a 20 to 6 lead at the intermission.

Jimmy Hirt's two touchdowns in the third period, one on a hard drive over right guard from the 3-yard line, and the other following an interception of a Prowler pass on the Thief River Falls' 30-yard line, gave Bemidji a 32 to 6 advantage midway in the period.

The locals took the following kickoff on their 37-yard line and with Stadum, Winter, and Williamson carrying the ball, advanced to the Bemidji 8-yard line, and then on a sweep around left end, Winter carried over for his second touchdown.

A 26-yard run by Aakhus, on a reverse, and Jim Hirt's 35-yard kick-off return, gave Bemidji their two fourth period touchdowns. The Prowlers third touchdown was recorded when Wagner made a fine catch of a forward pass thrown by "Pinky" Adolphson to score from the Jacks' 15-yard line.

The Lumberjacks, featuring a double-wing system of offense and with Chuck Aakhus and Jim Hirt being effective on reverse plays, lived up to the advance reports of their prowess and proved that they are entitled to rate with the state's best football teams.

Jack Winter, making his last appearance in a Prowler football uniform and his first start since injuring his knee early this season, turned in a brilliant game for the Prowlers, with his first touchdown being the result of his fine speed and drive. The game was also the closing of the high school football careers of Al Williamson, Joe Bradley, Harley Wagner, Jim Russell, Harold Baker, Harvey McMahon, Erv Skaar, Harry Simons, Jim Arras, Don Baken, and Wes Olson, all whom will graduate next spring.

Ask Sportsmens Groups to Return Questionnaire

Sportsmen's organizations are reminded that replies to a questionaire sent by Chester S. Wilson conservation commissioner, are desired by November 15.

The questionaire asked for approval or disapproval of an enlarged game and fish program and an increase in the license fees, as outlined by Frank D. Blair, game and fish director.

Blair also requests that the game and fish division be advised of the present officers of each organization, for an up-to-date mailing list to which circulars can be sent.

Poor Memory

A suburbanite whose clock had run down was sending his boy to town to get the correct time.

"But Pa, I can't bring the correct time. I have no watch."

"What do you want a watch for? If you can't remember, write it down on a piece of paper."

ROBERT TEE LEE

Son: "Dad, was Tee Lee, the robber they sing about, a Chinaman?"

Dad (puzzled): "Tee Lee? What song is about him?"

Son: "Oh, Dad, you know that song, 'Waiting for the robber Tee Lee!' ".

Problem in Finance

The absent-minded customer started out of the restaurant without paying his check and the sweet young thing at the cashier desk said: "Hey, Doc. Just how do you want to finance this?"

Dust Me Off!

Little Dickie's mother, trying to talk him into a bath, urged, "Surely you want to be a clean little boy, don't you?"

Yes, tearfully agreed Dick, "but couldn't you just dust me?"

Water Softener Does Job Of Saving Clothes, Hands

Soft water makes all home washing easier and more pleasant. It saves soap, clothes and hands and may be used in every home at relatively small cost. In homes where soft water is not supplied, it will pay to use a softener in the wash water.

Trisodium phosphate is one of the most satisfactory water softeners in some areas, according to Miss Gladys Ward, home management specialist, University of Illinois college of agriculture. This softener works best when it is thoroughly dissolved in hot water. Lye, unless used with care, is hard on both hands and clothes. Whatever softener you use, Miss Ward says to be sure to skim off all scum before adding soap.

It's important to know how much water softener to use. Too much softener leaves free alkali in the water, which weakens fabrics. Miss Ward suggests this simple test to gauge the amount of softener needed in your water. First, be sure to use hot or warm water. For each gallon of moderately hard water, begin by adding one-half tablespoon of trisodium phosphate. As soon as the softener reacts (curds usually form in five minutes or less) dip out a pint of water and add to it one-half teaspoon of soap flakes. Be sure to have the softener thoroughly dissolved in warm or hot water before the soap is added. If suds do not form, add more softener—about one-fourth tablespoonful to the gallon. Wait for this to react and test as before. If necessary, repeat with another one-fourth tablespoon.

New Stamp to Commemorate Removal of Cherokee Tribe

A new postage stamp turns back the pages of U. S. history to the chapter that carries the stormy comment, "John Marshall has rendered his decision; now let him enforce it."

The stamp is a special issue which congress has authorized to go on sale at Muskogee, Okla., October 15, 1948. It will commemorate the "Trail of Tears," the enforced migration of Cherokees from Georgia to Oklahoma more than a century ago.

Back of this migration lies the controversy which produced the heated reference to Chief Justice Marshall, reputedly made by President Andrew Jackson when he challeneged a supreme court ruling favorable to the Cherokees.

The stamp will commemorate the removal from the southeastern states of Chickasaws, Choctaws, Creeks and Seminoles, as well as Cherokees. Milder climate made these tribes less dependent on hunting than those farther north. Because they were satisfied to farm and mix with the pioneer white settlers, they became known as the "Five Civilized Tribes."

The Cherokees, especially, loved their ancestral farm acres. Their leaders were literate men of half or less than half Indian blood. Their nation lay east of the Tennessee river in northwest Georgia, northern Alabama, eastern Tennessee, and western North Carolina.

The proposal for banishing these tribes to lands beyond the Mississippi began attracting support early in the 19th century.

Siamese Twins Won Fame During Sensational Life

Eng and Chang Bunker, the celebrated Siamese twins, died in 1874, in North Carolina, where they are buried in a little country churchyard.

But hardly anyone in this generation knows that an even more remarkable pair of Siamese twins lie buried a couple of hundred miles away in another lonely field—more remarkable for their anatomy and also for the adventurous lives they lived.

The twins, named Millie-Christine (they spoke of themselves as "I" and not "we") were born July 11, 1851, about six miles from Whiteside, N. C., to Jacob and Monemia, slaves of pure African descent. Throughout their lives (and they lived until 1912) they were examined by medical men throughout the world. Their lungs, hearts and functions of digestion were those of two persons, perfect and healthy. The body terminated in four legs. She, or they, could walk on just two of these but preferred to walk on all four. Above the body union, the feeling was separate and distinct; below this union it was in common. If you touched the hand of one, the other did not feel it; if you touched the foot of either, the other knew it.

The early life of the twins was as sensational as their anatomy. Before they were 10 years old they had been abducted twice. Later, Millie-Christine were exhibited all over the world. No troupers of that day could claim a greater number of royal command performances, and they were given handsome brooches by Queen Victoria, later appearing also before the Prince of Wales (Edward VII).

Picking an All-Conference Team

The North Valley conference football coaches—Ed Bohnoff of Grand Forks, Snooks Sullivan of East Grand Forks, Pat Turner of Crookston, Jim Maxwell of Grafton, Red Huntley of Devils Lake, and Wayne Johnson of the Prowlers—are being polled for their selections on the "official" all-conference team, and it is expected the results of the balloting will be available within a couple of weeks. Most of the coaches have been discussing the capabilities of the conference players with the boys on their respective squads, so the final lineup will be, in a sense, both a coaches and a player's all-conference team.

Having witnessed all of the conference teams in action, we can perhaps call attention to some of the boys that we believe merit all-conference consideration. The best left end in the circuit, from an offensive point of view, was the Prowlers' Harley Wagner. And the top-ranking defensive end, particularly on his play against Grand Forks, was Grand Forks' Bob McKinnon. At left tackle Grand Forks' co-captain, Don Bjerke, will probably draw a number of votes. Moving over to the tackle position Bryant Ulseth of the Crookston Pirates may win an all-conference berth.

Other Boys Outstanding

"There were a number of high class guards in the conference this year, among them being Don Green and Joe Bradley of the Prowlers, Jim Miller of Crookston, Dick Matt of East Grand Forks, Gerry Russow of Grand Forks, Bill Schnetter of Devils Lake, and Tommy Burns of Grafton. If Don Green had played all year like he did that afternoon against the Crookston Pirates, the husky Prowler would have been a unanimous choice; and if Joe Bradley could have been free of injuries he, too, would have been a near unanimous selection. As it is, it will perhaps be a toss-up between Bradley, Schnetter of Devils Lake, and Miller of Crookston.

On his play against the Prowlers, and in the only game that Grafton won, the league's best center was Gjerswold of the Spoilers.

The backfield positions, at least two of the positions, will be hotly contested. Grand Forks' Ronnie Thompson, the conference's leading scorer and most dangerous runner, is a cinch to be named at a halfback spot. And East Grand Forks' burly Kermit Christianson should win the nomination for fullback.

Arguments will begin when they name a quarterback and left halfback. Personally, Al Williamson of the Prowlers, at quarter, and Crookston's Dave Pilkey at left halfback, would be capable selections. But Devils Lake will perhaps contend that Don Lee is of all-conference caliber, and Grafton will be staunch in support of their triple-threat Gene Burns.

Final Returns

The duck hunting season sputtered to an end on Wednesday afternoon, and it's the consensus of most of the nimrods that duck hunting was at a "near low." And getting the blame for the erratic results was the unseasonable weather during October, with its lack of rain and blustery winds.

But while the duck hunters were filled with complaints, the goose hunters were claiming the best shooting in years, and the bag limits that were reported appear to be proof for their claims. For instance, on Monday morning, and forced to break ice in order to get out on Thief lake, Arnie Lee and Pug Lund knocked down four big geese. And on Saturday and Sunday, Larry Berg, a former resident here, bagged geese, getting one on Saturday afternoon and a pair on Sunday.

First Game on Nov. 26th

Coach Bob Nick's basketball Prowlers will open the season here on Nov. 26th when they play the Climax Vikings. Nick has been drilling a twenty-two man varsity squad, including lettermen Al Williamson, Harley Wagner, Wally Grovum, Don Sponheim, Don Stadum, and Erv Skaar, in practice sessions that began on Monday night. In addition to the loss of Marlow Davidson and Palmer Ronholm by graduation, lettermen Len Hurst has moved out of town and there is a possibility that Keith Jorde will transfer out of the state.

Olive Trees and Taxes

Many years ago, when the Balkan province of Macedonia was a center of contention among Turks, Bulgars and Greeks, the Turks, in possession at the time, set out to make the province unattractive to rival nationalities. They adopted the device of putting up taxes on olive orchards to the point that forced the unfortunate owners of olive orchards to cut them down. As olive growing was an important industry, the trick worked.

Interesting Program Presented and Officers Named for Coming Year

450 parents of Northwest School students attended the annual Parents' Day program at the Northwest School at Crookston on Saturday, November 6. The program began at 10 a. m. with the opening of the student home project show in the school gymnasium. Open house was held in the school dormitories throughout the day. The officers and directors of the Northwest School Parents' association held their annual business meeting at 10:30 a. m. with County Superintendent H. E. Sorvig of Crookston as guest speaker. The Parents' Day dinner was served in the school dining hall from 11:30 a. m. to 1:30 p. m.

The general session of the Parents' Association met at 1:30 p. m. for the election of officers and county directors. Superintendent T. M. McCall was the speaker. An all student program for the parents was given at 2:00 p. m. in the school auditorium. Outstanding features were a style revue by 110 girls who had completed sewing projects, a report on home project work by a group of boys, music by the massed choir and girls' glee club, and a one-act play.

Officers elected for 1949 include Oliver Thormodson of Dalton, president; A. J. Wambach, Sr., of Mahnomen, vice-president; J. W. Sutherland of Hallock, secretary-treasurer. Among the directors elected were John DeHaan of Red Lake Falls, Red Lake county; Keith Hastings of Thief River Falls, Pennington county; Albert Brandt of Roseau, Roseau county; Albert Lindstrom of Argyle, Marshall county.

RIPE TOMATOES PICKED OCTOBER 31

THANK YOU

I wish to thank the voters of Pennington County for the splendid complimentary vote given me on election day, Nov. 2. I shall do my utmost to merit your confidence.

POLITICAL ROUNDUP

By Arthur Naftalin

The politicians are still reeling from the hurricane that struck the state and nation on general election day.

Democrats, in their moment of triumph, are as perplexed as their unhappy Republican cousins over how to explain the surprising upset that gave the Minnesota Democratic-Farmer-Labor Party a U. S. senatorial seat and four congressional positions.

The unusual DFL success certainly opens a new era in Minnesota politics, an era in which the two major parties know that they will be contending on more or less equal grounds. In long-range terms, this is perhaps the most significant result of the 1948 elections.

Senator-elect Hubert H. Humphrey now steps into the center of the national spotlight. His victory over Joseph H. Ball was among the more spectacular Democratic triumphs over the nation, and those who claim the New Deal liberal banner will be looking to Humphrey for positive leadership in the Senate.

Humphrey at 37 has before him a most promising career. Speculation has already begun concerning the prospects of his obtaining the 1952 Democratic Presidential nomination. But even if '52 is too early, Humphrey's age is on his side, because given a reasonable number of political breaks—he will be "available" for the nomination through the next six Presidential elections. That would bring us to 1972, when Humphrey will still be only 61, which is still under the average of American Presidents.

Humphrey faces an important cross-roads in the 81st session of Congress. He can on the one hand, choose the traditional political course of building within the established framework of the existing Democratic Party. This would mean a process of cautious growth, developing alliances and friendships within the Party, making such expedient adjustments as appear necessary.

On the other hand, Humphrey can decide to move directly into a position of Party leadership by establishing himself as the leader of the liberal Democratic section. This would mean a bold declaration that he intends to help build an out-and-out liberal, fighting party that would openly recognize the differences within the existing party and the need to fight an intra-party battle as well as the larger struggle for a liberal program in Congress.

The political analysts, including the public opinion pollsters, will long argue the causes for last week's surprises. One hypothesis that will be studied holds that, whether justified or not, the bulk of American voters have come to identify the Republican Party with big business.

President Truman, in his persistent attacks upon the 80th Congress, did much to further this feeling. This, of course, leaves unexplained the failure of the polls to predict Truman's victory. One possible explanation is that voters were basically unenthusiastic about both Truman and Governor Dewey, and, when polled for their opinions, expressed a rejection of Truman but did not necessarily mean they were embracing Dewey. The pollsters made the mistake of failing to gauge the depth of support that Dewey had.

One of the important implications of the election is the new stature won by the organized labor movement. The participation of trade unions in rallying their members to support Democratic candidates marks a new step in their growing maturity.

It is clear that those who had encouraged anti-labor sentiment had over-reached themselves, and the election is an indication of a reaction against this tendency. The growth of the labor movement has brought it into contact with many millions of citizens who are not necessarily affiliated with it with the result that it has come to represent the program identified with the New Deal reforms.

Perhaps the greatest of all surprises in the Minnesota elections was the defeat of the veteran Republican Harold Knutson in the Sixth Congressional district.

Knutson retires after 32 years service during which he established national leadership as a conservative spokesman. His defeat, in some ways is an even greater blow to the Republican forces than the defeat of Ball, because Knutson has long been the acknowledged defender of the extreme free enterprise line of thought.

Knutson's defeat is a symbol of the basic change that the American people appeared to be seeking on November 2. Whether they have found what they were seeking remains to be seen.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh
To Dunk or Not To Dunk?
Dunking doughnuts is Sober Hopkins' favorite morning pastime ...and for a long time Ma Hopkins has been trying to break him of the habit. Feels it sets a bad example for the children.
So one morning she puts a heavy frosting of chocolate on the doughnuts... figuring that will stop him. Sober thinks it over for a while and then: Dunk! Taste? Sniff! And Sober compliments the missus on the lovely mocha flavor!
I guess there'll always be two schools of thought: to dunk or not to dunk. But from where I sit, it's a matter of personal choice and taste—like some folks prefer beer to cider, ale to beer. And the less we criticize those differences of taste, the better.
In fact, Ma Hopkins got so curious about the flavor of chocolate-covered doughnuts dunked in coffee, that she tried it herself. Now—you've guessed it—she's a daily dunker, too!

FARM PROSPERITY HELD ESSENTIAL TO U. S. WELFARE

John Brandt Makes Plea at Coperative Milk Producers Convention

A sound agricultural prosperity is absolutely essential to the prosperity of the nation as a whole, and attempts to deflate farm prices are taken at the risk of deflating our entire economy and lowering our standard of living. John Brandt, president of the National Cooperative Milk Producers Federation, said today in Portland, Oregon.

Brandt, who is also president of Land O'Lakes Creameries, Inc. Minneapolis spoke at the annual meeting o the Federation, an organization composed of cooperative dairy organizations throughout the country.

In demanding a sound and sensible agricultural program, he said that attempts to deflate farm prices and at the same time maintain a high standard of income for labor and industry will stretch the economy of the nation to the extent that it will break.

He pointed out that despite a clamor over high prices, more food is being consumed by more people today than ever before.

"Citing the example of just one farm product," he said, "bears this out. During 1947 and early 1948 we had probably the highest prices for meat in our history. Yet in 1947 consumption of meat amounted to 155.5 pounds per capita. In 1934, when farmers were almost giving their livestock products away, per capita consumption in this country was 143.1 pounds.

"Analysis of consumption and price relations of agricultural products will disclose many similar situations, all of which are proof that the standard of living, no matter how much we grumble about it, definitely follows the path of farm income."

Mr. Brandt told the assembled dairymen that the oleomargarine issue will again be hotly debated in the coming congress. He said that the oleomargarine lobby has tried to lead the consuming public to believe that it is being taxed on a food item for the protection of dairy interests.

"I believe," he said, "that the best protection for the dairy industry is to advocate full repeal of all taxes to give oleomargarine the clear right of way to stand on its own feet without being hampered in any way in its manufacturing and merchandising opportunities.

"However, in doing so we should tie to tax repeal legislation provisions that will absolutely and without reservation prohibit the use of the color yellow in any shade in the manufacture of oleomargarine and the serving of the product colored yellow in public eating places."

Mr. Brandt declared that the oleomargarine manufacturers should join in pressing for such legislation in the consuming public's interest and to prevent fraudulent sales of oleomargarine as butter.

SPECIAL SAVINGS BOND DRIVE OPENS

Promotion Campaign to Open on Armistice Day

As part of a national promotion of U. S. Savings Bonds Armistice Day, James Roche chairman of the Pennington county savings bonds committee, urged every family in the county to put away all the surplus cash they can in E, F, and G bonds and to help sell bonds to their neighbors.

"This is not a national bond drive such as we had last spring in the Security Loan," Mr. Roche explained, "but a special campaign with three aims: to add more payroll savers to the 7,500,000 wage and salary earners who are now buying bonds regularly through payroll savings plans; to get more bank depositors to sign up on the Bond-a-Month plan, and to urge farmers to build up their financial reserves in these safe bonds."

The rural phase of the campaign, which will urge every possible farm family to build up their financial reserves by investing as much as possible of their current crop money in savings bonds will be backed by implement dealer member of the National Retail Farm Equipment Association.

Bond sales in Pennington county last month were $20,837, for series E, and $5,000 for series F and G, or a total of $25,837, Mr. Roche reported.

State Bar Group Plans Public Relations Drive

A statewide organization of lawyers is being created to carry out a vigorous public relations program on behalf of the Minnesota State Bar Association, according to an announcement by W. W. Gibson of Minneapolis, chairman of the Association's public relations committee.

Objectives of the program are to increase and intensify the public services rendered by lawyers, and to join other groups in furthering the American system of individual liberty.

The organization is formed on the basis of counties and judicial districts, and John W. Padden of Crookston is chairman of the public relations committee in the 14th district.

Many Postage Stamp Cachets Are Planned for State Centennial

Minnesota will become cachet conscious in 1949 is the word received from the Minnesota Territorial Centennial cachet committee. Each month of 1949 will be represented by a cachet signifying a historic happening in Minnesota history. The entire list of historic events to be so emphazed is not complete but milestones as "The Opening of the First Bridge Across the Mississippi," "The Printing of the First Minnesota Newspaper," "The Signing of the Treaty of Travers Des Sioux," and so forth.

First day covers to be issued in connection with the Centennial Anniversary date of March 3 will have philatelists for the issue. The combination of a cachet, embossed territorial seal, and the new commemorative Centennial postage stamp will give it triple significance. The sale and handling will be turned over to the St. Paul Philatelic Society in connection with a statewide stamp show to be held in St. Paul from March 3 to March 7. The requests from throughout the world are expected to mount to the hundreds of thousands.

Winona Man Jailed for Violating Unemployment Compensation Rules

B. A. Todd, Jr., Winona, is in jail this week as a result of his having failed to report his earnings while drawing unemployment compensation benefits.

He was arrested on a warrant issued by W. Kenneth Nissen, county attorney, Winona county, on information filed by S. S. Hammer, manager of the Winona local office of the Minnesota division of employment and security. He was sentenced to twenty days by Judge E. D. Libera of the municipal court, after Todd had pleaded guilty.

He said he knew he was earning wages at the same time he was qualifying for benefits, but that he did not know it was against the law.

The county attorney explained that Todd had been working for a Winona contractor for four weeks during which he reported himself unemployed. He earned and was paid 61.10, but told the employment office of receiving only $7.21.

The irregularity came to light as a result of the division's regular check of benefit payments against wages reported by employers.

Here is how television started. In 1873 a telegraph operator named May, at Valentia, Ireland, noticed that his instrument behaved erratically when the sun shone on his selenium resistors. Storm on Armistice Day in '40 Reminds of Winter Hazards

With Armistice Day serving as a reminder of the death dealing storm which swept Minnesota on November 11 of 1940, road maintenance and safety officials of the state highway department this week sounded a warning to motorists against some of the traffic hazards that come with Minnesota's inevitable winter weather.

"Car owners who have not yet prepared their vehicles for winter driving should do so without delay," urged J. E. P. Darrell, traffic engineer in charge of the department's safety division. "A checkup in November may save motorists a lot of trouble in December, as vehicle care is an important factor in preventing winter traffic tieups and automobile accidents.

"Safety inspection should result in correction where needer," he said. "Brakes, lights, battery, tire chains, defroster and windshield wipers should be looked over, not overlooked. There's a lot of truth in the old saying, an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

During the winter months street clearance crews and highway snow removal teams will put forth their best efforts to keep roads open and reduce the danger of ice, but drivers must be ever-conscious of their individual responsibilities for accident-prevention, it was pointed out.

"Drivers are asked to avoid jack-rabbit getaways, lengthen distance between cars, start stopping sooner, apply brakes gradually, use tire chains when needed, always be alert for pedestrains and avoid parking where cars will impede snow removal crews," Darrell added.

Minnesota Employment Service Fills 30,632 Farm Jobs During 1948

The Minnesota state employment service filled 30,632 farm jobs during the first ten months of 1948, it was announced this week at the St. Paul office of Victor Christgau, director of the Minnesota division of employment and security.

This is nearly 3,000 more than in the corresponding period of 1947, and is the result, primarily, of the division's newly organized system of employment security representatives. This year, 375 such local farm help offices were used to make the services of the state agency handy to farmers in all agricultural sections of the state.

In October, the division filled 21,068 jobs, of which 8,988 were on farms.

SMILEY

November days are here. Very typical are they. Nippy mornings that necessitate cozy fires in the house, crunchy, frozen ground laid bare to the forth coming snows. Semi foggy dawns and twilights that obliterate your views of places and things around the countryside so that it appears that "smoke gets in your eyes". It is wonderful. This is the month indeed, when thoughts habitually turn to turkey and pumpkin pie. It is the month of thanks and the fulfillment of a rich and bountiful harvest whether it be material things or of the soul. there is so much that an American can be thankful for—too much perhaps.

Mrs. Mark Olson and Phyllis spent all day Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Winton Knutson in Numedal.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Grundhaus and boys have moved into their brand new six room home. The house was built this past summer by John Ranum and son Ray. It is a beautiful house with an attached garage and a full basement. The good folks of Smiley wish them heaps of happiness and prosperity in their new lodging.

Mrs. Ed Vigen, Bert and Gladys Vigen returned Thursday evening from Minneapolis. They spent since the previous Sunday in the Cities where Mrs. Vigen received a medical check-up and treatments which proved to be very successful to her.

The Smiley bridge is having its face lifted. Workmen have been very busy this past week or two raising the bridge to make it higher in preparation for the expected highwaters in the spring after all the dredging being done up in River Valley. It certainly has been extremely inconvenient for many in travelling especially for the school busses. It is estimated that it won't be too long now before the job is finished.

Ervin Karlstad of Minneapolis drove up for a few days stay with his home folks, the Martin Karlstads. He returned to his wife and son Tuesday.

Another increase in the population of Smiley came in the form of a bouncing baby boy, Monday morning. He belongs to Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Stenseth, who are very happy over the whole thing.

Little Johnny Sannes is staying with his grandparents, the John Ranum's, these days. His parents, the Gilfred Sannes (Junice Ranum) are vacationing in the Black Hills, S. D.

The word "Finis" was activated for the old school house land mark of Smiley, District 4, when several of the neighbors gathered there Monday afternoon for an informal sale and disposal of the equipment. Everything went, books, desks and all.

"What's Cookin'?"

There is going to be big doin's Friday evening, November 12. Something new has been added in the entertainment field. The mothers of the pupils attending the Washington School Dist. 221 are going to show their ability as amateur actresses by presenting a one act comedy "Rumor Wanted". The following list of characters is enough to provide the desire for each and everyone of us to want to see the play. Here they are, Aggie Spratt, played by Mrs. Norman Nelson, is a domineering invalid, whose ills are imaginary; Grover Spratt, played by Mrs. Clarence Arneson is the hen pecked husband; Mary Lou Spratt, a devoted niece who can't leave auntie, is played by Mrs. Melvin Torkelson; Peter Deems, a young doctor is Mrs. Alvin Konickson; Grandma Seagrave, a perambulating tombstone is played by Mrs. Theodore Bjorge; Mrs. Merryweather, a neighbor is Mrs. Sigurd Folkedahl; The widow Huggins is played by Mrs. Gust Gustafson. There will be a free lunch for all. The play starts at 8 p. m. sharp; if the weather is bad an announcement will be made Friday morning over station KTRF whether the play will be presented or not.

Financial War Loss

Before the war, half the cost of Britain's imports was met by invisible exports, including income from overseas investments, shipping and insurance. During the war, Britain had to sell a major part of her overseas investments to a total value of $4,500,000,000 to help finance her war effort, and in addition acquired new indebtedness to a total of $11,500,000,000. Her shipping fleet never fully recovered from wartime sinkings.

Blue Shield Plan for Medical Care Is Topic of Talks

People in the Red River Valley area who would like to obtain the new Blue Shield medical-surgical coverage they've been hearing so much about lately, were told how they can enroll in this non-profit, voluntary plan Friday in a special radio program over station KTRF.

Dr. Theodor Bratrud, one of the local physicians who is participating in the Red River Valley Medical society's current Blue Shield educational program and enrollment drive, was interviewed by Melvin Woell, Polk County Farm Bureau director.

According to Dr. Bratrud, Blue Shield is primarily a group plan, and groups can be formed at places of employment for those who are in cities and towns. For the farm folks, groups can be formed in their Farm Bureau units and in other farm club organizations.

"Enrollment regulations for Blue Shield are similar to those for Blue Cross," he stated, "since a certain percentage of the persons employed in a firm or enrolled in a Farm Bureau unit must join the plan in order to maintain a group."

He explained that in businesses where there are between five and ten employees, 100 per cent—or all of them—must enroll in Blue Shield before a group can be formed. In firms having between 11 and 25 employees, 75 per cent of them must enroll to form a group, and in firms of more than 25 employees, 60 per cent or more of them must enroll in Blue Shield to form a group.

"These quotas or percentages are necessary," Dr. Bratrud said, "because Blue Shield, like Blue Cross, must get a cross section of the people so that there will be enough healthy subscribers—persons not in immediate need of medical care—to pay in sufficient money to take care of those who do have to use their Blue Shield.

"Blue Cross originally set up these quotas when the idea of prepaid hospitalization was entirely new, and its originators realized that they must have a sound financial basis on which to operate.

"They knew from actuarial statistics that one person in every 10 would use hospital care in one year, and they figured out their quotas accordingly. When 60 to 100 percent of each business firm or farm club enroll in Blue Cross or Blue Shield, the plans then have a good cross section of the people and can financially take care of the group," he said.

Speaking of the Blue Shield enrollment drive now starting in this area, the doctor pointed out that "all hospitals and doctors' offices are acting as information centers so that any business owner or firm manager who wants to form a Blue Shield group among his employees, can notify his nearest hospital or doctor. The hospital or doctor will then see that a Blue Cross-Blue Shield Plans representative contacts him and helps him form a group."

"Individual employees within a firm who are interested in becoming Blue Shield subscribers should talk it over with their fellow workers," Dr. Bratrud added, "and if there is enough interest among them, they should let their employer know so that he can arrange to have a representative come in and help form a group.

"The sooner people who are interested in Blue Shield get busy talking it over, the better chance they will have to form a group now," he emphasized, "since the Blue Cross-BlueShield men up here will have many, many calls to make and must schedule them well in advance in order to get around to all the places where they want Blue Shield."

Dr. O. F. Mellby will explain the plan further in a talk over KTRF this evening at 9:15.

INVENTORS AND JETCYCLE . . . Sooner or later somebody was bound to come up with a jet-propelled bicycle, and here are the three teen-age inventors from Falls Church, Va., who did it. The contraption they designed can work up to a speed of 15 miles an hour with its single jet, but the boys now are working on a faster three-jet job. They are (left to right) John Hunton, 16; Bobby Dent, 15, and Mad Walther, 15

Complete Unofficial Tabulation Reported

Congressman Harold C. Hagen, in being reelected to his fourth term, in the face of a strong Democratic wave, got a majority of close to 10,000 votes, according to complete but unofficial returns compiled at his office in Crookston.

In the face of a landslide vote for Harry S. Truman for President and Hubert H. Humphrey for senator, both democrats, Rep. Hagen was the only Republican running for a national office who secured a majority in the district.

The unofficial total for the 626 precincts was 57,347 for Hagen and 47,470 for his DFL opponent, Oscar Johnson. Rep. Hagen's unofficial majority is 9,877 votes.

ONE REASON WHY VEAL COMES HIGH

South Saint Paul—From 200 to 300 veal calves are flown out of here each week for a butcher in Newark, New Jersey. He hopes to make it around a thousand a week when plane space is available. Fare is about 6c a pound, compared with about a cent and a third per pound by rail, but during the seven-day rail trip the average calf loses 15-20 pounds, during the five hour air trip there is no change.

FARMERS SEEKING SEEDLINGS FROM STATE NURSERIES

2,000,000 Seedlings Are Available for Use in Farm Wood Lots, Shelterbelts

Farmers and other woodland owners already are flooding the forestry division with requests for seedlings from the state nurseries next spring. About two million young trees will be available at cost to private owners but the demand is expected to far outrun the supply, as it did last spring.

State forestry officials are heartened by this great interest in tree planting. They foresee more and larger woodlots, windbreaks and shelterbelts. They predict that the nursery act of 1947 will lead to extensive reforestration of neutral timber areas. They warn, however, that additional supervision is needed if the new woodlands are to thrive and return a profit.

Minnesota woodlot supervision in the last generation has largely been left to Parker Anderson, extension forestry specialist at University Form. He has conducted short courses, helped county agents in their timber problems and has been kept on the run by a job which easily could occupy a dozen men.

Lately Anderson has had the assistance of Ray Wood, who has been working in the prairie areas of the state, encouraging windbreaks and shelterbelts, preaching erosion control and showing farmers how to turn their trees into treated fence posts and other timber products.

CANCER EDUCATION DAY AT CROOKSTON

Meeting in Crookston City Hall November 18

A Cancer Education day will be held in Crookston Thursday, Nov. 18, to which anyone from nine northwestern Minnesota counties is invited.

Sponsored by the state department of health and the Minnesota division of the American Cancer Society, the program includes a meeting for laymen and a special discussion conference for persons caring for cancer patients.

The open meeting will be held in the Crookston city hall at 2 p. m. The conference for regular, practical and registered nurses and attendants will follow a 7 p. m. dinner at the Wayne hotel.

Dr. W. O. Pearce, the cancer control officer of the state health department, will be the principal speaker at the afternoon session.

Also participating in the program will be Miss Laura Hegstad of St. Paul, state health board cancer consultant, and Miss Helen Hanson, clinical instructor in advanced cancer nursing at the state university school of nursing.

12 DIE IN 4 CAR CRASHES; OCTOBER TOLL RISES TO 67

13 Traffic Victims in Minnesota During Last Three Days of Month

Thirteen was a deadly unlucky number for as many Minnesota traffic victims during the last three days of October, and as a tragic result the October traffic death toll rose from 54 to 67 over the month's final weekend.

This was only 7 below the bad record of 74 traffic fatalities for October of 1947, and left the state score at 468 dead for ten months of the year as compared with 497 for the same ten months of 1947.

Twenty-six of the October deaths were caused by cars running off the road. Twenty-four persons were killed in collisions and 13 of the dead were pedestrians. Of the 24 collision fatalities, 5 were due to collisions between motor vehicles and railroad trains. One girl was killed in a motorcycle accident and another 13-year old girl, "riding double" with a friend on a bicycle, was fatally injured when the bike was struck by a car. Another motorcyclist was killed when he hit a rise in the road and was thrown from the machine.

Three October accidents claimed 12 lives between them. The most disastrous was that near Gilbert in which six high school students plunged to their death when their car hurtled 80 feet off the road and landed on its top, and three members of the same family were all killed when their car ran into a train at a railroad crossing near Moorhead. Three members of another family were fatally hurt near Erskine at the intersection of two county roads when the driver of the death car turned left in front of a car coming from the opposite direction and the two cars collided headon.

Headon collisions, involving one or both cars being on the wrong side of the road, took seven lives in all, during the month, and collisions at highway or street intersections were accountable for ten deaths.

Excessive speed or speed too great for conditions was blamed in at least 12 of the traffic deaths resulting from vehicles running off the road. A faulty steering gear claimed one driver's life and blinding lights of an oncoming car were blamed for two of the month's fatalities.

MARSHALL TO GET MORE X-RAY TESTS

Testing Unit to Return Three Days Next Week

Mrs. Johnson, co-chairman of the Marshall county chest x-ray survey committee, has arranged with Dr. H. Mark, director of the division of tuberculosis, to have the unit return to Marshall county November 16, 17, 18, so that those who could not keep their previous appointments will have another opportunity for a free chest x-ray.

Appointment cards will be sent to all those who registered for the survey but have not had a readable film taken. Mr. Lundstrom will be the technician on duty. The schedule will be:

November 17 morning, Stephen, 8:30 a. m. to 10 a. m., evening, Strandquist, 6 p. m. to 9 p. m.

November 18, morning, Strandquist, 8:30 a. m. to 10:00 a. m.; afternoon, Newfiden, 1:30 p. m. to 5:00 p. m.

Refinishing Refrigerators

Kitchen refrigerators can be finished with two brush coats of quick-drying enamel of any desired color. However, it is advised by experts in finishing that the job be done with a spray gun by a man who specializes in such work. In either case, surface of the refrigerator must be absolutely clean and free from any trace of greasy film which might impair adhesion of the new finish.

Friend of Farmers

Despite the general contempt in which it is held, the skunk is an animal whom farmers may regard as their friend. It is quite useful because it eats many mice, grubs, beetles, potato bugs, grasshoppers and other pests. When left alone the skunk is non-aggressive. A person can pick up a skunk without danger, if he knows just how. The great horned owl does this, and bobcats and foxes prey upon it.

Agricultural Census

Plans are under way to obtain a world census of agriculture in 1950. The statistics would include crop acreages, livestock owned, size of farms and type of ownership.

Another First

U. S. Travelers Surprised At Holland's Orderliness

Americans who have returned from a visit to The Netherlands this past year have spoken with admiration and amazement of the country's physical and social aspects, which were utterly contrary to the conditions they had expected.

What excited their astonishment above all were the orderliness, the neatness and normalcy of daily life, both in the cities and rural areas.

Coming from other war-ravaged European countries, as many of these travelers did, they found it hard to convince themselves that Holland had suffered more intensely from the war, that it had been the last country to be liberated, and that its postwar economic situation is beset with seemingly insuperable difficulties.

Strikes there have been and they still occur in Holland, but they have been sporadic and have not affected the greater majority of workers. Instead, there has been closer collaboration between management and labor than ever before in the history of the Dutch labor government.

Mail Bag Catcher

Railway mail cars in which mail is sorted en route are equipped with movable iron arms, called mail bag catchers, which are swung outward when the train is in motion to grab mail pouches suspended on mail cranes. They are operated by railway mail clerks responsible for collecting mail en route.

AIRPORT NEWS

Art Forsberg, Jr., and Harold Chandler went to Minneapolis last week and flew back with a new Stinson Station Wagon, which was purchased by Forsberg and Sons from the Falls Flying Service. Forsbergs have a lot of seed-cleaning equipment throughout the country and they plan to use the plane for trips to service this equipment. Art Forsberg, Jr., who took his flight training from Harold this summer and has a private pilot's license, will be at the controls on these trips.

Les Schroeder, state commissioner of aeronautics, and George Hawley, state inspector and co-ordinator of the aeronautics department, were here Friday for a meeting with airport operators in this territory and others interested in aviation and its progress. Harold Chandler, our local airport manager, Ben Wichterman from Plummer, and the manager from Hallock, represented the airport operators. Also present from here were Mayor Simons, council members Connie Stanbridge and Carl Gjernes; and Gust Frahm, Bob Michalsky, Herb Jung and George Rockstad.

John Zerachek of the state game and fish department, flying a Stinson, was here on business last week.

Bob Botten is a new student who has signed up for private flight instruction.

Jerry Ness flew over from Rugby, N. D., where he is employed, to visit with his parents over the weekend.

Art Forsberg, Jr., has already been putting the new Stinson Station Wagon to good use. He took Lewis Quam of Goodridge on a search flight, trying to locate several head of cattle which had strayed away from the Quam farm. And on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Forsberg, accompanied by Marjorie Wangenstein and Dick Noel, flew to Grand Forks.

Sunday visitors at the airport were Ken Johnson from Cooperstown, N. Dak., and A. Jones from Warren with a Luscombe Silvaire.

Chris Klerk and daughter, Beryl, flew the Aeronca to Roseau on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Klerk and son, Jimmy, from Dorothy, were airport callers on Monday.

Harold Chandler and Lloyd VeVea are members of a deer hunting party in Canada this week.

GROWING WITH YOUR CHILD
Institute of Child Welfare, University of Minnesota

Dorothy Gets in the Way

Tommy, with fire in his eyes, came storming into the kitchen. "Dorothy's knocking down my blocks all the time, Mother. Dorothy is hurting. Make her stop it."

"But, Dorothy is only a little girl," his mother replied. "You should be ashamed to fight with her. Now go and play nicely with your little sister."

Tommy had a legitimate gripe. Little sisters who interfere all the time are annoying. Dorothy's welfare and pleasure was being considered and Tommy's not at all.

There are bound to be quarrels when children play together, and the possibility of quarrels is increased when children of different ages play together. Their needs and interests are different. They make use of the same materials in entirely different ways.

A two-year-old will lay blocks end to end and be very well satisfied. He gets as much pleasure from tumbling blocks as he does from building them.

A five-year-old may have as his ambition "building the blocks as high as the sky." His interest is in construction and is in direct opposition to the interests of the two-year-old which lie, first of all, in destroying what he has built.

To expect these children to play together without lots of disagreement is expecting a great deal. A much better plan would be to let them play at separate activities, but in each other's company. If the younger child persists in annoying the older one, the little tyke should be removed to a place of her own. After all, older brothers and sisters have rights, too.

Common Railway Spike

Spikes of various designs were used from the earliest period of railway development but the hooked-head spike, [illegible] today by railroads throughout the world to fasten steel rails to crossties was designed in 1831 by Robert L. Stevens.

First Pullman Car

In 1858-59, George M. Pullman, a young Chicago contractor, converted two passenger coaches of the Chicago and Alton railroad into sleeping cars at the company's shops in Bloomington, Ill.

LIBRARY NOTES

"Books Tell the Story" is the slogan for book week Nov. (14-20) to be observed at the Public Library with exhibits and open house.

Special arrangements will be made to discuss children's books and to assist if possible with individual problems pertaining to the selections of suitable books.

From 3:30 to 4:30 is the rush hour in the children's section. Often it is a mad rush and children literally fall upstairs in their haste to find a certain book before some one else gets it. If there be any grown ups who feel at all bored with life, a visit to the public library during these hours is suggested. Come with an open mind and share in the enthusiasm. It isn't confined to the juvenile department, by the way. Waiting lists testify of this. There are books for all tastes and all moods if you know where to find them. Get better acquainted with your library and do not hesitate to ask for help if you feel the need of it.

Blair Says Deer Are Plentiful Enough to Justify Open Season

From all present indications there are sufficient deer in Minnesota to warrant a season this year without endangering the brood stock, and there will be a season, November 20 through November 28, provided the fire hazard in Minnesota has been eliminated by that date, Frank D. Blair, director of the division of game and fish, announced this week. However, he stated that the division is keeping in close touch with conditions thruout the deer territory, and will be prepared to recommend to the commissioner all steps necessary to protect the deer population as required by later developments.

Blair pointed out that game research men and the great majority of game wardens and sportsmen's clubs reported the deer this year to be in about the same numbers on the whole as last year.

Of a total of 344 sportsmen's clubs, county agents, veterinarians, game and fish fieldmen and game wardens polled, 144 declared the deer population to be the same as last year, 143 indicated that there was an increase and only 57 stated that they noted a decrease.

"An important factor that makes it safe to have an open season on deer in Minnesota, without danger of diminishing the brood stock is that we have a tremendous area (more than 3,000,000 acres) of game refuges in the state into which deer may go for protection, also large areas of good deer retreats in remote forests and swamps where hunters seldom penetrate," Blair said.

"It is known that deer herds were reduced in some parts of the north by severe conditions or other causes last winter. Populations are spotty and but few deer were seen during the warm months, but they are now beginning to show up in sufficient numbers to warrant an open season," Blair added.

The game and fish director also scotched reports that liver fluke, a parasite, was taking a heavy toll of Minnesota deer. Results of a survey conducted this year by the Division of game and fish showed no evidence of excessive deer fatalities from liver fluke.

Galen W. Pike, Supervisor of Superior National Forest, and Marvin Smith, Supervisor of Chippewa National Forest, have had no reports of dead deer since the middle of last summer. Several of the state forestry men in deer areas made similar reports, as did several game wardens in northern Minnesota. Emil H. Frank, game warden at International Falls, also checked with Canadian sources, who declared there was no indication of deer dying off in Canada.

"What many observers fail to take into consideration in determining comparative deer populations from one year to the next is the shifting of deer herds," Blair said. "The deer are spread over a much larger area this year, creating the false impression that there is a great decrease. This is true especially in the coniferous forest areas," the director pointed out. "As the evergreens grow up fewer deer will be found in those areas. They will shift to cut or burned over areas which furnish new feeding grounds of aspen, birch, hazel, alder and the like."

LIE DETECTOR IN ACTION . . . Dr. Alice Lindsay Wynekoop, 77, did not murder her daughter-in-law according to the results of the psycho-detecto-meter lie test conducted by Dr. Orlando F. Scott. The aged woman physician who was convicted of slaying pretty Rheta Gardner Wynekoop was recently freed from prison after serving 13 years and nine months for the sensational murder.

Dairy Herd Improvement Training School Slated

A Dairy herd Improvement association supervisors training school will be held at the University Farm, St. Paul, November 29 through December 4. The need for trained supervisors is very urgent since several associations at the present time are without supervisors. Those interested are urged to contact County Agent Frank Hobbs for further information.

Latter Days of Jesse James

Life of Jesse James after his "death" makes the early days of this outlaw pale in comparison. After revealing his identity as the famed outlaw, "J. Frank Dalton" confided these adventures to a Chicago woman. After the shooting by which he was popularly believed killed, James toured Europe with a circus. Returning to the U. S. he moved to Indian territory and was appointed U. S. marshall. At one time he chased many of the gunmen with whom he had operated. He went to Brazil with a scientific expedition to study head hunters, fought with the Canadian army in France during World War I and put in a year hunting ivory in Africa. Later he entered a home for Confederate soldiers, still under the name of "Dalton."

Harder to Jam Radar Now, Research Head Points Out

Tactics used in World War II to jam Axis radars, which resulted in saving numerous lives, planes and ships, as well as giving the enemy misleading information, will be much less effective in future conflicts.

This is the warning of Dr. C. G. Suits, vice-president and director of research of the General Electric company.

Wartime chief of Division 15 of the national defense research committee, which had responsibility for radar counter-measures development, he has edited a full history of the Division's work.

In the part devoted to electronics warfare, Dr. Suits tells how the importance of radar jamming was emphasized in February, 1941, when the German battle cruisers, Gneisenau, Prinz Eugen and Scharnhorst escaped from the harbor at Brest under cover of fog. They jammed British radar sets that might have located them. Later in the war, however, the Allies made by far the most effective use of jamming, particularly because the Germans had unwisely concentrated their radar in a few types and frequencies that were especially susceptible to such countermeasure.

Dr. Suits points out that it is unlikely that there will be as many opportunities for jamming in the future, as modern radar sets are being made to operate in increasingly higher frequencies, using "microwaves" which are more difficult to jam.

Hop Research Expanded

Development of a hop variety that will be resistant to downy mildew as well as having high quality and yield are the objectives of an expanding hop breeding research program being launched by the Oregon state college experiment station in cooperation with the U. S. department of agriculture. In addition to control of downy mildew, which is causing tremendous losses annually, the station program includes work on control of such insect pests as hop lice and red spiders and on improving cultural practices. Oregon's hop crop last year occupied 19,640 acres and was valued at more than 12 million dollars. Average yield per acre was 850 pounds.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH RAZED BY FIRE NOV. 13

Forty-year-old Frame Building on East Side Completely Destroyed

Fire originating apparently from the furnace in the basement Saturday morning at 9 o'clock virtually demolished the First Baptist church on Markley av S. at Schuneman st. The church, a frame structure, had been erected about forty years ago.

Rev. Wesley Lindblom, for the past year pastor of the church, was in his study in the building after having started a fire in the furnace. When he and his secretary, Erma Hendrickson, smelled smoke, they looked into the church auditorium and saw flames coming up around the floor register.

The fire department fought the blaze with both its pumpers for two hours, but the flames made such rapid headway that it was impossible to halt them before the roof and ceiling collapsed, leaving only portions of the walls standing. The firemen, however, were able to save the house adjoining the church property, which was threatened by the blaze.

Insurance adjusters who arrived early this week appraised the depreciated value of the property at $14,000, Rev. Lindblom stated, against which $9,000 insurance was carried on the building and $2,000 on the contents. The Union Gospel Tent Mission also received a settlement for property it had stored in the church basement.

Rev. Lindblom announced that thru the courtesy of the congregation of the Mission Covenant church, Sunday school would be held in that church next Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock, followed by services at 2 o'clock. Members of the Baptist church will join in the Covenant church services Sunday evening at 7:45.

COUNCIL CALLS BOND ELECTION DECEMBER 20TH

Ask Voters to Approve $250,000 Issue for New Water Treatment Plant

The city council at an adjourned session Wednesday evening adopted a resolution setting Monday, December 20, as the date of a special election at which Thief River Falls voters will be asked to approve the issuance of $250,000 in bonds to aid in financing the construction of the projected water treatment and softening plant.

The resolution provides that the bonds shall draw interest at a rate of not to exceed two and one-half per cent, and will mature serially in from three to twelve years.

Proceeds of the issue, it is believed, together with $250,000 realized from a bond issue for the same purpose in 1945, will be adequate to cover the cost of the proposed construction, recently estimated at in excess of $450,000 by the engineering firm of Lium & Burdick, Grand Forks.

The plant, when constructed, will replace the present outmoded equipment, which is no longer adequate to serve the growing needs of this community.

The council at its session last night also engaged in a lengthy discussion of the advisability of hiring a firm of engineers to assemble basic data needed in connection with present and projected sewer, water main and street work, which information is not now available here.

S. L. Stolte of the firm of P. C. Bettenberg & company, St. Paul, which recently completed a similar study at Bemidji, was present at the session at the request of the council, and gave details of the proposed work.

Stolte said the work would include the assembling of basic information for use of the city engineers, including topographic maps and maps of present and projected sewer, water main and storm sewer installations. When the maps are once completed, he said, they would be kept up to date in the city engineers office.

After further discussion, the council voted to engage the services of Stolte's firm in making the study, which it was estimated would require nearly a years' time and will involve the outlay of an estimated $15,000. The work is scheduled to get under way in December.

Lester A. Ihle, president, and Ernest Johnson, secretary of the Lions club, sponsors of the community Halloween festival, submitted a detailed report on expenses in connection with the party, and reported that a balance of $84 remained of the $350 contributed by the city.

Mulry, Thief River Falls, member of the county board; Carl Gjernes, member of the city council; William LaFave, representing the Civic and Commerce association; and County Auditor A. M. Senstad.

In appointing the committees, Chairman Roy acted in compliance with a resolution adopted by the county board at its September session. He indicated that the group would hold its organization meeting in December.

The board's action in authorizing the study was prompted by the fact that the present court house has been condemned by the state fire marshal as a fire hazard and otherwise unsafe for occupancy.

CATTAIL FLUFF PLANT AT HOLT IS RUINED BY BLAZE

Largest Plant of Its Kind in This Country Is Destroyed Friday

The nation's largest typha plant, in which cattail fluff was processed for manufacture into mattresses and life preservers, was destroyed by fire at Holt last Friday morning.

The Thief River Falls fire department responded to a call for assistance, and a pumper and four men made the twelve-mile trip to Holt. By the time they reached the scene, the blaze was in full blast, and they pumped water on the fire for two and one-half hours before it was brought under control.

Fire Chief Roy Langevin, who accompanied the pumper, said the fire apparently had originated in the structure's equipment. The processing plant, housed in a former lumberyard, belonged to O. T. Ness & Son. A huge quantity of cattail fluff was destroyed in the fire.

An adjoining service station was slightly damaged by the fire.

BIG EXPANSION PROJECTED BY POWER CO-OP

Minnkota Co-op Given $6,197,000 Loan for Enlarging Operations

Officials of the Minnkota Power Co-operative, Inc., last Wednesday announced approval by the rural electrification administration in Washington of a record-breaking $6,197,000 loan which will be used to improve and extend the cooperative's electric facilities in this area.

Victor M. Edman of Alvarado, president of the co-operative, made the announcement after conferring with attorneys for the co-operative in Washington. Andrew L. Freeman of Grand Forks, N. D., Minnkota manager, said the loan is "about twice as big as any REA loan ever granted in this area before."

The loan provides funds with which to install 11,500 kilowatts of additional generating capacity; 430 miles of transmission line; 14 distribution substations and miscellaneous system improvements and changes made necessary as a result of expanding operations.

The 11,500 kilowatt generating unit will be installed at Grand Forks as an addition to the present 10,000 kilowatt steam plant now under construction. In operation now is a Grand Forks diesel plant having a capacity of 5,160 kilowatts and a diesel plant at Harwood, N. D., having a capacity of 4,800 kilowatts. In addition the coperative purchases 4,638 kilowatts of power from two power companies and a municipal plant located within the area.

Transmission lines scheduled for construction includes lines in Cavalier, Nelson, Steele, Griggs, Barnes and Cass counties in North Dakota, and in Marshall, Red Lake, Pennington and Clay counties in Minnesota. Also included in the transmission line work scheduled is reinsulation of existing transmission line in Polk and Red Lake counties of Minnesota to 69,000 volts.

Substation locations scheduled for construction include Hamden, Warwick, Ops, Cooperstown, Finley, Rogers, Cuba, Chaffee and Christine in North Dakota; and Holt, Sabin, Rindal and Terrebonne in Minnesota.

The co-operative has 700 miles of transmission line in operation at the present time and 132 miles under construction, some of which is scheduled for completion this year. These lines deliver power to 33 substations on the 10 member projects of the Minnkota who in turn serve 18,616 individual co-operative members located on approximately 8,123 miles of rural distribution line.

The facilities built and planned will serve to meet the initial requirements of some 40,000 members located in the territory now included under the Minnkota system.

The Minnkota is composed of 10 REA financed distribution co-operatives for of which are in North Dakota and six in Minnesota. They include:

Nodak Rural Electric Co-operative, Inc., Grand Forks Cavalier Electric Co-operative, Inc., Langdon, N. D.; Sheyenne Valley Electric Co-operative, Inc., Finley, N. Junior Class Cast in "Little Women" Monday, Tuesday

The junior class play, "Little Women" will be presented in the high school auditorium, Monday and Tuesday, November 22 and 23 at 8 p. m.

This dramatization of Louisa M. Alcott's famous novel by Arthur Jearue is as lively and refreshing as the original story. All the well-known characters appear, living their joys and sorrows behind the footlights.

The play opens with the "little women" planning a Christmas surprise for their beloved Marmee (Eloise Benson). Meg, the eldest, Lois Mowris, chides her sisters for their unladylike behavior, saying that Jo, the tomboy, played by Beverly Kjos, disgraces them by using slang and whistling on the street; Amy, the spoiled little artist, Darleen Solheim, is vain and affected, but Beth, the shy and bashful sister, played by Zona Hendrickson, is a dear and nothing more."

Bustling motherly Hannah, the housekeeper, Marlene Bowman, watches over the girls while the mother is in Washington taking care of the father (Ronald Ness) who is ill. The family carry their Christmas to a poor family who became their special charges but in whose house Beth takes the scarlet fever and becomes an invalid as a result.

A highlight of the play is the performance of one of Jo's original dramas by the four sisters with a group of friends as audience. These visiting young people are Elaine Phillips, Jeanette Anderson, Phyllis Engelstad, Harriet Sampson and Edward Stokke.

Special guests for the evening are kindhearted Mr. Lawrence, Maynard Troland and Laurie his gay and friendly grandson, Ronald Zavoral. With them is Laurie's teacher, John Brook, Robert Williams, who losses his heart to the eldest sister Meg.

A never-to-be forgotten character is crabby but great hearted Aunt March portrayed by Kathryn Vorachek and her gentler sister, Aunt Caroll, Marion Geving. Last comes the kindly man, Professor Bhaer, who is so important to the happiness of the playwright sister, Jo. The professor is played by Robert Botten.

A competent production staff headed by the business staff comprised of Peter Chommie, Shirley Mutzke, Wendy Merell and Irma Martinson under the supervision of faculty advisor W. A. Wange contributes their part to the success of the production.

The prompters are Delores Wynnemer and Ardell Langaas. Stage construction committee are Ronald Ness, Peter Chommie, Ralph Munt, Jack Kiland and David Korsmo.

Stage properties committee consists of Donna Lunde, Ellen Haug, Ardell Langaas, Helen Sandum and Marion Geving, while Carol Walsberg, Mary Ann Wetch, Jean Nelson, Jeanette Anderson, Joan Johnson, Erliss Simonson, Senora Swanson, Harriet Mullen, Iva Thorstad and Phyllis Engelstad make up the personal properties committee.

The play will begin promptly at 8 o'clock both evenings. Doors of the auditorium will be closed as soon as the curtain opens on the first scene. At the end of each scene the doors will be open to admit late comers.

THESE GIRL SCOUTS WIN COVETED CURVED BAR AWARD

The group of eleven girls pictured above share the coveted distinction of being possessors of the curved bar highest award in Girl Scout work, this award corresponding to the eagle award in Boy Scouting.

These girls who today proudly wear the curved bar are culminating an interest in Scouting and its program which for most of the girls began as a Brownie in the second grade of grade school. Most Scouts are happy to become First Class Scouts, and that honor is reserved for the select few.

In order to secure the curved bar the Scout picks a field of interest in which she has heretofor received no badges and she becomes proficient in this field by working and receiving four badges. If her interest has been in home making, she may turn to the out-of-doors, sports and games, health and safety, international friendship, etc.

Nancy Magnuson of Troop 15 is believed to be the youngest Scout ever to receive the curved bar in Thief River Falls. Her badge was earned in the out-of-doors. Troop 31 with 13 members point proudly to 10 wearers of the curved bar. The other three new in Scouting, expect to make the troop record unanimous this winter.

These girls, all with a deep interest in Scouting, are serving other younger troops as assistant leaders or program consultants.

THE VOTERS SAID "YES"

The voters of Minnesota have given the go signal to the soldiers bonus and it now is up to the legislature to figure how large a bonus shall be paid and how the money to pay it shall be raised. The bonus that was paid to veterans of World War No. 1 cost about 28 million dollars. Roughly there were three times as many in the service in World War No. 2 and they were in the service three times as long, so if a bonus is now to be paid on the same basis as then it will cost about nine times as much or about 250 million dollars. The veterans themselves are not asking for so large an amount and the cost will probably be in the neighborhood of 150 millions.

So large a sum cannot be raised painlessly in the state of Minnesota. It should be raised quickly to hold down interest costs. We should pay it while we still have prosperity if possible, or it may cost us several times as many pounds of butter as we would now bargain for.

And that may bring us a sales tax. No one wants a sales tax but that may prove to be the only answer to this financing problem. It is estimated that a 2% sales tax will raise 30 million dollars a year. In five years the bonus could be paid, and without interest if the payments were made as the money became available. The sales tax could be so written that it would automatically end when the bonus had been paid. The sales tax is the soundest proposal for raising so large a sum quickly that has been suggested so far.

ROUND FOUR ON THE WAY

Speaking of the coming fourth round of wage increases, a commentator reminded us this week that a large portion of our country's labor has not yet received the third round wage boost. He could have stated too that quite a large number of workers are still looking forward to the second boost and many people are struggling desperately to make both ends meet on incomes that have not yet had the first raise. In this latter class the old people predominate.

The poor people of today are the old folks who retired a few years ago with what they thought was enough to give them a comfortable living. Whether their estates were in the form of proprety, insurance or pensions isn't important. The pathetic thing is that their incomes are frozen at a level that no longer is adequate and they no longer have earning capacity to augment those incomes. The result is that they are forced to live at a lower standard than that which they earned and which they deserve. For those of us who still have earning capacity inflation is rather a pleasant thing—that is while we are inflating. It brings real hardship to many however.

A new high record for the total number of votes cast was not made in the recent election but enough were cast in Thief River Falls to remind us again that our voting precincts are far too large. The city could be divided into six fairly even precincts by making two precincts of the present fourth and making three precincts of the first and second. Six wards, each choosing its own alderman, would give us more equitable representation on the council. Now we don't have to bring this up again for another four years.

And now is a good time to again urge the election of Presidents by direct vote of the people rather than by electoral votes. It didn't make any difference in this election but it might have, and instead of giving one candidate a clear-cut victory we might have had a state of confusion with no candidate chosen for certain. This is one reform however that a Democratic Congress would not favor. The present arrangement normally gives the Democrats far more southern state strength than those states would have by their limited popular vote.

Cut Flowers May Be Sold On Weight per Stem Basis

You may never ask your florist for a pound of roses, but their weight may determine what kind of flowers you get and how much you pay for them.

This possibility is the result of a new method of grading cut flowers by weight developed in the agricultural experiment station at Cornell university. Prof. Kenneth Post of the floriculture department points out that establishing standard grades in flowers by weighing them will help the entire flower industry.

Upstate New York growers, wholesalers and retailers were enthusiastic about the new grading system and anxious to put into operation as soon as possible.

"Quality in cut flowers is best expressed by weight which takes care of size and length of stem and size of the flower display on the stem. Weight cannot take into account color, crooked stem, odd or mis-shapen flowers, but the poor flowers are easily eliminated by the sorter," Dr. Post explained.

Flowers that have been graded in research at Cornell include pompon chrysanthemums, carnations, roses, stocks, snapdragons and iris. Prof. Post believes that research can find grade standards for nearly all cut flowers on a weight per stem basis.

Practice Makes Perfect

When the westbound train stopped for a few minutes in a Nevada town, a traveler from the east got off to exercise by walking on the station platform. He had stopped to talk to an elderly citizen of the town when, presenting a rather striking picture, a shapely young brunette galloped by on a palomino horse.

"Some class to your local gals," said the admiring traveler.

"She ain't a native," was the reply. "She's an easterner, heiress that's out here for a second time gettin' a divorce."

"But she rides a horse so well. . ."

"She learned to ride on her first trip out here," the westerner explained. "Now she's learnin' to rope. Yes, sir, if she don't lose her figger or her fortune like she keeps lmagin' she' losin' her heart, looks like she'll be one of the best danged rodeo performers in the country."

HEALTH HINTS for LIVESTOCK

CARRIER BIRDS ARE CONSTANT THREAT

Carrier birds in a farm flock are a year-'round menace to poultry health and production. They are the "Typhoid Marys" of the poultry world—birds that are not really sick, but carry the germs of disease and spead infection to others.

Older be. . may spread disease to young flock.

There are several things that farmers can do to protect flocks against disease carriers, and one of the best precautions is to keep old birds separated from the young flock.

Many of the common diseases of poultry confer a permanent immunity if the bird lives through the attack. In some cases, individual birds recover as far as outward appearances are concerned—but continue to carry the infection, and can pass it on to others.

These carriers, of course, are found mostly among the older birds. Typical of the serious diseases often spread by carriers are laryngotracheitis, Newcastle disease, coccidiosis, infectious coryza, roup, cholera, pullorum disease, fowl typhoid, fowl pox, tuberculosis and leucosis.

Segregation of old birds from young ones throughout the year is a good general practice, and it must be accomplished by other precautions. A veterinarian's advice should be obtained on how best to combat these diseases and how to disinfect the premises after an outbreak.

In case of fowl pox, vaccination is an effective safeguard. If a severe outbreak occurs, it may be advisable to slaughter affected birds. In any event, the well and ailing birds should be separated and other steps should also be taken as required. Laryngotracheitis may also be prevented by proper vaccination. Constant culling of unfit birds, 365 days a year, is one of the most effective procedures a flock owner can exercise.

Sutter's Mill

Sutter's mill, where gold was discovered January 24, 1848—just 100 years ago—was a complicated thing to be built by primitive tools and materials. The historic site is on the American river, 45 miles above Fort Sutter, Calif. It was in the tail race of this mill that James Marshall, an eccentric carpenter who worked for Sutter, found the glittering yellow particles that started the California gold rush.

"Dry Cleaner" for Oranges

Oranges are cleaned and polished for the market by a dry-cleaning machine devised for the fruit-grower. It consists of two cylinders which revolve side by side. On the outside of each cylinder are spirals covered with rubber matting. Soft rubber, flexible piles about three-quarters inch high extend from the matting. As the cylinders revolve, the spirals turn toward each other and intermesh. The oranges are dumped onto the drums and as they work towards the outlet, are turned over and over, the rubber piles removing dust and grit and polishing the fruit.

Ice Pack and Hot Bottle

Chemically-controlled combination ice pack and hot water bottle that can be carried in a coat pocket or brief case is being introduced to America's aching heads and backs. The hot or cold pack, which can chill a fevered brow or comfort a strained ligament, is achieved by use of a special liquid contained in a flexible plastic bag. Placed in a refrigerator, the liquid congeals to a semi-solid state and becomes extremely cold; placed in a basin of hot water, the liquid quickly absorbs heat and maintains its temperature for a considerable length of time. Electronically sealed, there is no chance for leakage.

Lincoln High School Basketball Team to Start Play Nov. 26

Less than ten days remain before coach Bob Nick's basketball Prowlers play the first game of a strenuous 18-game schedule. The blue-and-gold will inaugurate their seasons play by meeting the Climax Vikings on the gymnasium floor here on Nov. 26.

A fifteen-man varsity squad has been named by coach Nick, and these boys have been engaging in the practice sessions that began on Nov. 8th. Named to the squad were co-captains Harley Wagner and Al Williamson, lettermen Don Stadum, Wally Grovum, Erv Skaar, and Don Sponheim, and Don Green, Keith Rosengren, Duane DuChamp, Harvey McMahon, Joe Bradley, Jack Kiland, Ken Aase, Jimmy Olson, and Gail Anderson.

Maynard Troland and Jerry Furuseth, both of whom are recovering from injuries suffered during the football season, will be given an opportunity to "tryout" for the squad as soon as their physical condition permits. Troland has a broken collarbone, while Furuseth fractured an ankle bone.

The Prowlers will be handicapped considerably for their early-season games by the absence of Al Williamson from the lineup. Al injured his right knee during the football season, and his physician advised him to give the knee a rest and refrain from basketball until after Christmas holidays. With such teams as Bemidji, Fosston, Detroit Lakes, Roseau, Red Lake Falls, and Climax on the Prowlers' pre-holiday schedule, Williamson's loss will greatly lessen the locals' scoring punch.

The schedule:

Nov. 26th, Climax, here.
Nov. 30th, Fosston, there.
Dec. 4th, Bemidji, there.
Dec. 11th, Detroit Lakes, there.
Dec. 17th, Red Lake Falls, here.
Dec. 29th, Roseau, here.
Jan. 7th, East Grand Forks, here.
Jan. 11th, Red Lake Falls, there.
Jan. 14th, Crookston, here.
Jan. 15th, Grand Forks, there.
Jan. 21st, East Grand Forks, there.
Jan. 29th, Grafton, here.
Feb. 4th, Devils Lake, here.
Feb. 5th, Bemidji, here.
Feb. 11th, Grand Forks, here.
Feb. 18th, Crookston, there.
Feb. 19th, Devils Lake, there.
Feb. 26th, Grafton, there.

Golf Course Pond Yields Large Quantity of Fish in Seining Operations

Testifying to the successful operation of the fish rearing pond sponsored by the Pennington County Sportsmens club on the Thief River Falls golf course, an estimated 10,000 bass fingerlings and more than 40,000 other species, mostly crappies, were seined out recently and deposited in Thief River. A group of local men assisted a representative of the state bureau of fisheries in the seining operations. More bass will be propagated in the pond in 1949, it was announced.

Sportsmens Club to Give Deer for Venison Dinner for Hospitalized Vets

The Pennington County Sportsmens club will contribute a deer to the number being assembled under the supervision of Ed Shave of the Minneapolis Tribune to supply a venison dinner for patients confined in veterans hospitals in this state, Henry Storhaug, secretary of the club, stated that the hunting license is being taken out in the name of Owen A. Olson, Gold Star father of Owen A. Olson, Jr., who gave his life during the late war.

First Cowcatcher

The cowcatcher on trains, a strictly American feature, was the invention of Isaac, a young mechanical engineer of the Camden and Amboy railroad, in the early 1830s. So many cows trespassed upon the railroad that Dripps decided to install on the front end of the locomotive a small truck supporting two iron spears. The Dripps device was effective, but it was fatal to the cows. To avoid damage suits, he substituted a crosswise bar much like the present-day bumper on an automobile, and from this evolved the present V-shaped cowcatcher.

Telephone Exchange

First telephone exchange in any foreign country was installed in London in 1879, with Samuel Insull as the first telephone operator at the exchange and George Bernard Shaw as one of the employees. Later Insull came to the United States and became Edison's secretary.

Anyone interested in figure or straight skating may contact one of the officers.

U. S. Seeks Whereabouts of 12,000 'Lost' Farm Hands

WASHINGTON—The United States is looking for about 12,000 "lost" farm hands.

They were among more than 300,000 agricultural workers, brought in from Mexico and the West Indies during the war and since to help meet a farm worker shortage.

Recruited under direction of their respective governments, they received permits to enter this country for only a specified period of time. They were supposed to return to their respective countries after the harvesting season.

So far neither the agriculture department nor the immigration service has been able to find the 12,000. Most of those missing are from Mexico.

J. H. Lambe, agriculture department labor officer, said it was possible that some might have returned to their countries without being checked out by government agencies. Others, he said, might have strayed from their work in the hope of finding permanent homes in this country.

St. Louis Will Grant Free Parking to Disabled Vets

ST. LOUIS.—War veterans whose disabilities make it hard for them to walk will receive special parking privileges from the St. Louis police department.

Automobile stickers will be issued by the local chapter of Disabled American Veterans, allowing such ex-servicemen to park a reasonable length of time in congested areas or on streets where parking normally is prohibited.

The stickers, showing a man on crutches, will be numbered and the police will be provided with a list of those to whom the privilege has been extended.

Since they will be issued to the individual and not to the automobile, an able-bodied person driving a car with one of the stickers will not be able to take advantage of the privilege.

Careless Handling of Stock Causes High Leather Costs

CINCINNATI.—A leather research expert at the University of Cincinnati claims that careless handling of livestock on the way to market costs Americans millions of dollars annually.

Fred O'Flaherty said that farmers and shippers who "rough up" livestock are to blame for a needless increase in the price that must be paid for shoes and leather goods.

O'Flaherty pointed out that many times the injuries aren't discovered until the hair has been removed from the hide.

Tagging Western Fish

Salmon, striped bass and sturgeon now are being tagged in the San Pablo bay by the California division of fish and game. A commercial gillnet boat is being used to catch the fish. Return of tags from the marked fish released by the division will be used to evaluate the probable damage to the salmon and striped bass fisheries by proposed dams and other projects. The San Francisco Tyee club is cooperating with the division by marking salmon outside the Golden Gate with tags furnished by the bureau of marine fisheries. A reward of one dollar is offered by the state for return of each salmon tag, and the Tyee club has placed rewards of from 10 to 50 dollars on several tagged fish.

Economy of Pasture

The economy of pasture, says the U. S. department of agriculture, is due in large part to the fact that labor is saved, the animals gathering their own feed and spreading the manure as they graze.

IN GERMANY

New Insulin Taps Found

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y.—With a million diabetics in the United States alone requiring insulin to stay alive, and with growing demand indicating that world need may outrun present supplies, the World Health organization reported that research discoveries in Germany offer the promise of a 30 per cent increase in world insulin output.

Dr. Brock Chisholm, executive secretary of the organization's interim commission, told a press conference here that the German work, which still must be checked, involves a new method of collecting pancreas glands without refrigeration. It is from the pancreas glands of slaughtered cattle, sheep and pigs that medical insulin now is obtained.

Technical reports to the interim commission in Geneva termed the discovery "of the utmost importance," although particulars were not available here. But the reports noted that this method would enable recovery of the glands from small slaughter houses which now lack cold-storage facilities.

Facilities Not Available.

In New York medical circles it was pointed out that much of the world's cattle killing takes place on farms or other places under conditions heretofore precluding collection and storage of pancreas glands. This includes much of the United States and most of Latin America. It was speculated the German work might have developed a technique for fixing the insulin content in pancreas glands chemically, so it would not be destroyed in transportation.

The commission is collecting further data on the insulin research, which was reported from the American and British zones of Germany. Occupation authorities in the British zone reported other research had found that codfish pancreas glands were extremely rich in insulin, although at present the cost of extraction is some 150 times that from slaughtered animals.

Annual Production

The world's annual insulin production now is estimated at more than 11 billion international units, with the United States, United Kingdom, Denmark and Netherlands as chief producers.

Import needs were put at nearly two billion units a year, with exportable surpluses of only 1,400 million. The resulting deficit, the reports said, could be met only by increased American production and by the new extractive methods, which are being sought particularly by Finland, Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia.

However, even these deficit statistics were arrived at without including reports from China and India, where the large populations and increasing medical services are likely to swell the demand for insulin substantially.

Mr. Lion and Mrs. Tiger Expect a Young 'Tiglion'

SALT LAKE CITY.—Throwing out all textbooks, the Salt Lake City zoo has accomplished the supposedly impossible: Mating a full grown lion and tiger, traditionally deadly enemies.

Mae and Huey are boxing playfully in their cage at the Hogle zoological gardens here these days, and the zookeeper, Joe Naylor, said Mae, the three-year-old tigress, was "expecting her first offspring."

Lions and tigers have been mated before, but as far as zoologists know, not when brought together after reaching maturity. The German animal expert, Carl Hagenbeck, experimented successfully in the field but his method was to rear the lion and tiger together from cubhood.

Some of the resulting progeny were sent to zoos in England and this country, but no case is on record of a successful mating in the United States. The hybrid offspring are variously called "tiglions," "ligers" and similarly coined terms.

Naylor took nearly 10 months to get his pair together.

More Farm Machinery Than Ever

Reconversion since the war has resulted in notable activity in farm machinery manufacture with the result that farmers were able to buy more farm machinery in 1947 than in any previous year, and so make up for some of the equipment they had not been able to acquire or replace in war years, says U. S. department of agriculture. Prospects for 1948 indicate a still greater supply this year. This is true in spite of heavy exports last year with a probable further increase in shipments to Europe this year.

Over 700 Deer Licenses Issued up to Wednesday

The outlook is dark for deer in this area, it appeared Wednesday, when County Auditor A. M. Senstad revealed that up to 4 o'clock in the afternoon more than 700 deer hunting licenses had been issued locally. Many Nimrods have been scouting around the past week lining up a likely shooting spot. Deer generally are reported to be less plentiful this year than a year ago.

Rooster

Lays a Miniature Egg

SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA.—A rooster at Oakleigh, Victoria, has astonished B. J. Finch by laying an egg.

The egg was spherical and about three-quarters of an inch in diameter—much smaller than the average hen egg. The egg contained only white without any trace of yolk.

As far as Finch knew, the bird was a normal rooster, but expert opinion is that it must have been at least half a hen. Hens occasionally can turn into roosters but the reverse process does not occur.

'Farm of Tomorrow' Reduces Labor Costs 30 Per Cent

MADISON, WIS.—A farmer's life will be much easier, on the push-button farm of the future.

University of Wisconsin scientists have set up a model electrically-operated "farm of tomorrow" that cuts today's farmer's time and labor some 30 per cent.

The project started when university scientists found that more than 56 per cent of the average Wisconsin farmer's work consists of daily chores.

And 41 per cent of that time, they found, is concentrated in the dairy barn.

The university got a grant of $100,000 from the Wisconsin Utilities association, took over a 140-acre farm near Madison and went to work.

That was two years ago.

Now the model farm is on display, showing farmers how to get many of their chores done by merely pushing a button.

For example, cow stalls are kept clean by paddles on a moving chain that sweeps the gutters.

When the cow needs food, silage is brought down through an electric suction chute to a feed cart. The cart is pushed in front of the cow, measures the feed and throws it in the mangers.

A foot-operated lever opens doors into the milk house so the farmer can enter it with full milk pails in both hands.

In the hay mow, warm, dry air from a ventilating fan is forced through green hay for curing.

London Firm Offers Good Pay For 'Arduous Filthy' Work

LONDON.—A help wanted advertisement in the London Times warned potential applicants that the work offered was "arduous filthy" but added "pay is good."

Sandwiched in among usually proper personals, it said "managing director of E and B B (Steeplejacks) limited seeks well educated young men who are willing to take off their coats and learn exciting trade. Work arduous filthy; and you'll be frozen to death in winter and roasted in summer. But pay is good and those who make good will have a job for life with every opportunity to climb to good position (you must be able to climb anyway). Your work will take you all over British Isles. Hours are long but esprit de corps is good. There is no reason why we can't have men who talk like Socrates and work like Hercules."

The advertiser was Jack J. Egerin, a master steeplejack, who said that the only good steeplejacks left were getting old and he wanted young recruits. He is offering $40 to $60 a week with bonuses.

MANITOBA VILLAGE BUILDS NEW ARENA

Letellier May Enter States-Dominion League

Letellier, Manitoba, a prospective member of the States-Dominion hockey league, will dedicate its newly-completed rink next month. And the completion of that rink is a memorial to the co-operative spirit of that community's residents.

With plans of entering the States-Dominion hockey league in formation, citizens of Letellier decided that the best way to build a rink was through voluntary contributions by the people of the community. Farmers along the Red River gave their oak trees, which were chopped down and sawed into pillars at Morris. However, many more trees were cut than were needed and this lumber was sold at a profit.

Again the project was delayed, this time through the ravaging spring floods. But after the surging waters had receded and the fields became dry, rink talk resumed.

A billboard was posted in the postoffice where the names of the donors and their donations would be marked. In two weeks donations totalled $2,000.00. As soon as $5,000.00 was realized an order for lumber was placed at Vassar. By buying this lumber at the mill about 50% of the cost was saved. Bees were organized to haul this lumber from Vassar and some days about 25 trucks left Letellier to haul the lumber.

Fortunately, all the cement required was purchased before the shortage. Gravel was bought at the pits near Stuartburn for 15 cents a yard and hauled to Letellier by local men who formed bees for this purpose.

Building operations proper started on July 1st, and since that date five paid carpenters have been employed, but for the past month an average of 35 men a day have worked on the structure.

The rink itself measures 180x102 feet with the ice area being 180x80 feet. Capacity is 2,000 people. The waiting room, which is a separate building, measures 102x24 feet, and it has a full basement in which dressing rooms for the players, showers, and furnace room will be located.

GIRLS BROOMBALL TEAM IS NOW BEING ORGANIZED

All girls interested in playing broom ball are asked to notify members of the recreation board or Charles Dostal at the Arena.

Importance of Water

A plentiful supply of water supplements an efficient feeding program on the farm. Water constitutes 60 per cent of meat, 87 per cent of milk, 55 per cent of poultry flesh and 65 per cent of eggs.

Keeping Score

By WM. KUCK OLSON

See Doubly Careful

This vicinity has been fortunate the past several deer hunting seasons in that there haven't been any serious or fatal shooting accidents. And for that record the local hunters are to be complimented.

Another deer season will open at sunrise on Saturday and with the percentages against a hunting mishap growing slim, local nimrods should be doubly careful this year. And, too, with the vast areas of timber and swamp land that was burned out this fall, the deer herds have been concentrated in the unburned sections in greater numbers than usual. That means that the hunters will converge on those areas and create hazardous hunting conditions.

Let's remember that all the venison in the state isn't worth a man's life, nor is it even worth a crippling accident.

Notes on Hockey

According to present plans the senior hockey Thieves will open their season on Dec. 18th and 19th when the Seven-up team of St. Paul will play the locals on the Arena rink. The two games, on Saturday night and Sunday afternoon, are dependent upon ice conditions, but it is hoped that the Arena will have an ice sheet by that time.

Coach Dick Roberts of the high school Prowlers called the prep hockey candidates together this week and he has been sending the squad through calisthenics and road work. There are several of the boys on the squad that should benefit greatly by those exercises.

Swede Lund, last year's Prowler captain and an all-regional selection, appears satisfied with the setup at North Dakota University, but he stated that he would be playing his hockey with the local seniors this year. It appears that Bob Baker will remain on the Iron Range, for the former Olympic team player has been at Hibbing the past week with Joe Brettos' team and indications are that he will be signed up to play with that sextet.

Independent Cage League

Milt Relerson, Owen Korsmo and some of the boys, anxious to form a city basketball league, have issued a notice for a meeting to be held on Wednesday evening, November 24th, in the basement of the Auditorium, for the purpose of sounding out the sentiments for such a league.

Bowling Worry

Six weeks of the city bowling league schedule have elapsed, and eighteen games have been bowled. But in that time the Forkenbrock Motors team have experienced but one loss and have a record, of which they can boast, of seventeen wins and one defeat. They are making such a lop-sided race of the city league race that the league directors are on the verge of taking drastic steps to hobble the motor men.

Jack Forkenbrock, manager of the team, is pretty proud of his squad and with Ted, Babe, and Junior Lendobeja, Cal and Mert Ripley, and Owen Scramstad on the roster he feels that the team deserves its first place rating. Owen Scramstad is the team's high-average bowler, having a fine 180-pin average.

They'll Meet Him Again

The Prowlers thought they had seen the the last of Bemidji's Chuck Aakhus when they met the Lumberjacks in football on November 5th, but the basketball Prowlers are billed to play Bemidji at Bemidji on December 4th, and leading the defending state champions will be Aakhus. With Aakhus, all-state forward Chuck Grover, Jimmy Hirt, Jack Belliveau, and Robinson and Gordon available, coach Mike Lagather will be able to make a strong bid for the state title again.

Added to the rumors as to where Aakhus will take his college training is the report that he is considering West Point. Bemidji's Phil Feir is at the Army school and playing offensive left tackle on the football team, and he may have something to do with Aakhus' leaning towards the Academy.

150,000 Hunters Expected to Seek Deer Nov. 20-28th

Minnesota deer hunters, probably in excess of 150,000 plus a few hundred non-resident visitors, will open the deer hunting season at sunrise Saturday, November 20.

Based on investigations and observations of game wardens and biologists, officials in the Game and Fish division believe that the deer population totals more than 900,000 in the state as a whole, which is somewhat less than last year's high. The majority of sportsmens clubs make favorable reports of deer now being seen.

Additional indications of the deer population not being far down, may be found in reports to the Game and Fish division of deer hit and killed on Minnesota highways. Since the first of September, 121 have been hit by cars, trucks and busses, which do not include any report of near-misses and minor accidents.

The division also reports deer shining has been prevalent, with 69 arrests since April 1. This includes three moose.

Game officials state that if the deer herd has been too seriously reduced there would not be the large number of them killed on the highways, nor the successful attempts to take them by shining.

In the northeastern part of the state hunters will have more difficulty in obtaining deer. The heaviest populations are now found in hardwood and brush areas.

In the coniferous forest areas deer yard up during the winter. In a number of these places the winter feed is short resulting in young deer starving to death the latter part of the winter.

Superior National Forest officials and game research biologists recommend the open season to prevent this.

The season for taking deer has been set for November 20 to November 28, both dates inclusive, from sunrise to sunset.

The areas opened to hunting with firearms or bow and arrow are:

North and east of the following highways starting at the North Dakota border at Breckenridge, thence State Highway No. 3 to Fergus Falls, thence U. S. Highway No. 52 to Anoka, thence State Highway No. 3 to Lino, thence U. S. Highway No. 8 to State Highway No. 97, thence east on State Highway No. 97 and east to the Wisconsin border, including the Carlos Avery Public Hunting Grounds in Chisago and Anoka counties.

Every hunter must have a big game license, and if he hunts in St. Croix or the Cloquet open areas, the special permit in addition. He may take one deer of any age or sex.

The hunter may use a rifle with caliber larger than 23 and shell must be not less than 1¾" in length. Any shell 35 caliber and over bay be used regardless of length. A shotgun with a single slug, or a bow and arrow may be used. In the three southeastern counties only shotguns with slugs, and bows and arrows may be used.

For periods of ten days before and five days after the regular big game season, it is illegal in the areas open to deer hunting to carry or have in possession firearms (except shotguns loaded with buckshot) unless they are unloaded and broken down, or in a gun case.

Deer cannot be hunted from an artificial platform more than six feet from the ground or with the aid of dogs or horses.

POLITICAL ROUNDUP

By Arthur Naftalin

One of the red-hot issues before the 1949 legislative session will be the effort to reestablish party designation in the election of members of the legislature.

Democratic-Farmer-Labor legislators are convinced that their party would have won clear-cut control of the House in this year's election had it not been for the fact that legislators are elected without party designation.

Many of the DFL legislators are now prepared to give all-out support to a measure which would put the election back on a partisan basis. They argue that partisan elections would mean a measure of party responsibility which is lacking under the present arrangement.

Minnesota is one of only two states in the nation which have the non-partisan method for selecting legislators, the other state being Nebraska. The present arrangement has been in effect since the election of 1914.

Its adoption in the first place was an historical accident. In the 1913 session, it was tagged on another bill making county officials non-partisan by sponsors who sought thereby to defeat the whole bill.

To the surprise of the voters, who previously had heard no agitation for such a measure, the entire bill carried, and the state awoke to discover that henceforth the legislature was to be non-partisan.

Over the years many efforts have been mad to do away with the non-partisan feature. Curiously enough, liberal members (usually Democrat or Farmer-Labor) played prominent roles in defeating the measure. They claimed that the non-partisan feature was of help to them in obtaining some measure of recognition.

Now, however, they can see quite clearly that the measure operates against liberal control in years when the voters are intent upon the choice of Democratic candidates.

Surveys show clearly that, in most legislative districts, voters do not have very extensive information about the legislative candidates, and, as a result, are not prepared to make their choice on the basis of issues or party preference. Partisan designation enables the voter to vote for the party of his choice, thus providing a method for voicing support for a particular program.

Political fires continue to burn in Minneapolis in the wake of Mayor Hubert Humphrey's triumph in the U. S. Senatorial contest. The city is now getting set to vote on December 6 on the matter of a new charter.

The new charter, which will come, if adopted, in the form of an extensive amendment, would reorganize the city's outworn machinery which has not been basically changed since 1872. It would confer new powers on the Mayor, eliminate a number of boards and commissions, and establish a central finance department.

Sponsors of the charter amendment are hopeful that the strong antagonisms that were present in previous campaigns will not recur. Steps have been taken to eliminate those portions which have caused the most controversy in previous reform efforts.

There is much interest developing in the question, who will succeed Humphrey as Minneapolis' Mayor? Eric Hoyer, president of the city council, will fill out the unexpired term, and he may be a candidate for the office in his own right at next May's primary.

But already other candidates are being discussed. Humphrey's close supporters would like to see either John G. Simmons, young Lutheran minister, or state DFL Chairman Orville Freeman, who managed Humphrey's successful campaign, become successor.

Hennepin county Sheriff Ed Ryan, Humphrey's first chief of police, has announced his interest in the mayoralty, also. If he were to run, Ryan would no doubt be a strong vote-getter.

The fairly widespread interest that surrounds the organization of the 1949 legislature indicates the state, is in some rather extensive ferment over matters that will command the legislature's attention.

This period is not unlike the one that followed World War I in which there was considerable excitement over improving the machinery and technique of government. It is likely that 1949 may see much legislation aimed at the consolidation of school districts, the revamping of the state tax structure, improving local government by means of city-county consolidation, and the general raising of standards for the many state services. In this setting, the effect we revise the state constitution will occupy the center of attention.

The action of the play revolves around the character of Leander Lovejoy (Wallace Payne), who is afflicted with a desire which his friends term "girlitis". Preserving Foods with Electrons

Under the supervision of two Berlin-born scientists who escaped Germany before the war and are naturalized American citizens now, preserving experiments have been made for the past two years with a wide variety of materials ranging from fresh meats, cheese, eggs, fruits vegetables and spices to sulfa drugs and novocain. Dr. Arno Brasch, co-inventor of the capacitron, and Dr. Wolfgang Huber, his chief associate, have found that many of the items if treated can be preserved indefinitely without causing any apparent change in their form. The capacitron is a cousin of the cyclotron, the betraton and other nuclear accelerators.

1947 Apple Harvest in U. S.

Most of the 40,549,000 bushels of apples grown along the Atlantic seaboard last year came from 10 to 100-acre hillside and valley orchards on diversified farms. Washington state, producing upwards of 1,000 bushels to the acre in the irrigated orchards of the Yakima and Columbia river valleys, harvested 33,480,000 bushels, 66 per cent more than the combined output of Virginia and New York. Massachusetts, ancestral home of the American apple, was ninth, with 2,864,000 bushels, sharing this position with the state of Oregon.

Influence of Home

A recent survey of 100,000 secondary school children indicates that they believe the influence of home and family accounts for 38 per cent of their personalities. The influence of teachers and church tied at 5 per cent.

Largest Typha Burns on Friday

There was not a man, woman or child of school age in Holt who did not feel proud of the largest cattail factory in the world. The main reason for this pride was the fact that this factory was located in our little village. Typha (Cattail) grows wild in large quantities in Northern Minnesota. During World War II Dr. Burgess of Chicago began experimenting with the fluff to see what could be done with it. Due to the fact that cheap fluff which was in great demand for manufacturing purposes was cut off, Dr. Burgess turned this product into the commercial market. The vast amount of cattails in the Mud Lake Wild Life Refuge district led Dr. Burgess to contact Olaf Ness and the two began working with this product. Dr. Burgess passed away during the close of the war. Mr. Olaf Ness and son Orlin purchased the interests of the Burgess Company in the Holt plant. The entire community has been proud of the vigor and effort put forth by these men to make this plant a success in spite of it being uphill at times. In the main Holt plant Mr. Ness and Orlin had machines to process the fluff including the purifier for separating the chaff from the fluff, a batting machine for putting the fluff into bats of any length or weight. There was also storing facilities. Making this story short, it is impossible to express the feeling in the hearts of not only the owners but the citizens who take pride in the development of our community when the fire believed to have started from an overheated motor completely destroyed the main plant on Friday. The Holt and Thief River Falls fire departments exerted all effort to have this plant but it was useless. They however did a good job in saving other Holt buildings, Walt's Cities Service being the nearest and in greatest danger. The plant was covered by an insurance which covers only a small percent of the loss. We feel safe in saying the Mr. Ness and son's loss is very likely $8,000 as in the front part of the building was the office and many new machine parts as they have the agency for many lines of farm machinery parts.

Julius Carl Olson

Julius Carl Olson was born to Mr. and Mrs. Mathias Olson on September 22, 1852 in Clay county. He made his home with his parents on their farm about one mile south of Holt now occupied by John Olson until in 1906 when he homesteaded in Poplar Grove, Roseau County and has lived there since.

He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Emelia Roe of Fergus Falls and Mrs. Emma Hauser of Waubun. Three brothers John Olson of Holt, Otto Olson of Badger and Martin Olson of Crookston. Funeral services were conducted Saturday Oct. 30 in Klondike Lutheran church with Rev. C. L. Kalmoe of Badger officiating. Interment was made in the congregation's cemetery.

The guests included besides the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. C. Wilson and Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Carsten Carlstrom and Lowell, Mr. and Mrs. F. Ecklund also Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Bello and son of Strathcona.

Big Stack of Wood

The average farmer in Georgia uses about 15 cords of wood a year for cooking and heating. There are 225,000 farms in the state. If 200,000 of them use wood, then Georgia farmers burn up about 3,000,000 cords of wood baking biscuits and keeping warm. This is a big stack of wood — a stack of 4-foot wood piled 4 feet high and 4,545 miles long.

Fluoroscopic Examination

To make a fluoroscopic examination, the physician places the patient between the x-ray tube and a fluorescent screen. He then flicks a switch, sending the required amount of radiation through the patient's body. Some x-rays pass right on through and strike the fluorescent screen, creating light rays. Other x-rays are absorbed by the thicker, more opaque parts of the body and do not reach the screen. So what the physician sees is a shadowgraph of the internal organs.

AMERICAN THANKSGIVING
"Season of mists and mellow fruitfulness
Close bosom friend of the maturing sun."
JOHN KEATS
Thanksgiving in America is truly a season of mellow fruitfulness. It's a season set aside by our ancestors, the Pilgrims, to give thanks to God for bountiful harvests.
Here in America we can be thankful, not only for material things, but also for a "Way of living" that is rich and bounteous in freedom. Every day in every year we enjoy personal liberties that only a democracy can grant.
It is only fitting that we set aside one day to give thanks that we are citizens of a prosperous and free America.

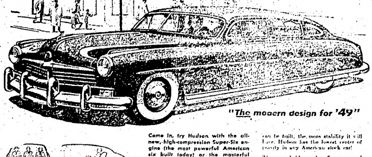
MEET THE
Star Performer for '49!
You're invited to drive the New Hudson—the car that's nimble and rugged beyond anything you've known before!



"The modern design for '49"

HUDSON FLOORS are recessed down within the frame (as shown above), seats are lowered, so you get more than ample head room in this car with the new lower center of gravity.
YOU RIDE DOWN within a base frame (as shown above), and rear seats are positioned ahead of the rear wheels so that full body width becomes available for wonderfully roomy seats. Box-section steel girders completely encircle and protect the passenger compartment.
TRY AUTOMATIC GEAR SHIFTING in forward speeds as provided by Hudson's Drive-Master transmission. Try for the easiest of all ways to drive. You can accelerate as long and as fast as you like in pick-up gear, then lift your toe momentarily, and you're in high. The shift into high occurs only when you are ready! Button control on the instrument panel provides instant change to conventional driving at any moment. Drive-Master transmission is optional on all New Hudsons at small extra cost.
Come in, try Hudson with the all-new, high-compression Super-Six engine (the most powerful American six built today) or the masterful Super-Eight. Both provide wonderfully alert power for a new type of motor car with an exclusive "step-down" design.
Millions say the New Hudson is the reigning beauty in the automobile parade—but you can't really know this great car until you drive it—and you're invited to do just that—now!
Hudson, with the new, 121 h.p. high-compression Super-Six engine or the masterful Super-Eight, takes you away with new zip and outstrips the field with staying power.
But amazingly alive engines aren't the whole story of this star performer for '49. Hudson has a new hug-the-road way of going in cross winds and on every conceivable kind of highway.
This all happens because—as is widely known—the lower to the ground a car can be built, the more stability it will have. Hudson has the lowest center of gravity in any American stock car!
This remarkable car has floors recessed down within a base frame (Hudson is the only car you step down into), enabling Hudson to build the lowest car on the highway, only five feet from ground to top—while maintaining more than adequate head room!
You sense a delightful conformity to the road the minute you begin to ride, and this gives you a grand feeling of safe well-being. This feeling is further enhanced by the ease with which this car is operated, and by the quiet with which Hudson glides along.
Come in, let us show you why Hudson's great engines and fabulous "step-down" design principle put this car so far ahead it is a protected investment in motor car value!
The many important advantages in Hudson's new "step-down" design are explained in a booklet available at the nearest Hudson dealer's.

FEDERAL AIDS IN MINNESOTA HELP BUILD MANY ROADS

Contract Value of Projects Estimated at More Than $10,000,000

Seventy-three Minnesota counties now have a total of 1,616 miles of modern highway improvements and 27 bridges under contract or under construction on county roads which have been incorporated into federal aid security highway system.

The total contract value of these federal aid-county road construction projects exceed $10,218,000, according to an announcement today by the county division of the state highway department, which acts as agent for the counties on projects utilizing federal aid funds. The department established the county division to co-operate with the state's 87 subdivisions in taking advantage of the federal money available to pay up to 50% of the costs of projects approved for the F.A.S. construction program.

Additional county projects now on the approved list for future construction will provide another 420 miles of county highway improvements and 33 more bridges on county roads at an estimated cost of $2,954,000.

The entire county-federal aid secondary program now incorporates projects in all but one county in the state. Begun a little over three years ago when some 10,000 miles of local roads were approved for incorporation along with 3,800 miles of trunk highways in the Federal Aid Secondary system, the county-federal aid program to date involves more than $12,272,000 of matched federal and county funds.

Of this, a total of $2,616,000 worth of work covering 478 miles of road construction and two bridges had been completed by Nov. 1, 1948; $7,652,050 worth including 1158 miles of construction and 25 bridges was under construction; and the estimated $2,954,000 listing of projects covering 420 miles of road improvements and 33 bridges was in the approved list programmed for future lettings.

In addition to the county road projects completed, under construction, or programmed, the department of highways announced late in October the allocation of an additional $4,000,000 of federal aid secondary funds for the fiscal years 1950 and 1951. These additional funds will be available for matching on federal aid contracts after July 1, 1949 and will finance up to 50% of the cost of a further $8,000,000 program of county highway construction.

MAN-TO-MAN TALK . . . "Got a liberty pass, sailor?" And little Richard Davidson, 4, of New York, who can get tough, too, answers "Who wants to know?" He looks skyward toward Shore Patrolman Arthur Davis and glares right back. It was an amusing interlude as thousands of Navy Day visitors trod the historic decks of the battleship Missouri, on which the Japanese surrender was signed.

Baruch Introduced Showers

Dr. Simon Baruch, father of Bernard Baruch, was one of the first advocates of the shower bath, the bathing custom which has revolutionized cleanliness habits and influenced the rise of a whole industry, the manufacture of ceramic tile. At Dr. Baruch's suggestion, the New York juvenile asylum installed one of the first batteries of showers in the United States, during the early 1890's. Soldiers who learned the shower-habit in World War I spread the custom and introduced showers to many of the homes in the 20's. Need for a waterproof material around showers in turn stepped up demand for ceramic tile and a heavy percentage of all tile produced today goes into the American shower bath.

Captain E. J. Barzen attended a CAP meeting in Fargo last week, at which one of the main subjects discussed was the establishment of a nationwide search and rescue set-up. The plan is to lay out areas around each squadron headquarters and call for volunteers from each unit to be available in case a search is necessary. When the set-up is completed, Captain McCoy from Fargo will spend some time with the volunteers in each area to familiarize them with the territory to be covered and also the procedure to follow in covering it.

RITES CONDUCTED FOR MRS. TUNHEIM

Pioneer Newfolden Woman Published Norse Paper

Funeral services for Mrs. Taletta Tunheim, Newfolden pioneer, who died at the age of 85 at her home in Minneapolis, November 8, were held from the Evangelical Mission church at Newfolden, Saturday, Nov. 13. Burial was in the Bjorsness cemetery south of Newfolden.

Rev. Ernest J. Vick of Newfolden conducted the service, assisted by a group of other pastors, including Rev. J. O. Jacobsen and Rev. L. W. Lindblom of this city.

In failing health since she suffered a stroke two years ago, Mrs. Tunheim took a turn for the worse several weeks ago. A heart ailment was the immediate cause of her demise.

Widow of Rev. Samuel Tunheim, who founded Bud og Hilsen, a religious publication circulated among Scandinavians in the United States and Europe more than 50 years ago, Mrs. Tunheim came to the pioneer Newfolden area in the early '80's with her husband. They established a homestead on the farm now owned by a son, Oscar Tunheim, where they remained until 1918 when Mr. Tunheim died.

Mrs. Tunheim moved to Minneapolis with her daughter, Mrs. Mary Lillehei to continue publication of Bud og Hilsen. Mr. and Mrs. Tunheim had many friends in the Thief River Falls area.

Services for Mrs. Tunheim were held at the Swedish Covenant church in Minneapolis before the body was sent to Newfolden.

Always active in church work, Mrs. Tunheim was instrumental in helping to collect funds for many foreign missionaries.

In addition to her daughter, Mary, and son, Oscar, Mrs. Tunheim is survived by three sons, George, of Duluth; Sig, of North Hollywood, Calif.; and Thorval, of Chehalis, Wash.; and three daughters, Mrs. Nels Nelson, of Nelson, B. C., Canada; Mrs. J. M. Johnson, of San Diego, Calif., who was with her when she died; and Mrs. Tillie Flaten, of Los Angeles. A son, Willard, died in 1921.

Mrs. Tunheim was born in Stavanger, Norway July 30, 1863 and lived for a year in Minneapolis after coming with her husband from Norway before moving to Northern Minnesota.

A man, filling out a job application blank, came to the question: "Have you ever been arrested?" His answer was, "No." The next question asked "Why," was meant for those who answered the first part in the affirmative. Nevertheless he answered it with, "Never got caught."

Modesty

Mrs. Smith was vigorously powdering her face before going out.

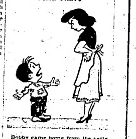
"Why do you go to all that trouble?" asked Smith, who was waiting impatiently.

"Modesty, my dear," was the reply.

"Modesty?"

"Yes—I've no desire to shine in public."

SOME PARTY



Bobby came home from the party with a big hole cut in his clothes.

"What happened to your new suit?" gasped his mother.

"We were playing grocery store," said Bobby. "I was the Swiss cheese."

Physical Education

A young woman home from college was enthusiastic about the benefits of physical culture. She said to her father:

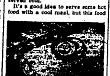
Cook in Cool Morning To Avoid Sweltering Over Stove at Dinner

ARE YOU the homemaker who's sweltering over a hot stove preparing the evening meal, somewhat on the grumpy side, short with the family and generally discontented? Or are you the cool and neat homemaker who simply opens her refrigerator door and swishes food on the table with neat flourishes?

If you aren't the latter, then do something about it now. Plan several menus for each week that have most of the food prepared early in in morning so they may be served chilled for dinner.

Some women always will object to this plan because, they say, the food is so light that husbands are not fully satisfied. The dishes I'm giving you today are on the hearty side even though they are served cold.

It's a good idea to serve some hot food with a cool meal, but this food may take the form of things that really cook within a short time.



Egg and cheese loaf is an ideal supper dish because it has a high protein content. It can be made on the cool morning of a hot day and served for supper because of its welcome coolness.

Good hot foods to serve are vegetables, soups, biscuits or fruit or berry cobblers or other puddings.

* * *

IF YOU LIKE good solid meat on the table, as most men do, it can be served cold with just as much relish as a sizzling roast. Why not try one of these?

Swiss Salad
(Serves 4)

- 2 cups cubed cold lamb or pork roast
- 1 cup cooked peas
- ½ cup walnut meats, broken
- 2 hard-cooked eggs
- 6 stuffed olives
- Lettuce
- French dressing
- Mayonnaise
- Paprika

Marinate meat and peas in French dressing and chill. Add nuts and arrange on lettuce leaves. Sprinkle with paprika and dot with mayonnaise. Cut eggs into slices and remove yolks. Arrange the white rings around the salad. Cut olives into rings and place one inside each egg white. Press egg yolks through a sieve and sprinkle over salad.

Beef-Cheese Plate.
(Serves 6)

- 6 slices cold roast beef or corned beef
- 6 slices Swiss cheese
- 6 deviled eggs
- 6 tomatoes
- 1 cup cole slaw
- Green and ripe olives
- Potato chips

Place tomatoes stuffed with cole slaw in center of platter. Bank with green and ripe olives. Alternate slices of cold meat with cheese and place around platter. Garnish with potato chips.

Egg and Cheese Salad Loaf.
(Serves 6 to 8)

- 2 tablespoons gelatin
- ½ cup cold water
- 1½ cups real mayonnaise
- 8 hard-cooked eggs
- 4 cups grated Cheddar cheese
- 1 cup chopped celery
- 1½ teaspoons salt
- 4 tablespoons chopped green pepper
- 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- Radish roses
- Carrot curls

LYNN SAYS:
Unusual Food Tricks Tempt Appetites

When you make a chocolate cake, add a sprinkling of spices to the batter and then frost the cake with lemon-flavored powdered sugar icing. This gives an old favorite good variety.

If you're making a molded chicken salad, line the mold first with overlapping slices of cooked tongue if you want a pretty-as-a-picture platter.

Brownies

- ½ cup flour
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ¼ cup lard
- ½ cup chopped nuts
- 2 squares chocolate
- 2 eggs
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Sift flour, then measure. Add salt and sift again. Melt lard with chocolate in saucepan. Beat the eggs until fluffy, then add sugar and beat again. Mix eggs and sugar with chocolate and lard. Add flour, nuts and vanilla. Bake in a shallow pan which is greased, in a moderate (350 degree) oven for 25 to 30 minutes. Cool. Cut into squares.

Drop Cookies

- 1 cup brown sugar
- ½ cup white sugar
- ½ cup lard, melted
- 1 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- ½ teaspoon cloves
- 1 teaspoon soda in 1 tablespoon hot water
- ½ cup raisins
- ½ cup nuts
- 3 cups flour or enough to hold shape when dropped

Combine ingredients in order given. Drop by teaspoonfuls on greased baking sheet. Bake in a moderate (350 degree) oven for 10 to 15 minutes.

Most dishes are easy to wash after they have been soaked. Have a pan of suds ready so that dishes, cups, measuring spoons and other utensils can be placed in the water to soak as soon as you finish using them.

Paper toweling should be used to wipe greasy pots and pans before washing so that grease does not accumulate in the drain pipe.

Never let silverware with egg on it stand without rinsing. Egg tarnishes silverware.

Good Wool Producers

Wyoming sheep producers carrying on flock improvement work use rams which produce about 4.8 pounds more greasy wool than ewes in the same flock, according to University of Wyoming wool department. Rams in these flocks produced from 1¼ to 7 pounds more greasy wool per fleece than mature ewes, with an average difference of about 4.8 pounds.

Honey In Freezing of Fruit

Honey is especially well suited for use in the freezing of fruit. Honey not only helps preserve fruit but gives additional food value. Select a mild flavored honey which will enhance the flavor of the fruit. The flavor depends upon the kind of flowers from which the bees gather nectar. Honey producers frequently mix several honeys by heating moderately and stirring to produce a blend with a flavor which is most satisfactory. On sliced or crushed fruit use one part of honey to four or five parts of the fruit. On whole fruit add one cup of water to each two cups of extracted honey and then use just enough of this diluted honey to cover the fruit.

Termites and Pecans

Termites usually live in dead wood and most people associate them with wood destruction. However, pecan nursery stock and small trees sometimes are killed by the feeding of termites in the roots. The tree may have its taproot or its branches tunneled until only a shell or the bark remains.

Re-use Tin Cans

Tin cans may be salvaged and used twice or oftener, cutting down one of the worst of this country's metal wastes, under a patent issued recently. After the can has been used, it is cleaned thoroughly, lid seams are cut off and the can is subjected to drawing, which stretches the wall to its original height. It then is ready to be refilled and have a new lid rolled on.

1,960 Drivers Lose Permits in October; 357 Drunk Drivers

Both revocations and suspensions of drivers licenses for various traffic law offenses mounted in October, the highway department announced today, with 77 more revocations and 411 more suspensions imposed by the courts than during October of 1947.

Drivers licenses revoked numbered 411 as compared with 334 for the same month a year ago, bringing this year's ten-month total of 3,779 revocations as compared with 3,739 during the same period last year. October suspensions numbered 1,550 as compared with 1,109 a year ago and brought the ten-month tally to 13,460 suspensions as compared with 1,109 for corresponding period of 1947.

Drunken driving accounted for 357 of the drivers licenses revoked and 16 motorists turned in their permits upon being committed as inebriates. Fifty-seven drivers were convicted on the second charge of drunken driving during the month. Speeding accounted for 16 revocations, hit and run driving for 9 and careless driving for 7.

Of last months suspensions 241 were for speeding, 74 for careless driving, 31 for failing to have a drivers license in possession, 16 for ignoring stop signs and signals, 13 for driving with defective equipment and 13 for driving away after an accident. Failure to take a driving test when required accounted for 403 suspensions and 478 licenses were suspended pending compliance with the Safety Responsibility Act.

Early American Culture Revealed in Urn Burials

New archeological finds, throwing fresh light on the culture of aboriginal America, have been announced.

The discoveries were made by the National Geographic society-Smithsonian Institution archeological expedition, operating in the republic of Panama near Parita, about 160 miles southwest of the Canal zone.

The explorations have uncovered two notable "firsts". Its scientists have found the first urn burials ever to be unearthed between Ecuador and the southeastern United States. They also have discovered the first group of man-made mounds to be located in Panama.

Most of the objects found to date are believed to belong to the two centuries preceding the Spanish conquest of this area. Deep tombs of the immediate preconquest period have yielded a large amount of pottery. The decorative colors are red, black, white and purple. Some of the designs are purely geometric, while others represent mythical animal forms.

The expedition also found a number of exquisitely carved batons made from the ribs of the manatee, the sea cow of tropical Americas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brekke celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Sunday Nov. 7 at the Land church. The church was decorated with baskets of evergreen boughs and bittersweet.

Seated besides the honored couple were Mr. and Mrs. Tov. Rouland. Mrs. Rouland, sister of the groom served as bridesmaid, when they were married fifty years ago. Also present for the occasion were their nine children and families, namely Mr. and Mrs. Manford Marklund, Mr. Olaf Brekke, Mrs. George Beck Jr. all of Detroit, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bergh and sons of Hallock, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Elleson and family of Clearbrook, Joe Brekke, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Brekke and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brekke and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brekke and son all of Gully.

The program opened with a prayer by Rev. Arneson, who also read letters of greetings from two former pastors, Rev. V. O. Aaker, and Rev. Stenseaard.

Following songs and poems the program closed with the audience singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

A reception for about a hundred and fifty relatives and friends was held in the church parlors. Gold and white colors were used in decorating the tables. A beautiful white and gold wedding cake was the center piece on the bridal table.

Relatives and friends from a distance were Mrs. Joe Diehl and [illegible] Rouland of Rockford, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Herb Turnell and sons of Appleton, Wisc., Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rouland and daughter of Ulen, Mr. and Mrs. Aslek Rouland, Mr. and Mrs. James Rouland, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wahlien and family, Gertie and Joe Rouland, Mr. and Mrs. Tom [illegible] Hallock, Minn., Mr. and Mrs. Telef Hovet, Mr. and Mrs. George Hovet of Goodridge, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rouland of Oklee.

GROWING WITH YOUR CHILD

Institute of Child Welfare, University of Minnesota

Beware "Carbon Copy" Complex

Perhaps you have a couple of little, blue-eyed daughters, just a year apart in age. Or two husky boys, one in sixth grade and one in fourth. And you dress the girls in identical pinafores for school, while the sons share the same room, the same toys, and go to the same summer camp each year.

Then, too, the neighbors comment 'Almost like twins!" and 'Aren't Bobby and Billy the manly little pair?" And you, of course, want to keep these brothers or sisters as close and as genuinely affectionate as possible.

Recently, however, you've noticed in these two-peas-in-a-pod daughters that Ann dominates every situation where she and younger Suzy are concerned. And Suzzy just sits—and is bossed.

Just down the block, however, there's no such problem of bossiness or submission. Billy just worships his older brother, Bobby. He's going to take clarinet lessons next fall because Bobby has done so well with his music this year. And the brothers also have identical Eton jackets and duplicate chemistry sets.

Now both sets of parents involved here face problems, whether or not they realize it. With Suzy, because she's lost the spunk of individuality and submits to bossing—because it's easier. With the two boys, because they risk growing to adolescence as "carbon copies" of one another.

These parents, guided by a "family unity" sentimentality, stress brother and sister relations, over individualism. But children are different. Each is a character, a group of interests and abilities in himself — not necessarily like his brother at all. Help to cultivate, therefore, whatever originality or talents your children have. Dont make them "carbon copies" of other brothers and sisters. For that individuality is their right; and your responsibility.

Extraction of Oil

Research has made vast strides not only in the art of finding oil, but also in the extraction of oil already found. A few decades ago it was not unusual to recover only about 20 per cent of the oil in a new field. Today as high as 80 per cent is recovered and "supposedly" worked-out fields are again in production.

THREE RAIL UNIONS GET PAY BOOST OF TEN CENTS AN HOUR

Chicago Settlement Involves Engineers, Firemen, Switchmen

Three railroad unions whose strike threat last May was blocked by a last-minute federal court injunction reached a wage settlement with the railroads Friday in Chicago.

They accepted a 10 cents hourly wage boost, retroactive to Oct. 16.

The settlement, covering 250,000 engineers, firemen and switchmen, completed the third round wage increases for five unions whose 350,000 members operate the nation's trains.

D. P. Loomis, chairman of the western railroads wage committee, estimated the settlement would add $40,000,000 a year to railroad operating costs. A similar 10 cents hourly settlement reached Oct. 4 with the conductors and trainmen will add another $55,665,000 to costs, he added.

Still unsettled, however, are the wage and working conditions demands of some 1,000,000 members of 16 non-operating unions whose members are telegraphers, yardmen and others not actually engaged in operating the trains. A presidential fact-finding board is hearing this dispute.

The settlement was announced by a spokesman for the unions and confirmed by a spokesman for the carriers.

The three unions are the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen and the Switchmen's Union of North America.

In negotiations with the carriers they had demanded a raise of 18 per cent. This represented the difference between a 15½ cents an hour wage increase the three unions accepted recently and their original demand for 30 per cent.

Plastics for Walls

Plastic wall coverings, pliable enough to bend around corners, now are available for household use. They are especially adapted for rooms where a durable, waterproof covering is desired, such as nurseries, bathrooms, kitchens and playrooms.

Largest Flower Known

The largest flower known, the Rafflesia Arnoldi, is produced in Malaya. According to Encyclopaedia Britannica, this flower measures 18 inches across and weighs 15 pounds; and has an odor like decaying flesh. The flower is the only part of the plant visible above ground.

First Lincoln Road

The swamp trail that was the forerunner of Lincoln road, one of America's most beautiful shopping streets, was blazed across Miami Beach in 1903 by woodsmen who were gathering mangrove bark for tannic acid. The thoroughfare in its modern form was created by the late Carl G. Fisher, pioneer developer of the resort city.

Uses for Sesame

Although sesame is a relatively minor crop, the seeds and oil have a variety of uses. In many parts of the world the seed is well known as an adornment on rolls and bread. It also is used in candy and soft drinks, as well as the oil being utilized in salad and cooking oils. Sesame also is used to some extent in margarine, shortenings, soaps and olive oil.

SAFETY LAW CASES SHOW EXPENSE OF TRAFFIC MISHAPS

More Than 200,000 Drivers Involved in Accidents in 2 Years

A solemn picture of the seriousness of Minnesota's traffic accident problem—in its drain on the motorist's pocketbook as well as its toll of life and limb—is reflected in a state highway department report this week covering operations of the states safety responsibility act over the past two fiscal years.

During these two years the safety responsibility section of the highway department processed accidents involving 200,021 drivers and owners of motor vehicles. Of this number 138,538, (over 69%) were involved in accidents resulting either in personal injuries or property damage ranging from $50 upward. All of these therefore became subject to the requirements of the safety responsibility act, which means that if not adequately covered by insurance, each of them had to settle the claims against them and get releases from all persons damaged or injured, or deposit security covering the evaluated damages up to maximum of $11,000, or forfeit the right to drive until these provisions of law had been complied with.

The records of the department show that 123,413 of the persons involved, or 89%, filed proof of adequate insurance protection. On the other hand, 12,100 drivers licenses were suspended because of failure to comply with the law. Of these, 8247 drivers later met the requirements of the act and got their licenses reinstated.

The safety responsibility section of the highway department was required to evaluate the damages in 27,932 traffic accident cases where there was no insurance or where the damages had not been paid. The damages in these cases alone, including property damage and personal injuries, totaled $11,175,182.

This meant that these drivers paid an average of $410 a piece as the price of traffic carelessness.

The safety responsibility act, enacted by the 1945 Legislature, has been in effect since July 1 of that year.

Potato Insect Control

Control of Colorado potato beetles, flea beetles, potato leafhoppers, blister beetles, psyllids, and many other potato insects is possible with a three percent DDT dust in a sulphur or pyrophyllite base or with a 50 per cent wettable DDT powder. The treatment should be applied when the insects appear and at two-week intervals thereafter if the infestations persist. Three or four applications may be needed to get complete control of the insects. Extension Entomologist Jack Lomax suggests applying the DDT dust (three per cent strength) at the rate of 25 to 35 pounds per acre of potatoes. Two pounds of fifty per cent wettable DDT powder in 100 gallons of water will do the same job for an acre.

STATE TO CHOOSE CENTENNIAL QUEEN

Carnival in St. Paul To Be Named at Winter

A Minnesota Territorial Centennial Queen, who will reign over all 1949 centennial events, will be chosen at the St. Paul Winter Carnival, Feb. 11 thru 20, under the sponsorship of the carnival and the centennial organization.

Winners of 38 district contests held in all parts of the state including Thief River Falls, will compete for the honor of being chosen queen at the St. Paul Auditorium, Sunday afternoon, Feb. 13, in one of the most colorful events of the carnival.

Seven centennial princesses from the seven congressional districts outside of the twin cities also will be chosen to serve as ladies-in-waiting to the queen.

Every town and city in each district is to be invited by its district sponsor to take part, and select a finalist, or finalists, for the district contest. Girls must be at least seventeen years old, and single, to be eligible to compete.

"More than 250 towns and cities throughout the state are expected to participate in the statewide contest, said Ray P. Speer, in charge of the carnival organizational work.

The 38 district candidates will be guests of the carnival during the first six days, Feb. 11-16, and will be entertained at carnival expense during their stay.

Towns desiring to take part may obtain information by addressing St. Paul Winter Carnival, 80 East 5th St., St. Paul, Minn.

Mud Made to Order

It may seem strange to pump mud into a hole being made in the earth, but that is what drillers do when sinking an oil well. However, it is not the mud pie variety but a scientifically treated mud, made to order by the mud engineer.

SCHOOL BOARD PROCEEDINGS

Regular Meeting
September 13, 1948

The regular meeting of the school board of Independent School District No. 18 of Pennington County, Minnesota, was held in the office of the Lincoln High School on September 13, 1948, and was called to order by President Jacobson at 8 o'clock. Members present were: Jacobson, Williamson, Oen, Wold, Bennes, Ahre, and Superintendent Clafly. Absent: None.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved with the following correction: The phrase "Clerk's bond" was amended to read "Treasurer's bond."

A delegation representing three churches in the city was present requesting the use of the high school auditorium for a series of "Youth Rallies" to be held the first Saturday of each month during the coming school year. After due consideration, Bennes moved that we comply with the established policy of limiting the use of the high school auditorium to educational functions, thereby making it impossible for us to grant the request. Oen seconded. Carried.

The subject of the proposed 1948-1949 budget was brought up and discussed at length. President Jacobson suggested that the finance committee prepare a report on the budget and report back at a special meeting before October 1.

Superintendent Clafly reported on the opening day enrollment.

It was moved by Ahre, seconded by Wold, and carried that the following bills be paid:

Soviet Citrus Crop

The 1947 crop of oranges, lemons and tangerines ranks as the biggest ever raised in the Soviet Union. The prospects for 1948 promise further increases. This is due to the maturing of millions of trees as well as the favorable weather and the work of citrus growers in 1947.

WHITE ELEPHANT

"I've made a sad discovery, darling," said the young husband.

"Don't tell me we can't have three weeks for our vacation," cried the little lady of the house.

"It isn't that" sighed the man. "But you know we bought that wonderful trailer, spent all our savings on it, too."

"So we haven't money enough left for gas?" asked the wife.

Important Consideration

Donald and Mary decided to adopt a child, and asked at the orphanage for a little girl. One was produced, and Mary was about to close the bargain when Donald tapped her shoulder.

"Mary," he whispered, "let's have a boy. Hae ye forgotten the lad's cap we found in the train?"

AMAZING SPECTACLE

Two tramps sat beneath a water tank in the damp shade. The old hobo asked, "Going east son?"

"Yes," replied the younger.

"Don't do it," the old one cautioned.

"Why not?"

"Twon't do any good for me to tell you why not. Just take the advice of an older man and don't do it. You wouldn't believe me if I told you. Even when you see it you won't believe it."

"Won't believe what?" asked the mystified young tramp.

Home Dressmakers Urged To Avoid Homemade Touch

Any homemaker who sews wants her garments to have a professional look. Yet, many garments made at home have the homemade touch, a term that clothing manufacturers use to describe incorrectly-made clothing.

A few simple tricks used in making a garment at home will result in a professional looking dress or suit, according to Miss Mabel McDowell, extension clothing specialist of the Pennsylvania State college.

She points out that one of the common errors in dressmaking is cutting the cloth so that the grain does not fall perpendicular to the floor. This usually happens when a homemaker has cut the material on round or narrow surfaces where the fabric will not lie flat. Moving the pattern off the grain in order to save material is another cause for this.

Stretching the fabric while making a garment can make the difference between the professional and the homemade touch, too. Professional clothing makers use machine-stitched staylines. Staylines are reinforced lines around all necklines, armseyes, shoulders, waistlines, and plackets. Staylines, sewed before putting the garment together, are placed just inside the seam line, between the seam line and edge of material, and are always stitched with the grain of the material.

Windbreaks

An average farmstead windbreak costs only $2 to $3 for trees, plus three days' work, and occupies less than 1 per cent of the land of the average farm.

Railroads Use Water

Soil Tests Pay Dividends Illinois Agronomists Say

Illinois farmers could have been five million dollars richer in 1947 if they had tested their soil instead of guessing how much fertilizer to spread on their croplands.

Two University of Illinois agronomists report that four million dollars were saved by the state's farmers who tested their soil last year before applying fertilizer. But farmers who guessed at the amount of fertilizer needed for their soils spent five million dollars for limestone and other fertilizing materials that their soils didn't need.

Soil tests can tell what and where fertilizing materials are needed on the farm, how much is needed and how much increase in crop yields will be obtained from a good fertility program, according to Roger H. Bray and A. U. Thor, college of agriculture soil testing specialists.

Fertilizing materials are short and foodstuffs are scarce all over the world, and only by testing the soil can limited amounts of fertilizing materials be used with maximum efficiency for vital food production, the agronomists stressed. Soil testing not only saves the farmer $50 for every dollar spent on testing, but increases food production by using every ton of fertilizing material where it will do the most good.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

It's Your Fight, Too!

Bing Crowley was "beefing" the other day about all that Our Town's doing in the way of sending food and clothes to Europe. Bing felt that those struggling democracies should look after themselves.

But most agreed with Judge Cunningham who said: "So long as any family or individual in Europe is helping hold the line for freedom—against the forces of intolerance—it's common sense, and common decency, to help 'em."

Because that's everybody's fight: To see that individual freedom is preserved in every aspect, big or little—whether it's the right to vote, or the right to enjoy a temperate glass of beer or ale with friends.

And from where I sit, no liberty's too small to overlook. Because the minute one small freedom is threatened, all the others are in jeopardy—just as the minute one small country loses freedom, all its neighbors are in danger!

PONTIAC

A Product of General Motors

Above everything else..a good car!

Pontiac has one manufacturing principle which takes precedence over all others:

Pontiac must always be a good car!

There is no other motor car quality which people value so much as goodness. That's why Pontiac engineers and production specialists spend so much time and energy and money to insure Pontiac quality. Pontiac cars must last long—and they must last well—and they must function through the years with a minimum of upkeep cost.

Owners have been quick to appreciate this. Some of the testimonials they send to the factory, and to Pontiac dealers, tell of performance feats that seem almost impossible of attainment.

Pontiac has many other outstanding virtues, of course. It is a wonderful performer. It is delightfully comfortable and easy to handle. It is a great beauty, and unusually distinctive in appearance.

But its greatest virtue is goodness. Year after year, you just can't beat it for faithful performance.

PLANS MADE FOR LIVESTOCK EVENT AT WINTER SHOWS

Officers of Association Meet at Crookston to Arrange for 1949 Show

The annual fall meeting of the officers and directors of the Red River Valley Livestock association was held at Crookston on November 11. Final plans were made for the staging of the livestock section of the Red River Valley Winter Shows at Crookston, February 21-25, 1949. Advance reports indicate a record show with many new livestock breeders exhibiting for the first time.

The junior and senior heifer calf futurity for members of 4-H clubs, F.F.A. clubs, and Northwest School students will be an outstanding feature of the livestock show. Liberal cash premiums have been set up by the Valley Lovestock association for the blue, red, and white ribbon awards. An additional sum of $200 has been appropriated by the Red River Valley Dairymens association for premium awards for ribbon winners in the dairy calf classes.

The Aberdeen Angus breeders of the Red River Valley have donated $50 to be added to the premium awards of junior heifer calves in that breed. The judging of the expected fifty heifer calves will be a feature of the Tuesday afternoon program at the Winter Shows on February 22. Wm. Strickler of Euclid, Aberdeen Angus breeder, has been appointed as chairman of the junior heifer futurity committee of the livestock association to succeed Glen J. Johnson of St. Paul, former district 4-H club agent. O. T. Magnuson of St. Paul, state 4-H club agent, was appointed as a new member of the futurity committee.

John Gunderson Dies at Home Near Goodridge; Funeral Rites Today

Funeral rites will be conducted at St. Petri Lutheran church at Grygla this afternoon at 2 p. m. for John Gunderson, 73, who was summoned at his home near Goodridge on Sunday evening. Rev. G. L. Halmrast will officiate and interment will be made in the church cemetery.

Mr. Gunderson was born April 2, 1875 in Salbo, Norway, and came to Norman County, Minn. in 1886, where he worked as a farm hand. He was united in marriage to Miss Kari Bjorken at Fargo, N. Dak. on Oct. 26, 1897. They later farmed in Norman and Mahnomen counties. In 1912 he moved to Marshall county and homsteaded in Moylan township.

He was a member of St. Petri church and school board, district No. 135. Mr. and Mrs. Gunderson celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary last fall.

Besides his wife Kari Gunderson, he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Anton Gunderson of Brinsmade, N. Dak., Mrs. Elmer Crane of Detroit Lakes and Mrs. Gena Gopin of Minneapolis; two sons, Gilbert and Johnny of Goodridge; nine grandchildren; two sisters, Lena and Kari in Norway; three brothers, Hans and Anton of Harlow, N. Dak., and Ole of Spokane, Wash. He was preceded in death by his parents, a sister, a brother, and two daughters.

Petroleum and Plastics

Raincoats, handbags, tobacco pouches and hundreds of everyday products are made of vinyl plastics, materials which are naturally hard and horny and which would be of limited usefulness if they were not rendered pliable by softening agents made from petroleum.

INHERITANCE . . . Pasquale (Pat) Iaressi of Camden, N. J., grins lavishly about the "$200,000" soaped on the mirror of his barber shop. He helped a down-and-out stranger 44 years ago, and when the man died last month he left the bulk of his estate to Pat.

Looking Backward

1928—TWENTY YEARS AGO

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Elgsten, residents of Rocksbury township since 1882, observed their golden wedding anniversary. — Supt. Morris Bye was elected vice president of the Minneapolis Education association at its annual convention in Minneapolis. —Pennington county voters cast a total of 4,291 votes in the presidential election this month.— E. M. Bennes attended Dads Day festivities at the University of Minnesota Saturday.

1938—TEN YEARS AGO

The local board of education sold a $185,000 bond issue on the basis of a net interest rate of 2.92 per cent.—S. M. Poston, local resident 32 years, died at his home at the age of 84.— Miss Thora Skomedal of Excel township was elected Marshall county superintendent of schools defeating Nels M. Engin. — Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Gullingsrud, residents of this community the past 45 years, observed their golden wedding anniversary.— Eight inches of snow fell here over the past week-end.

NAMES CAN BE VERY SIGNIFICANT

The Minneapolis Bird club enjoyed an illustrated lecture on wildlife by Mr. and Mrs. Dick Bird of Canada. In remodeling the home of the Sleepy Eye Herald-Dispatch for the first time in 69 years, it was brought out that Sleepy Eye once had a newspaper called the Wide-Awake, edited by A. E. Rising.

The Courting Mirror

In colonial days a small hand mirror was used by bashful swains to help them propose. The young man would place the mirror face up on a table before the girl of his choice. The young lady would answer yes by smiling at his image in the mirror. If the answer were "no," she would turn the mirror.

Real Pure Race

The one human group which can be considered a "pure" race is probably the Andamanese, who inhabit the Andaman islands off the coast of Burma. These people have been isolated for a long period and until recently were not in contact with any other race.

Add Horrors of Living in a Conquered County — A U. S. agency is shipping comic books to Germany.

A cynic tells us that the two stones most commonly associated with marriage are the diamond and the grindstone.

Remarkable fact — The management of the local theatres didnt receive any requests from local Republicans for use of their crying room facilities following the November 2 debacle.

And did you remember to get those 1949 license plates before the November 15 deadline?

Says Groucho Marx, "It looks as tho the only way a Republican will ever get into the White House is if he marries Margaret."

Thief River Falls sponsors of the excellent Kryl orchestra may take comfort in learning that this wasn't the only town that didnt properly support the concert. Detroit Lakes Jaycees dropped more than $500.

Farm Fire Protection

Department of agriculture estimates that the damage caused by gasoline and kerosene fires costs American farmers approximately six million dollars annually. Incorrect storage of these liquids is responsible for the loss. Underground tanks provide the best protection for large amounts of flammable liquids, while galvanized steel gas or oil cans are best for small amounts.

Limit Building Heights

By a law of 1910, congress set an extreme maximum height of 160 feet for any building in the District of Columbia, and this maximum applies only on Pennsylvania avenue, between 1st and 15th street; otherwise the limit is 130 feet.

Model of Moon

Although acquired as far back as 1898, the Chicago Natural History museum's model of the visible hemisphere of the moon, 19 feet in diameter, is believed to be, by far, the largest and most elaborate representation of the moon's surface ever made.

War Dehydrated Foods

The U. S. sent approximately nine million pounds of dehydrated foods to its forces in France. Of this quantity more than two thirds was potatoes.

MARSHALL MAN KILLED SUNDAY WHILE HUNTING

Alvin I. South, Living North of Goodridge, Is Shot by Companion, 18

For the first time in several years a pall was cast over deer hunting activities in this area when Alvin I. South, 28, farmer in Moylan township, Marshall county, was instantly killed Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock when accidentally shot thru the chest by an 18-year-old hunting companion.

Dr. M. J. Bechtel, Marshall county coroner, who investigated the circumstances, said South was hunting with three others of a group of ten men. A deer loomed up and South, in the line of fire, was shot by his mate. Dr. Bechtel indicated that no inquest would be summoned, as there were no conflicting stories.

Alvin I. South was born in Zeeland, Michigan, October 24, 1920, and moved with his parents in 1930 to Moylan township, where he had resided since. He was married in Thief River Falls September 16, 1947, to Miss Carol Jones, who survives his death.

Other survivors include his mother, Mrs. Anna South, of Oklee; two sisters, Mrs. Jeanette Geving of Oklee and Mrs. Anna Tinner of Zeeland, Michigan; and four brothers, Harold and Russell South of Goodridge, Lawrence, of Muskegon, Michigan, and Clarence of Zeeland. Contributions to the Pennington County Community Fund campaign up to Wednesday noon had aggregated approximately $9,000, it was announced today. This total includes donations to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and for the American Red Cross, which contributions are being kept separate from the money received for the Community Fund. COMPLETE ORGAN WORK AT TRINITY

Church Will Dedicate Grilles Sunday Morning

With the completion early this week of the installation of the organ grilles for the tone openings at Trinity church, the morning service at 10:30 a. m. next Sunday will include the dedication of these additions to the appearance of the church.

Fabricated by the Moller Organ Company, from whom the church in 1947 purchased a three-manual organ costing $15,000, the grilles provide an ornamental frame of dark oak for the three tone openings of the divided organ. Five purely ornamental pipes on the two larger grilles establish the external connection between the eye and the organ chambers. Adopted as a project by the Lutheran Brotherhood organization, funds have also been contributed by individuals to make this installation possible.

With the beginning of the new church year on Advent Sunday, this service will also include a sermon directed toward an understanding of the stewardship of members in relation to synodical benevolences.

This City Escapes Power Shutdown as Huge Diesel Fails

This community last week-end skated on the thin ice of an imminent electric power shortage when the 1,750 horsepower Busch-Sulzer Diesel unit in the municipal power plant went out of commission late Saturday night due to a broken wristpin housing.

A replacement part was located at Clear Lake, Minnesota, and was brought to this city Monday morning, enabling the unit to be restored to service Monday night, Supt. Ole Legvold announced.

In the meantime the load was carried by the smaller Diesel units and the two water turbines. Appeals were broadcast over Station KTRF Sunday requesting users of electric current to be as sparing as possible in the use of electricity.

The local power plant will have a much bigger margin of safety after next week, when it is hoped to put into operation the new 2,700 horsepower Nordberg unit, installation of which is now nearing completion.

Art Hirst and Wm. Bradley Corn Wins in Gustafson Show

That hybrid corn varieties predominate in this Northern area was plainly revealed at the corn exhibit sponsored by C. Gustafson & Son last Friday evening, when 43 of the 48 entries were of hybrid varieties.

Art Hirst of Route 5, Thief River Falls, won the grand championship in the hybrid division with his entry of Agsco 301, while in the open pollinated class William Bradley of Route 1, city, won a similar award with his entry of Minnesota 13.

The entries were divided into blue, red and white ribbon winners, with cash awards respectively of $5, $3 and $2. The grand champion winners each received a $10 award.

Featuring the program in connection with the exhibit, which was attended by 120 persons, were talks by Dr. O. C. Soine and T. M. McCall, both of Northwest School and Station, Crookston; and Clarence Sande of the Agricultural Supply company at Grand Forks, who also showed slides dealing with hybrid corn production.

Dr. Soine commented favorably on the quality of the exhibits, while Mr. McCall discussed means of making the farmer's situation more secure in these unsettled times. He said the farm production program at present is out of balance, with too much emphasis on grain at the expense of livestock. He also urged the carrying out of proper soil conservation practices and the seeding of more grass crops.

Included in the blue ribbon winners in the various divisions of the corn show were C. H. Beiswenger, Frank Bothman, Hazel; Maynard Mehrkens, Emil Pearson, Red Lake Falls; M. J. Augustin, Lester Chapman, Ray A. Rausch and George Hesse, Red Lake Falls.

W. C. T. U. News Notes

Our local W. C. T. U. met Friday afternoon at the Fred Lorentson home. Mrs. W. P. Wilson, president, opened the meeting. We were led in devotions by Mrs. Verna McMahon who read from Psalm 23.

Mrs. Wilson reported on the Washington letter from the Union Signal of Oct. 9 and closed with a poem from the devotional page of that issue.

Mrs. Westacott gave a report from several Union Signals on the subject of Peace. We firmly believe that disagreements between nations do not have to be settled by war. Peace is woman's unfinished business. War is caused by hate and fear.

Miss Cook reported briefly on her work and suggested we contact Mrs. Ulvan, a WCTU member who just moved here from Roseau. Miss Cook then presented Mrs. Oie with a gift for having the largest complete family in the district enrolled in the W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Ripley suggested we continue collecting and making clothing and sending boxes to unfortunates as we did last year under Mrs. Lanska's leadership. We packed and sent the most boxes of any organization in this district. Baby layettes are especially needed. Postage on foreign packages is much less now. Leave your contributions with Mrs. Ripley or Mrs. Lanska.

Hostesses were Mrs. Vielguth, Mrs. Gilbertson and Mrs. Lorentson.

DOCTOR DOUBLES IN DYNAMICS

Rochester—A 12 ton toy is news. From his earliest recollection Cleon E. Holland wanted a steam engine—until recently, in vain. Now, as a successful local medical practitioner, Dr. Holland is in happy realization of his boyhood ambition. Handy in his back yard is a 1914 steam threshing engine nine feet high, eight feet wide, 25 feet long. It represents a current investment of $90 as against an original cost of some $5,000. On the 16-hour 30-mile trip to its new quarters the fiery behemoth consumed 1,200 pounds of coal and seven truck tanks of water.

EVERGREEN FARM IN FAMILY 90 YEARS

Austin—Like most cities, this one grows by absorbing adjacent farms. Latest to succumb to platters and street names is the Evergreen Farm of 622 acres, separated from the south city limits by Ellis Avenue. A. V. Ellis came from New York state in 1857 and moved onto the farm with his bride the next year. It has been in the family ever since until the recent sale to city realtors. James J. Hill did agricultural experiment work there, and it was the proud home of Mower county's first registered Holstein and first alfalfa.

STAY YOUNG

Dancing Is His Secret

KANSAS CITY, KAS.—In this town there is a pioneer citizen who has discovered the secret of youth.

"All you have to do," he says, "is put on your dancing shoes and get out among 'em."

He's Frank O. Taylor, a retired truck gardener, whose full-time hobby and recreation is dancing. At 89, he spends a minimum of 10 hours a week on the dance floor, and for as long as anybody can remember he's been the dancingest man in there parts.

As a result, he says, "I'm as healthy as a kid of 16." Today, he has a twinkle in his eye and a zip in his step and has never been to a doctor in his life.

Taylor gets out among 'em at least four nights a week. He's a permanent guest at most of the regular "gay nineties" shindigs and a perennial winner of old-fashioned dancing contests.

Learns Latest Steps

But he won't be classified as a yesterday's hoofer. He studies the latest steps, learns them quickly. He thinks swing music "has a good, solid beat," and says if we'd had jitterbugging in 1890 everybody would have loved it.

"That's the kind of dancing that puts you in shape," he says. "You have to have bells on your feet and oil in your joints and keep stompin' all night long to really get anywhere."

He finds two things wrong with modern dancing—musicians "who play more intermissions than music" and the tendency of young men to dance only with their own girls.

He preferred the days when a fiddle, guitar and piano pounded out the rhythm from suppertime 'til dawn and every young man made it a point to dance with every girl in the hall.

His advice to husbands is along the same line: "Take your wife out any time she asks, but do most of your dancing with somebody else's wife." That's the way they did it in his day.

Former Homesteader

Taylor arrived in this city from a homesteading venture in the west during the gay nineties, but they weren't quite gay enough for him. So he built a house that had a big parlor with a polished hardwood floor and began to invite residents out for square dances after the midnight curfew closed the halls in the city.

"We'd push back the furniture and roll back the rugs and have sets of squares just a-flyin' all night long," he remembers.

After the death of his wife in 1930, Frank stopped dancing for about a year. Then he got back into the swing more than ever. "I've been busy ever since," he says, "and I've never been happier than I am right today."

He works in a small garden in the mornings, then spends most of the late afternoon getting ready for that night's party. When most men his age are taking their last snooze in the sun before dinner, Frank's already on the phone lining up a dancing date with some slick chick of 65.

U. S. Flattop Twists Its Way Safely Through Suez Canal

SUEZ.—The American aircraft carrier Valley Forge—the longest ship ever to enter the Suez canal—was towed safely through the sharpest bend in the man-made waterway.

Two admirals sighed in relief.

The gray flattop, 888 feet long, entered the canal at noon. Three hours later the riskiest stretch of the 103-mile route to the Mediterranean was passed.

Cost to the United States navy for the entire passage will be about $10,000 in fees.

Rear Adm. George Raymond Henderson, chief of staff of U. S. naval forces in the eastern Atlantic and Mediterranean, flew from London to board the carrier off Suez.

He was greeted by Rear Adm. Harold M. Martin, commander of carrier division five, who is commanding a round-the-world cruise of the Valley Forge and two escorting destroyers.

Polly the Parrot Makes Her Appearance Before a Judge

ELIZABETHTOWN, TENN.—A four-year-old parrot was chief exhibit and unofficial star witness in a case heard by Judge W. R. Pearson.

The bird was involved in a suit filed by Raymond West against Robert L. Smith. West was trying to regain possession of it.

West bought the parrot in Florida and turned it over to an Elizabethtown woman to keep for him. She apparently thought West had given her a present.

She turned it over to another woman, who gave it to Smith.

During the parrot's court experience, it was questioned briefly in the manner of a witness. Asked its name, it replied: "Polly."

West was given custody of the bird by the court. And now, Smith is trying to buy the parrot. It seems he has become "attached" to it.

Winners in Blue Shield Essay Contest Will Be Announced Next Week

Announcement was made today that winners of the Blue Shield letter writing contest will be revealed sometime next week, after November 29.

Announcement of the winners will be made later than originally scheduled because, according to the judges, the quantity and excellent quality of the contest letters makes selection of the winners difficult.

Because there are so many good letters on "Why I Think Blue Shield Will Help Improve Health in My Community," a series of smaller prizes will be awarded to runners-up in the contest in addition to the four bicycles being given to the first prize winners.

Judges in the contest are Dean Schweickhard, state commissioner of education; K. A. Kirkpatrick, hospitalization director of the Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation, and Arthur M. Calvin, executive director of the Minnesota Blue Cross and Blue Shield hospital and medical care plans.

Standing Room Only

In the course of one of his lecture trips, Mark Twain arrived at a small town. Before dinner he went to a barber shop to be shaved.

"You are a stranger?" asked the barber.

"Yes," Mark Twain replied. "This is the first time I've been here."

"You chose a good time to come," the barber continued. "Mark Twain is going to read and lecture tonight. You'll go, I suppose."

"Oh, I guess so."

"Have you bought your ticket?"

"Not yet."

"But everything is sold out. You'll have to stand."

"How very annoying!" Mark Twain said with a sigh. "I never saw such luck! I always have to stand when that fellow lectures."

War Veteran

"Did you participate in many engagements in the Pacific?" an inquiring old lady asked of a returned soldier.

"Only five," he replied with modesty.

"And did you come through all of them unhurt?"

"Not exactly," he replied sadly. "I married the fifth."

WELL TIMED

Husband: "My dear, the seeds you ordered won't flower until the second summer."

Wife: "Oh, that's all right. I ordered them from last year's catalog."

Exact Information

Grandmother Black seemed to have all the answers and it irked little Bobby no end. He kept asking till bedtime, hoping for a confession of inability to reply.

"How long could you live on 10 dollars?" he finally asked.

"Till they were all gone," replied Grandma pleasantly, "now you hop into bed."

Third Party Missing

MacDuff and MacTavish were arrested for being drunk. During the hearing the judge asked: "Where is the other man?"

"What other man, your honor?"

"The man who paid for the drinks."

Reassuring Mother

Young Harry had made friends with a new boy from across the tracks, and his mother was worried about it.

"Harry," she anxiously inquired, "does he use any bad words?"

"No, Mother," Harry replied, "and don't you worry—I'm not going to teach him any."

JEST JESTIN'

Slow-Footed Greyhound

Two men invested in a greyhound, with the hope of sharing its winnings. The animal was entered in several races but finished last every time.

The disappointed partners decided that the dog wasn't worth the expense of his food and made up their minds to get rid of him. Taking him for a walk one day, they came to a river bank.

"Here's our chance," one fellow said. "Let's throw him in the river."

"No, we can't do that," his companion replied after a look into the dog's appealing eyes. Then he brightened: "I know," he said, "let's run away from him!"

CHANGE OF MIND

After dinner, the young marrieds had engaged in their first argument, and for the rest of the evening neither had spoken. Unable to bear the silence any longer, the husband finally decided to give in.

"Please speak to me, dear," he said. "I'll admit that I was wrong and you were right."

Getting Prepared

Dad and his small daughter were standing in front of a lion's cage at the zoo. He was explaining how strong and fierce lions are. His young hopeful took it all in, and then said:

"Daddy, if it got out of its cage and ate you up, what bus should I take to get home."

Tracking a Cow

The train ground to a sudden stop. The nervous lady called the conductor. "What happened?"

Conductor—Nothing much; we just ran over a cow.

Old lady — Was she on the tracks?

SILENCE IS GOLDEN

Landlord (to prospective tenant)—You know we keep it very quiet and orderly here. Do you have any children?

"No."

"A piano, radio or phonograph?"

"No."

"Do you play any musical instrument? Do you have a dog, cat or parrot?"

"No, but my fountain pen scratches a little sometimes."

Subway Early Start

Ground was broken for the first subway in New York in 1900.

Start of Hitchhiking

Hitchhiking started long before the advent of the automobile. In pioneer days two men often would make a long journey with only one horse. Since riding double for long stretches was uncomfortable, one man would mount and ride while the other started hiking. At a specified time, the rider would stop, hitch the steed to a roadside tree and walk on ahead. Soon the first man would arrive, mount the horse and ride on past the second until his time was up, when he would hitch the animal and go along on foot again.

Hookworm Infection

There is danger that the tougher variety of hookworm found in the Pacific islands may establish itself in southern states in which the American hookworm already is an unwelcome guest, says American Medical association. Hookworm infection results in gastro-intestinal disturbances, abdominal pain, a fever that comes and goes, progressive anemia, pallor and emaciation.

City of Contrasts

Tripoli is the capital and largest city of Libya, with more than 100,000 inhabitants. Its Moslem mosques and Christian cathedral, its rambling Old Quarter and the substantial European structures of the new hint at the story of the diverse peoples and cultures meeting there. A Tripoli crowd, halted for a passing automobile, donkey or camel, may, for example, include a British, French or Turkish army officer, an Italian peasant from a nearby farm or a Greek fisherman.

New Drug Hard on Bugs

A new drug made from corn cures some skin infections by giving bacteria indigestion, according to Dr. Morris Green of University of Pennsylvania. Recent biochemical research has revealed that the drug, called furacin, prevents a great many micro-organisms from digesting sugar and related substances essential to their nutrition by interfering with their ability to utilize some of the B vitamins.

Common Sunfish

The common sunfish, or pumpkinseed, seldom reaches a size exceeding six to eight inches. However, its general popularity with people of all ages more than makes up for any deficiency in size. It has been termed the "small boy's fish" but is angled for by adults as well. The common sunfish is a compact little fish and beautifully colored. There is perhaps no other species of fresh-water fish that presents more variety of colors and markings than do the sunfishes, so much so that a general description is practically impossible.

British vs. U. S. Workers

British "working party" committees, sent to the United States to do on-the-job studies comparing American factory methods with those of Britain, agree that productivity per American worker exceeds that of his British counterpart in each of the industries surveyed.

Small gardens should be worked mostly by hand, so the rows can be closely spaced. Turnips, beets, carrots, radishes, onions, lettuce and mustard can be planted in 12-inch rows. Others should be spaced according to size and growth habit of the particular plant. Allow space for growth and for harvesting.

Queen Bee Cage

Before placing a new queen in a new home the old queen and all queen cells must be removed. The small cage containing the queen should be placed above the cluster of bees, or between two frames of comb so that worker bees have easy access to the candy-filled cage entrance. It is assumed that during liberation operation the queen takes on the regular colony odors and, therefore, will be accepted. After introduction, a week should elapse before the hive is reopened and the queen cage removed.

Edison's Contribution

Thomas Edison's invention created billions in wealth for the entire world. It created comfort for hundreds of millions of people. The men who risked their money back of Edison made very little for themselves in proportion to the amount of wealth they created for mankind. Yet, each man probably got 100 times as much for his investment as he originally risked.

Largest Copper Mine

Among wonders of the Rocky mountain empire is the world's largest open-cut copper mine. This is located at Bingham, Utah, 28 miles from Salt Lake City. The mine is a theater-like quarry covering about 824 acres. Ore is mined by 27 huge electric shovels with dippers of nine-ton capacity. Maximum daily tonnage (ore and cappings) 142,183 tons; maximum employees, 2,000.

Real Manufacturer

The hen is capable of manufacturing one or more pounds of eggs from every five pounds of feed consumed, and at the same time maintain her body. Feedstuffs which have comparatively little value for human food are converted into one of nature's most perfect foods. Eggs contain all the nutrients required to transform a tiny germ into a baby chick.

Farmers Must Plant More

For 1948 the U. S. department of agriculture is asking farmers to plant an additional nine million acres — an area greater than the total cultivated acreage of Michigan.

A.B.C. REPORTS

HOW TO MEASURE
Advertising Values

We ask advertisers to think of the circulation of this newspaper in terms of the distribution of their advertising—the size, quality and interest of the audience to which their advertising is addressed. From that viewpoint our circulation becomes a more direct factor in business plans.

There are well-known standards for circulation values just as there are definite measures of weight and quality as used in the purchase and sale of merchandise.

The standards for evaluating circulation have been established by the Audit Bureau of Circulations, a national cooperative association of 2000 advertisers, advertising agencies and publishers in the United States and Canada. This newspaper is an A. B. C. member.

The Bureau has a large staff of experienced auditors and each year one of these men visits our office and makes an audit of our circulation records. Based on the information thus secured, the Bureau issues official A. B. C. Audit Reports.

These reports tell how much circulation we have, where and how it is distributed, how much people paid (important because paid circulation proves reader interest) and many other facts that make it possible to invest in newspaper advertising on the basis of known values.

For complete and verified information about the distribution of your advertising when it appears in this newspaper ask us for A. B. C. reports.

How High Support Prices?

(Business Week)

American farm production was expanded by some 30% during the war. It has been kept high since the end of the war. A major reason for this large output has been the promise, legislated by Congress, that the government would support farm prices at high levels.

Much has been written and said about supported farm prices and their effect on the cost of living. Most of this has been uttered with more or less bias. A lot of it has shown little understanding of parity and support prices. Some even have ignored the facts, if these got in the way of making a particular point.

Actually, until recently, the promise of federal support had little or nothing to do with the cost of living. Supports encouraged farmers to plant more crops and grow more livestock. By increasing supplies in this way, it can be argued, they helped prevent prices from going even higher than they did. And about the only items that the government was called upon to support—the only ones in which supply got ahead of demand—were potatoes and eggs.

The elements of the case were simple. The average family in this country had more money than ever before. Needs abroad were huge. Prices were bid far above support levels. Most items still are above—notably meats.

But the basic situation has changed. The most pressing demands of Europe for food have been met. We have raised in 1948 huge crops of corn, wheat, and cotton. We are confronted with surpluses. Production won't fall much as long as high prices are guaranteed. We are, in short, face to face with all the problems that are inherent in the plan to save the farmer from a collapse of the 1920-21 type.

Let it be understood that BUSINESS WEEK believes in the right of the farmer to make a good living. This not only is his just due, but it also helps provide a sturdy market for the things industry produces. Support for prices, clearly, is one way of protecting farm income; it has worked this year and it presumably will work in 1949.

Supports Have Helped Business, Too

What, in fact, would be happening to our postwar boom if farm prices had not had the benefit of support these last few months? Would industrial prices have remained strong if prices of wheat, corn, cotton, tobacco, eggs, and potatoes had been allowed to seek their own levels?

We doubt it.

There would have been a terrific deflation in farm prices. This probably would have pulled other commodities down, too. Even if it had not, it would have lopped billions off farm income, starting industrial production downward and causing urban unemployment.

Thus, support of farm prices can't be viewed as an unmitigated curse—a levy on urban taxpayers simply to keep farm income at its record $30-billion level. It has, to greater or lesser degree, been an investment in continued high-level prosperity and employment.

It is, nevertheless, true that some readjustment of agriculture is desirable. The farmer should grow what the people of the country need, want, and can afford to buy; he should not continue to plant as many acres as possible simply because supported prices mean a sure-fire profit.

Thinking farmers know such a course would result in piling surplus upon surplus. And they know, from the experience of the 1930's, that surpluses will result in restrictions being placed on how many acres may be devoted to any given crop. (Theoretically, farmers must vote these restrictions against themselves; actually, if they fail to vote in favor by a two-thirds majority, they lose the various rewards held out by the government.)

Political Angle

Here we come to the blunt fact that the farmers elected a Democratic President and Congress, expecting a better break than the Republicans would have given them.

Their resentment against the G. O. P. hinges on the price support program voted by the last Congress, with its Republican majority. This legislation continued supports in much their present form (90% of parity for most of the important crops) through 1949; but, for 1950, a sliding-scale support program was provided (BW-Jul.24'48,p29). Under this, supports could be varied between 60% of parity and 90%, depending on certain conditions of supply.

Suppose the county had plenty of wheat and not enough linseed oil. The support price on wheat could be put at 60% of parity, flaxseed raised to 90%. Springwheat raisers in Minnesota and the Dakotas would be encouraged to divert acreage into flax.

Isn't that better, from any farmer's point of view, than having his wheat acreage limited arbitrarily?

We all know that, when 90% support is guaranteed across the board, output of surplus crops doesn't get reduced. The potato mess has proved that. Support prices remain high and production remains high. Lower acreage "goals" just aren't worth a tinker's damn.

Wheat acreage in 1949 will provide another example. The "goal" set by the Dept. of Agriculture would call for planting about 70-million acres. It now seems certain that actual plantings will top that by quite a margin—that they might even come close to this year's 78-million.

Across-the-board supports thus breed rigidity; a sliding scale at least would introduce some flexibility and selectivity in our crop patterns.

Trade With Cuba

Trade between the United States and Cuba is important to both countries. From 1902 through 1945 the total value of all Cuba's exports was approximately $10,250,000,000, of which sugar and sugar byproducts accounted for about $8,250,000,000. This trade has been the dominant factor in Cuba's economy.

Cooking Potatoes

Tests by two state experiment stations showed that potatoes cooked in a pressure saucepan until tender (eight minutes) held 83 per cent of their original vitamin C. In contrast, potatoes boiled in an ordinary kettle held only 75 per cent of this vitamin on the average, and some held as little as 41 per cent.

Early Atom Theory

Dmitri Ivanovich Mendeleieff, Russian chemist, and Julius Lothar Meyer, German chemist, in 1869 and 1871, advanced the periodic law of atoms [illegible] when elements are listed according to atomic weights, definite chemical and physical properties recur periodically as functions of the atomic weights.

INGRID IN TB ROLE

Ingrid Bergman, Academy Award winner and star of the new motion picture, "Joan of Arc," urges everyone to join the Crusade against tuberculosis, in a trailer being shown at motion picture houses.

As shown above, Miss Bergman makes her appeal for the purchase and use of tuberculosis Christmas Seals in her Joan of Arc costume. This is especially appropriate since the Double-Barred Cross, international emblem of the fight against tuberculosis, is adapted from the original "Lorraine Cross" of the crusading dukes of Lorraine and the original Joan was a native of the province of Lorraine.

A few years ago, Ingrid Bergman spent some time in Minnesota, making a film entitled, "Swedes in America."

Duck

Takes His First Swim

LITTLE FERRY, N.J.—A duck named "Dopey," which meets its young mistress at the bus, finally has taken its first swim in four years.

Miss Diane Zimmerman has been trying ever since she acquired Dopey as a duckling to interest him in the water.

Dopey demurred.

But the reluctant duck finally flew through an open window, and, when found, apparently had overcome his fear of the water. He was riding serenely in Willow lake.

It took an hour to coax him out.

Clerk Gambles U. S. Funds on Horses; Loss: $40,000

LOS ANGELES.—A sad story of afternoons playing the races and nights worrying about his losses followed the surrender of a trusted postal clerk.

Andred A. Benson, 40, chief clerk at the Inglewood, Calif., post office and a 20-year veteran of the service, acknowledged embezzlement of $40,000 in government funds to Howard V. Calverly, U. S. commissioner, with the statement, "I couldn't believe any man could lose so consistently."

Benson said he wound up "without a dime" when Hollywood park, located in Inglewood, closed. Lee Miller, postal inspector, said Benson surrendered and declared:

"The horses got me. I couldn't sleep or eat. I knew the federals would pick me up some day, so after Hollywood closed I decided to give myself up and get it over with."

Married and the father of a child, Benson is held in default of $2,500 bond for a federal grand jury. In his county jail cell, he said:

"I was a $2 punter when Santa Anita opened. Gradually I increased my bets to $5 and $10 on the nose. My luck was bad. I got in the hole worse and worse. I tried to get out by playing long shots. They lost. I bet big sums on favorites. They also lost."

He said $1,000 was his largest bet, but he couldn't remember the horse's name. He did remember, however, that it lost.

The $3,900-a-year clerk said he was $22,000 in the hole at the start of the last week of racing at Hollywood park and in a desperate effort to "get even," took $18,000 more of the postal receipts and lost it all.

"I juggled the accounts to cover my defalcations," inspectors quoted him. "Now it's all gone, along with my reputation."

Rocket Mail Delivery Not Recognized by Postmaster

TRONA, CALIF.—The rocket mail didn't go through.

Youthful scientists sent eight rockets loaded with 4,200 letters soaring a mile across dry Searles lake practically into the Trona postmaster's lap.

But that functionary, Don H. MacPherson, refused to accept the mail for sending because it bore stickers resembling U. S. stamps.

Sponsors of the rocket experiment, Reaction Research Society of Glendale, said they had stamped all envelopes "not U. S. postage" as instructed by U. S. District Attorney James Carter of Los Angeles.

The rockets are of stainless steel, 11 feet long and 3 inches slim. Their testers, mostly junior college physics students, claim they go 400 m.p.h. and 4,000 feet high. The young scientists foresee a future transcontinental rocket mail service.

But somebody had better tell the postmasters first.

Toothless Boy, 12, Gets Third Set of False Teeth

DES MOINES.—Twelve-year-old Tommy Black of Shenandoah, Iowa, is having his third set of false teeth made.

The strange case of Tommy—who never has had a tooth of his own—was told at the Iowa Dental society convention by Dr. Jay A Rotton of Shenandoah.

Dr. Rotton said he fitted Tommy with his first set of dentures when the lad was only eight years of age.

Before getting his first dentures, Tommy could eat only soft foods. "Now he eats apples, corn on the cob and anything he wants," Dr. Rotton said.

He added he never heard of another child so young with a full set of false teeth.

Trapped Bull In Silo Gives Farmer a Baffling Problem

NEW HAMPTON, IOWA.—Farmer Orvin Knutson has a two-horned dilemma at the bottom of his silo.

A 1,200-pound Guernsey bull fell into the pit, and Knutson doesn't know what to do about it.

Along with a nice set of horns, the critter has such a mean disposition that Knutson doesn't want to descend into the narrow confines to attach hoisting belts.

He said it would cost more than the animal is worth to knock an exit hole through the silo walls. But the animal has not been fattened for slaughtering, he added.

"Besides," Knutson has three feet of silage which would be spoiled in the killing.

How to Choose Asparagus And How Best to Keep It

The consumer buying asparagus should know what qualities to look for when making a purchase. She should look for stalks that are green for most of their length, that are not too thin, and tips that are compact and firm.

Most asparagus is cut a little below the ground surface as soon as the spear is six to 10 inches long. If growth has been rapid, the entire green stalk will be tender and only the white portion somewhat tougher.

Unless it is kept under refrigeration, or in a cool, dark place, it deteriorates rather rapidly after it is cut; the tips spread, and the stalks tends to become woody.

If wilted asparagus is allowed to stand in a small pan with the butt ends in cold water, it will freshen somewhat although only the tips may prove to be edible. Very slender stalks are apt to be tough and stringy because of their slower growth.

If bunches look fresh when purchased, a large bunch may be a more economical buy than a small bunch big enough for only one meal. But the stalks not used immediately must be stored in the refrigerator or some other cool, dark place.

Putting a 'Punch' in Lunch

Packing a lunch that "packs a punch" and avoiding that day-to-day sameness is a problem of many homemakers. Aim always to include something crisp, something juicy, and one hot, one sweet, one tart or salty, and one colorful food, advise nutrition specialists. Each lunch box should contain one third of the food supply for the day for the person who eats it. Lettuce put in sandwiches is likely to wilt and is better when wrapped separately.

Radio, Baby Giant

Radio has come a long way in a short time. Today 37 million American homes have radio receivers; there are 170,000 television receivers, 1,100 radio manufacturers employ 60,000 persons; 125,000 people are employed by radio distributors and dealers; 1,000 broadcasting stations employ 20,000, not including some 30,000 part-time employes and artists.

School Aid for Navajos

An American Indian child aid project will be started with help to schools on the Navajo reservation by the Save the Children federation, of New York, with the cooperation of the bureau of Indian affairs. The project will take the form of a school sponsorship plan, along the same lines as that of the American Rural Child Service operated by the federation in backward areas of eight states. The Navajo Indians, whose reservation covers parts of Arizona, New Mexico and Utah, have recently been shown to be one of the most needy of all population groups. There are 50 day schools and eight boarding schools on the reservation. Many of the children live in crude shacks and come from families whose average income is less than $400 a year.

Risky to Sit with Driver

Safest position in a car is in the driver's seat behind the protection of the steering wheel, and the most dangerous seat is the one next to the driver, according to Dr. Claire L. Straith, chief of plastic surgery at Harper hospital, Detroit. He stated in a report in the American Medical association journal that in a study of 50 patients who suffered facial injuries in automobile accidents 70 per cent of the patients were young women who had been sitting next to the driver. More than half of those front seat patients suffered head and face injuries.

First Uniform for British

Prior to 1748, British officers dressed as they chose, styles and colors in each ship depending on the captain's taste. A meeting of the Navy club at a coffee house in London, proposed a uniform for officers, already the rule in contemporary navies, and in due course the matter came before the king. Senior officers were invited to send in their ideas of patterns and colors. As the national colors at that time were blue, it seemed likely that these would be chosen. But blue and white also had strong support, and George II finally picked them after seeing the Duchess of Bedford in a riding habit of these colors. The order for the first naval uniform followed from the admiralty in April, 1748.

Fight Against Gypsy Moth

The gypsy moth has stripped leaves from an estimated 1,500,000 acres of New England's forests in two years. It was a losing fight until 1944 when the first experimental application of DDT sprayed from an airplane was made in Pennsylvania.

More than the usual number of people in this community have reason to be thankful on this Thanksgiving occasion, if this is the occasion to be thankful for such things as material prosperity. From the standpoint of getting the bills paid and piling up bank balances this probably is the best year our community has known. We have had an abundant harvest, which has gone on the market at good prices. We have a great deal more to be thankful for than had those Pilgrims who set aside that first day of thanks back in 1621. Whether we actually are more thankful however is doubtful. On the contrary we'll bet a hat the Pilgrims were a lot more sincere in their thankfulness for the little they had received. Their's was a small cup that "runneth over" easily. Ours is a large cup—too large perhaps for our own happiness. Comparing what we have with what has been, and considering the conditions under which we live, in a world that is in agony, being thankful this year isn't just a five minute job. And just saying "thank you" probably doesn't mean much. It's what we do with what we have that counts.

In a few days the city's new diesel will be ready to go to work, and just in the nick of time too. Water power has dropped off considerably and the three old engines have had all they could do to provide power for the peak load. We have been operating without a reserve power source and just a little trouble could cause a lot of trouble. When the new engine goes to work we can all breathe easier. And in the spirit of the Thanksgiving season we can be thankful that our power problem is solved before we get into the extremely cold weather when the consequences of a breakdown might be so much more serious.

The city council has acted wisely in securing the service of a competent engineering firm to provide a plan for the city's development. Such a service costs a few thousand dollars but over a period of years it should save several times its cost. Long range planning makes possible a program of gradual progress and a step-at-a-time development toward a definite objective. This service will provide us with a blueprint of what we now have and make available on paper information that is necessary to the organization of a city engineering department. The money spent for this service will be well spent.

Between now and the Monday before Christmas citizens of Thief River Falls can interrupt their thoughts about the gifts they will present to others with a little thinking about a gift they may give to themselves. On that Monday before Christmas they will have an opportunity to go to the polls and approve a bond issue for building of the city's new water plant. And that is one bond issue that should bring just about a unanimous vote of approval. Even with favorable action on the question of issuing additional bonds and with prompt action in letting a contract after the project is approved we still have a couple of summers ahead of us with the water supply as is. The council has assured the earliest possible completion date by letting the contracts for hard-to-get equipment for the new plant. With a green light from the voters on December 20 the council can be depended upon to move for a speedy letting.

An American Discovery

Heard island, southeastward from Prince Edward, is 2,450 miles southwest of the nearest corner of Australia, its claimant. Much larger than Prince Edward, it is 25 miles long and 11 miles at its broadest. It points toward France's Kerguelen isles, 200 miles northwest; all being volcanic-island outcroppings of the same submarine ridge. Heard went undiscovered until 1853, when Capt. John Jay Heard, in the American bark "Oriental," charted it.

Irish White House

James Hoban, a native of Ireland, who had resided for some time in Charleston, S. C., in 1792 won a prize of $500 offered for the best design for the President's house. Construction began in 1792, but President Adams in 1800 was the first to occupy the mansion.

PUBLIC OPINION

Editor of Times:

I heartily agree with your editorial of last week, wherein you say that our President should be elected by popular vote. This would automatically take care of the Poll Tax controversy in the South, as they would immediately take steps to get all people on their voting lists.

I cannot however agree that a sales tax is the only way to pay a Soldiers Bonus. A sales tax is always wrong, because it does not take into consideration the ability of those taxed to pay. It is not a painless tax as many people believe because it takes necessities away from some very poor deserving people.

The fairest way so far devised is a graduated income tax, and you and other people of influence should come boldly out for this kind of tax, to take care of most of our Government expense. You are right in saying that our debts should be paid off soon to avoid interest charges, but you and others are wrong in assuming that we must have deflation.

Neither producers or consumers profit, in the long run, by either inflation or deflation; only speculators profit by fluctuation in prices and they are only a small per cent of the whole people.

PAUL A. HARRIS.

Streptomycin Not Cure-All, Tuberculosis Expert Says

Streptomycin is the most effective and least toxic drug for treating tuberculosis, but it is not a cure-all, and, if used indiscriminately, may endanger the patient, Dr. Karl H. Pfuetze warned members of the Illinois state medical society.

Since its discovery four years ago, streptomycin—a drug derived from a fungus found in the soil—has been tested in the laboratory and used clinically in medicine's fight against diseases due to bacteria, particularly tuberculosis.

Streptomycin has been found especially effective, Dr. Pfuetze said, in tuberculosis infection of the mouth, throat, vocal chords, bronchial tubes, sinuses, and of the lining of the intestines and abdominal wall.

The drug is most useful in recent, acute phases of pulmonary tuberculosis, when suppression of the infection for a more or less limited period of time enables the patient to muster his natural forces of defense and gain the upper hand.

Streptomycin should not be used when the patient's chances of recovery are good without it, because this same patient may have greater need of chemotherapy at a later time, should he develop a more serious form of tuberculosis.

Beacon Fires, First Lighthouses

Priests maintained beacon fires as the earliest lighthouses of record. Lighthouse towers first were built by the Libyans and Cushites in Lower Egypt. Leaches, a Greek poet who lived around 600 B. C., mentions a lighthouse at Sigeum, now Cape Inchihisari, in the Troad (northwestern Asia Minor) which presumably was the first lighthouse regularly maintained to guide ships. It was, of course, not a tower.

Good Care in Laundering Linen Handkerchiefs Urged

With linen and other fine fabrics costing so much these days, home makers find linen handkerchiefs are a prized possession. Good care in buying and laundering will extend the life of handkerchiefs considerably, says Miss Helen Rocke, extension clothing specialist.

Buy the handkerchief with the even and compact weave and weight for longer life, she suggests. Embroidered initials, open work and hand-hemstitching make a prettier and more costly handkerchief, but these things also make a more fragile item. The first break often comes at the hemstitching where fabric is thinner, or around the initials where the embroidery is heavier than surrounding linen. Hand-rolled edges are less sturdy than stitched hems.

When handkerchiefs are laundered in the machine with other clothing it is a good idea to tie them in a loose cheesecloth bag. This saves wear and tear in washing and getting caught in wringer rollers.

In pinning handkerchiefs up to dry, pin them on top of a towel, leaving them only until dry. Flapping in the wind makes for much wear and tear on handkerchiefs.

Horicon Marsh Duck Checkup

Total of 2,813 duck hunters were checked on the Horicon marsh, Wis., last season, and it was found that they had 1,311 ducks. The check was believed to have been almost 95 per cent efficient. The hunters reported a loss of 488 crippled birds. Hunters using dogs lost less than half as many birds as those who hunted without dogs. In addition to the ducks, the hunters bagged 16 Canada geese, two blue geese and 131 coot. Of the ducks taken, 302 were mallards, 258 blue-winged teal, 160 baldpate, 136 pintail, 124 black duck, 122 green winged teal, and 101 wood duck. Other ducks were taken in lesser numbers.

Unfailing Sweet Springs Generate Jericho Oasis

Though walls come tumbling down there always will be a Jericho.

That is the conclusion of the National Geographic society after examining the geography and history of Jericho's site in the verdant Jordan river valley. Through this village of Biblical fame and across the Allenby bridge into Trans-Jordan now pass thousands of Arab refugees from Jerusalem and Jaffa.

There always has been a settlement on or near the biblical site 16 miles northeast of Jerusalem and six miles north of the Dead sea because the unfailing waters of Wadi Qilt and Elisha's fountain meet there to create a green, life-giving oasis.

Modern Jericho is a village of a few hundred Arabs on the lower Jordan plain a mile southeast of the site of the walled city "blown" down by Joshua's trumpeting priests.

Often before the seven-day Biblical siege, Jericho had been destroyed. Always, it rose from its ashes. Delving deeply into the mound known today as Tell es Sultan, archaeologists have found evidence of 18 successive settlements, stretching back to 5,000 B. C. Dwellings and artifacts at the bottom are among the oldest works of man yet discovered.

Carpet Beetles and Moths Routed by DDT Oil Spray

Toxic qualities of DDT may make its use in many places questionable, but there are still many places where the insecticide can be used to advantage.

Jack Lomax, extension entomologist, University of Nebraska, suggests that cleaning of clothes closets can be followed up with a DDT spray on the walls, woodwork, baseboards, and shelves. Such a spray gives protection against clothes moths and carpet beetles.

An oil spray is best because it does not leave the white deposit the water spray does. It should be a residual spray rather than aerosol bombs or space sprays if it is to be effective over many months. Aerosol spray kills flying insects or those which happen to be exposed at the time, but has no lasting effect.

DDT can be sprayed lightly on wool clothing without injuring the fabric. Too much solution may show up as whitish traces on dark clothing, but this can be removed by brushing or dry cleaning.

DDT protects clothing hanging in closets, but moth flakes or crystals are advised for clothing stored in bags, trunks or other containers where fumigating effects are desired. Added protection is given stored clothing by spraying them and their container with DDT.

ONCE IS ENOUGH!
Yes, one application of Dr. Salsbury's Vapo-Roost is enough to get rid of all the lice and feather mites in your laying house. Just spread a thin line of Vapo-Roost on roost poles. Fumes do the rest. Treatment remains effective for days — long enough to kill young lice which hatch later.

Navy Sells Famous Sub, Once "Squalus," for Junk

One of the most famous submarines was headed for the scrap heap when the Sailfish was sold, along with another navy submarine, the Sea Dragon, for $30,000. The Sailfish was better known as the Squalus.

As the Sailfish, she hung up a good war record in the Pacific, damaging or sinking twenty enemy ships, including eight warships. But it was as the Squalus that she became known throughout the country in 1939 when she sank off Portsmouth, N. H., on a practice dive.

The Squalus went down in 240 feet of water on May 23, 1939, with a crew of 59 officers and enlisted men. Twenty-six were rescued before the $5,000,000-vessel was raised to the surface on Sept. 13 of that year.

Almost a year later, on May 15, she was back on the active list under the name Sailfish. On her trial run under the new name, the reconditioned submarine went over almost the same course as she had used in 1939. Aboard were five survivors of the first practice dive.

When sold, the submarine had an overall length of 231 feet, a beam of 21 feet, six inches. Her surface displacement was 790 tons and submerged she displaced 1,092 tons. She did 15 knots on the surface and 10.5 knots submerged. She was retired Oct. 27, 1945.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear mother Mrs. Anne Johnson.

Dear one you have left us,
Only for a little while;
We'll very shortly meet you;
We must all return to dust.

And our Saviour we will see;
Oh, what a glad reunion,
And never more to part.
You've gone to a better home,
God has prepared for you;
Oh, what a glad reunion,
When we all gather home.

Lincoln Basketball Quint Opens Season with Climax Friday

The 1948-49 Prowler basketball season will open on Friday night in the local high school gymnasium when coach Bob Nick sends his varsity squad against the Climax Vikings. The preliminary game, scheduled for 7:15 P. M., will find assistant coach Wayne Johnson dividing his Prowler "B" squad into two teams and engaging in an intra-squad game.

The Prowlers will be handicapped greatly by the absence of co-captain Al Williamson from the lineup on Friday night, and it is doubtful if Keith Rosengren, another prospective regular, will be physically top-notch for the game. Rosengren missed several of the week's practice sessions due to illness.

While Coach Nick hasn't definitely named a starting lineup for the game against Climax, it is expected that co-captain Harley Wagner, Don Stadum, Wally Grovum, and Erv Skaar, all lettermen, will be on the floor when referee Glen Gumlia tosses up the ball to start the contest. Rosengren had been given a spot in the lineup with those four boys, but during his illness, Don Green and Don Sponheim moved into the lineup.

The game shapes up as pretty much of an even-Stephen affair, and the Prowlers hope for a victory depends largely on how well the local defense can hold Climax' Jerry Jevning. Jevning, a lanky forward, is especially effective on shots off the side of the free throw lane, and he also possesses a sharp break for the basket. Friday's game may develop into a scoring duel between the Prowlers Wagner and Climax' Jevning.

On Tuesday evening, November 30th, the Prowlers will travel to Red Lake Falls for a district game against Harold Kraft's Eagles.

Mixed Doubles Bowling Tourney Sunday, Dec. 5

Crappie Family

The chief difference between the black and white crappie is that the white variety has six spines in the dorsal fin and a plain anal fin while the black has seven spines in the dorsal and a strongly reticulate anal fin. Outside of these two exceptions the two crappies are almost identical in appearance. Each reach a maximum length of 12 inches and weigh slightly more than one pound. Like other members of the bass family, crappie are nesting fish and their spawning habits are similar to those of the bluegills.

Reading Preferences

Librarians report a great demand for travel books. South American countries usually are high on the list of desired places to visit. While war fiction lies practically untouched on library shelves, historical fiction is widely read, both old and recent titles. Novels concerned with race and social problems are much in demand. Movies, as always, bring a flood of requests for the book which has been filmed.

Skiing in the Rockies

Colorado rapidly is winning renown as one of North America's best skiing areas. Numerous mountain ranges, high altitude, bracing air and dry powder snow help produce unsurpassed skiing conditions. There are practice slopes for beginners and gentle slopes for those preferring leisurely skiing. Colorado's rugged beauty adds much to the sport.

USDA Offers Suggestion On Flying Farm Freight

Farm areas that have been cut off from the fluid milk market because of transportation delays will be interested in a British proposal to use "flying milk vans," says the U. S. department of agriculture.

Western growers of irrigated alfalfa might find it practical and economical to put wings on the aerial equivalent of the tank truck.

The office of foreign agricultural relations says that the cost of proposed air transportation of milk over certain routes in Britain has been estimated by aviation company experts at about four cents a quart.

It is proposed to use a Bristol freighter modified to pick up a specially constructed cylindrical metal tank lined with glass and holding about 1,100 gallons. The tank would be mounted on a wheeled chassis for quick and easy loading and unloading.

Another example of an innovation in air freighting of farm produce is reported from Brazil. The Impameri district is a center of the Brazilian "xarque" or dried meat industry. The fillets of beef are too tender for marketing as dried beef. With air freight it is proving possible to ship the choice fillets to sao Paulo, a trip of about two and a half hours.

This form of marketing has proved so satisfactory that OFAR reports shipments may increase when the air terminal is improved to accomodate larger planes and heavier loads.

Why Clothes Wrinkle

Chemists have discovered why garments wrinkle. Attributing wrinkles in clothing to the "personality of the individual fibers," a report made to American Chemical society declared that any fabric's resistance to stretching depends on the fineness of its filaments, the ease with which they are able to move in relation to one another and their ability to recover from stretching without being permanently deformed.

Steam Heat on Trains

Steam heated passenger cars, doing away with stoves or hot water heaters, were introduced in 1881. The system was improved in 1903 by introduction of the vapor system of heating.

Sardine Scarcity Plagues Pacific Coast Canneries.

MONTEREY, CALIF.—The little sardine has become a big problem.

The problem is faced not only by the 75 million dollar Pacific coast sardine industry with its 12,000 fishermen and additional thousands of cannery workers, but also by housewives, farmers and scientists.

Its effects reach even to the hungry and starving peoples of Europe and the Far East.

The problem is the absence of the sardine from his usual haunts along the Pacific coast.

From peak year totals of 700,000 tons, last year's catch fell to a mere 124,000 tons.

That means not only a vast reduction in the number of those familiar tins of sardines on grocers' shelves, but an even greater reduction in the amount of oil and meal available.

Oil from the sardine is used extensively in such everyday necessities as soap, cooking fats and oils, cosmetics, high-grade paints and varnishes, glycerine and vitamins.

Why the sardines are missing is a mystery.

The best explanation, as advanced by experts in the field, is that overfishing played the most important part in the depletion.

Experts couple that with two other factors:

Water Pollution

The two main sources of water pollution in the United States are (1) municipal—sewage and public wastes dumped into streams, lakes and rivers, without being put through a modern and effective treatment, and (2) industrial—toxins and injurious fluids and solids of various types discharged into the public waters without adequate treatment to reduce their poisonous effects.

Cause of Tides

If there were oceans, seas or lakes on the moon, tides caused by the earth would be high enough to engulf the moon's mountains.

NEWSPAPERDOM

Weekly Gets A Big Scoop

NORTON, VA.—A weekly newspaper scored a resounding beat on one of the biggest news stories of the year in Virginia.

It printed an account of a $43,000 bank robbery, the chase and arrest of the bandits within two hours after it happened.

The subscribers of the Norton Coalfield Progress, a modest but growing "country weekly," were reading about the bank robbery before many of the large newspapers and radio stations in the area knew it had happened.

It wasn't one of those stories that happens right in front of the newspaper, either. The bank was robbed in Pound, Va., 20 miles to the north over rugged mountain roads.

It was shortly after noon in Norton on the day that the Coalfield Progress was to go to press. The paper had been made up with accounts of meetings and society items laboriously gathered from the clubs and churches and PTA through the week.

"General Flunky."

Carroll Tate, a lanky, dark haired young man who calls himself "general flunky" for the paper and who is its reporter and business manager, was relaxing in the office.

A pressman, just returning from lunch, walked in and remarked casually:

Then he added, still casually, "the bank's been robbed at Pound."

Tate jumped to life. He telephoned Pound and confirmed what the pressman had heard a state trooper remark to passersby on the corner.

Tate drove the 20 miles to Pound in a hurry over the winding roads. He interviewed Ed Barr, the bank cashier, who had been ordered into a vault by two armed men who neglected to close the vault door tightly enough to make it click.

Escapes From Vault.

Barr said he got out of the vault and shouted an alarm. He fired a pistol at one of the bandits and wounded him on the bank steps. The two leaped into a car driven by another man and drove off.

As Tate finished talking to Barr, state troopers brought in the three men for Barr to identify. The money was recovered.

Tate sped back to Norton, wrote his story and soon the presses of the weekly rolled with a red hot story and a banner line on the front page.

"Big town newspapermen will call it luck, but it was the biggest thrill of my life getting that story," says Tate, who will become owner of the Coalfield Progress in a few months.

Gov. William Tuck of Virginia has dedicated a new plant of the Coalfield Progress.

To Save Towels

Mend snags or worn places in towels before they go into the wash to avoid further tearing. If the selvage shows wear, check fraying by taking several rows of stitches along the edge to strengthen it.

Under the Lights

First night baseball game was played at Fort Wayne, Ind., in 1883, using 17 arc lights of 4,000 candlepower each.

Keeping Score

.... With BUCK OLSON

Heinie Mighty

Henry "Heinie" Waag created quite a furore at the Pla-Mor alleys Thursday evening when as a member of the S & L team in the Commercial league, he bowled a record 640-pin total. Heinie, the master of the three-step curve-ball delivery, had scores of 247, 196, and 197, but in spite of that individual effort the team lost two of the three games bowled.

And was Heinie satisfied with that record-breaking 640 total? Not he. "Shucks, I should have had a total in the 700's, for my ball was breaking perfectly and pulling into the pins just right. The only thing that kept me from a 700 total was the ten pin, for I was 'tapped' on that half a dozen times." So said Heinie.

A Tough Opener

Coach Bob Nick will unveil his 1948-49 Prowler basketball team on Friday night when the locals meet the Climax Vikings on the high school gymnasium floor. And Nick isn't sending the Prowlers against a "soft touch" in the opener either. Climax has had a fine basketball tradition and the Polk county school has always been one of the stronger sub-district contenders. In 1943, it will be remembered, Climax confounded the experts by winning the 31st district championship defeating the Prowlers, 31 to 29, in the finals.

Not being a football school, Climax, starting their basketball practice early in October, has been noted for their early season speed, and that factor may have a bearing on Friday night's game. The Climax team is centered around lanky Jerry Jevning, a sharpshooter that won all-district honors as a junior forward last year.

While Climax will be ready for top-flight district competition, the Prowlers will be barely getting organized. Co-captain Al Williamson has been watching the practice drills from the side-lines; Keith Rosengren, even though he suits up for Friday nights game, will be below par because a bout with the flu; Maynard Troland made his first appearance at practice this week; and Jerry Furuseth is hobbling around on crutches.

The heavy task of bringing the blue-and-gold to a victory in the opener will be handed to Harley Wagner, Don Stadum, Wally Grovum, Erv Skaar and Don Green or Don Sponheim, the lineup that coach Nick will probably start. It is hoped that Rosengren will be able to get into the game for Zeke needs all the game experience that he can get.

Making Ice

Uncle Chuck Dostal has begun the ice-making process in the Arena, and, given freezing weather, he hopes to have the ice-sheet ready by the first week in December. The sawdust base was put in on Monday and was "wetted down," and on Tuesday the first of a number of floods was made.

League hockey talk has been on the increase the past month and the roster of the States-Dominion hockey league has a tentative six-team membership. Emerson and Letellier in Manitoba, Grand Forks in North Dakota, and Thief River Falls, Crookston, and Hallock are the teams reported as States-Dominion league members, but a great deal of organization is required before the league can begin its schedule. Several preseason meetings should have been held during the summer and early fall to "iron out" the difficulties that arose last year. We hope that the league can get off to a smooth start this year, but it will take many soft voices and a number of cool tempers to get the boys to cooperate for the benefit of senior hockey.

Too Optimistic

After making a tour of Strathcona, Wanaska, Skime, Gatzke, Grygla, Mud Lake, and Ditch Twenty, the consensus of the deer hunters is that if the State of Minnesota has 1,000,000 deer, as the state department has claimed, then those figures were compiled by the same fellow that predicted Dewey's election over Truman. They were too optimistic.

There were a number of deer taken, but the hunting the first three days of the season was far below expectations. Lack of snow, of course, was quite a handicap, and it appeared that the mild fall weather had caused the deer to stray from their usual November haunts.

Don't be surprised if we have a closed season next year.

Miscellany

Palmer Ronholm, tackle on last year's Prowler football team, earned a freshman numeral as a member of Augsburg college's freshman football team this fall—Dick Mundinger, now of St. Hilaire but formerly of Glenwood, won a numeral as a member of Minnesota's freshman football team. And so did Mickey Kell of Devils Lake and Gene Givens of Grafton. Both Kelly and Givens are well-known here having played with the Satans and Spoilers in North Valley conference games against the Prowlers.

Spitsbergen, Known to Vikings

Spitzbergen, matching West Virginia in area, lies midway of the 1,300 miles between Norway's North Cape and the North Pole. Iceland is nearly 1,000 miles southwest, London is 1,800 miles, New York is 3,400 miles by great-circle routes. West Spitzbergen island contains three-fifths of the area. Catching some Gulf Stream warmth along its western coast, it provides above-freezing temperatures through a short summer for the fishing and coal-mining communities it supports. Northeast Land and Edge Land, the size of Connecticut and Delaware, are the other large islands of the group. Vikings knew these mountainous Arctic sentinels eight centuries ago.

Blue Grass Rhapsody of 1813

Pittsburgh Magazine Almanack of 1813 says this of Kentucky in general and Lexington in particular: "The progress this state has made in population, agriculture, and, latterly, in domestic manufacturers, is perhaps unexampled in any other part of the world. Kentucky also produces an immense quantity of flour, whisky, tobacco, bacon, cattle and horses, coarse linens and cottons. There are also in this state, in Lexington, particularly, several extensive, fine-cotton cloth manufactories . . . Lexington, the largest town in the state, surrounded by a country not exceeded in the world for beauty and fertility of soil, seems to be the seat of manufactures, industry, happiness, and a spirit of generous independence not often to be met with."

Trans-Continental Train

First railway train ever operated from the Atlantic to the Pacific was the trans-continental excursion sponsored by the Boston board of trade in May, 1870, one year after the Union Pacific and Central Pacific railroads were opened. The trip from Boston to San Francisco consumed eight days, and was made in pullman "hotel cars," then the newest thing in railroading. A daily newspaper, the Trans-Continental, was published en route.

Knitwear for Children

Knitwear deserves greater use in children's clothing, say clothing specialists. Its elasticity, making it fit closely yet allowing for plenty of freedom of action, and its lack of bulkiness, are advantages. Its insulating properties provide extra warmth in winter. Yet cotton knitwear, because of its porousness, is comfortable in summer, too.

GOVERNOR BACKS 1948 CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE DRIVE

Annual Campaign Opened Thruout Minnesota Monday, November 22

"Everyone has a stake in the success of the campaign against W. Youngdahl said this week in tuberculosis, Governor Luther a statement endorsing the 42nd annual Christmas Seal sale. Minnesota's 10,000 volunteer workers launched the sale Monday, November 22 in every city, town and rural community.

Commending their work, Governor Youngdahl said, "The program to eradicate TB merits the whole hearted support of every citizen in Minnesota. Remember that when you buy Christmas Seals you are making investment for the protection of yourself and your loved ones. Use Christmas Seals at every opportunity. The double-barred cross of the Seal symbolizes our determination to win the fight against tuberculosis.

"It is estimated that there are more than 5,000 active cases of TB in our state today," the statement continues. "It is taking more lives than any other communicable disease except pneumonia. And it causes more fatalities and more prolonged periods of hospitalization and disabilities between the ages of 15 and 45 than any other diseases.

"To wipe out the disease, the unknown cases in our midst—the people who have tuberculosis and are ignorant of the fact—must be found and given the necessary care and treatment to prevent the spread of the disease to others. The money we spend for Christmas Seals helps to detect people who have contracted it."

The governor's statement points out that 95 percent of the money raised in Minnesota is spent right here in the state, while the remaining five percent is used by the National Tuberculosis association to support services on a national scale and to provide continued medical research.

POSTMASTER ASKS EARLY DEPOSIT OF CHRISTMAS MAIL

Anderson Issues Annual Request to Mail Yule Cards and Parcels Early

Postmaster Andrew Anderson today appealed to local residents to plan to mail all Christmas greeting cards and gift packages "just as early as possible."

An even heavier flood of Yuletide mail is expected this Christmas than during the record-breaking 1947 holiday season, when the local postmaster had a local record of pieces mailed.

"If you postpone mailing to the last minute this year," Anderson warned, "you risk disappointing your friends. Your holiday messages and gifts may be caught in the rush and perhaps not delivered until ater Christmas."

All packages should be mailed before December 10 to assure delivery before Christmas Day, he said. Christmas cards for local addresses should be in the collection boxes at least a week before December 25.

Early Christmas mailing is extremely vital, the postmaster said, because handling the Christmas mail load is divided into three phases. First, the mail for out-of-town must be collected and dispatched by rail and air. Then delivery of Yuletide greetings being exchanged locally becomes the big job. Finally, there is the last-minute flood of cards and packages from out-of-town to be handled.

"Whenever these three operations overlap, there's a jam in the postoffice and deliveries are delayed," he declared.

"We would appreciate it if people would stop in next week and purchase the extra stamps they're going to need," the postmaster said. "This is one phase of Christmas shopping that everyone can complete early and thus avoid the last minute crowds at the post office windows."

Anderson pointed out that parcel post packages cannot be accepted unless stoutly wrapped, and advised shoppers to lay in supplies of heavy cardboard, sturdy outer paper, heavy cord and printed Fourth Class labels.

In order to effect delivery of Christmas Greeting Cards, it is essential that they bear a local street address. Failure to include a street address means either a delay or failure of delivery.

STATE FARMERS UNION ADVOCATES NEW LEGISLATION

Approves Program at Convention in St. Paul Ending Last Saturday

A broad legislative program for the 81st congress to shoot at was set up Saturday by the executive committee of the Minnesota Farmers Union.

It was designed to provide "adequate consumer purchasing power for farm products from an ever normal granary," James G. Patton, Denver, Colo., said at the organizations closing session in the St. Paul.

The program was worked out in detail after members of the committee had exchanged views with the Charles Brannan, secretary of agriculture, who was a luncheon guest at Friday's meeting.

A revolving fund from which farm groups could borrow to construct storage facilities insuring a backlog of grain.

Separation of the farm bureau from the extension service.

Patton said the program as a whole sought to check the possibility of a depression caused by inability to purchase farm products, and might call for some type of federal subsidy for lower income groups.

"If we can spend 15 to 20 billions of dollars for European recovery, we ought to be able to spend four or five billions on our domestic economy," he said.

Speakers at Friday's luncheon sponsored by the Farmers Union Grain Terminal association of St. Paul included M. W. Thatcher its manager, and Ole Olson, Buxton, N. D.

D. K. Gustafson Now Taking International Harvester Co. Course

D. K. Gustafson, of C. Gustafson and Son, left for Chicago Saturday to attend a two-weeks sales and management course conducted by the International Harvester Company for its dealer organization. Class sessions will be held at the Harvester central training school from Monday, November 22nd thru Friday, December 3rd.

As a member of a class of 50 Harvester dealers from all sections of the United States, Mr. Gustafson will have many opportunities during the two weeks for open forum discussions and an exchange of views on problems pertinent to dealership operations.

The course is designed to give the dealer a broader understanding of the changes taking place today in the farm equipment, motor truck, and refrigeration fields, and thus enable him to better serve the needs of his customers and community.

GROWING WITH YOUR CHILD

Institute of Child Welfare, University of Minnesota

Whose Choice Will It Be?

It's a daily ritual for Phil.

Every morning his mother lays out several shirts and pairs of overalls and Phil with great deliberation and care, selects his own outfit for the day.

At the first glance this little ceremony may seem foolish and unnecessary, since it would actually be quicker and easier for the mother herself to select just one outfit and tell Phil to wear it, but think of the matter in terms of its importance to Phil. He is making a decision, a small one to be sure, but one in which his choice can be accepted and respected.

Certainly there are many times when the young child cannot be given a choice because of his immature judgement and when he must accept the adult's guidance and decisions, but there are numerous other occasions when the child could be given a choice and which are overlooked just because they do seem minor and insignificant. This particular incident of clothing selection is mentioned only because it suggests the kind of choice-situation a mother can create to give her young child experience in making decisions.

Many equally good opportunities arise every day where the child could make a choice regarding his behavior activity and could thus begin to lay the foundation or the development of good judgement and independent thinking. The ability to make wise decisions in important matters is developed by having many experiences in making small decisions and learning to abide by the consequences.

Thanksgiving
MADE IN U.S.A.

This is the month of Thanksgiving—an American day of observance that dates back 327 years. Here's a product made in the U. S. A. that has no substitute—it can be duplicated in no other country. Back in 1621, the first Thanksgiving was observed as a day of prayer and thanks for the first crops and the surmounting of hardships that confronted the pilgrims. And like the ideals and ideas that created our form of government later—Thanksgiving has not only endured but has grown in importance and value. The things for which we can be thankful today are endless ... count your blessings—be thankful this month and every month that you're you, that you're here, and that the American way of life is your way of living.

In observance of Thanksgiving Day, this bank will transact no business on Thursday, November 25, 1948.

Keith, who sits before the fireplace where stockings are hanging as though it were Christmas Eve, reproduces in this picture, the 1948 Christmas Seal design. Keith, whose parents live in Duluth, and for whom the Seal has a special meaning, is at the Children's Preventorium in Ramsey County for care and treatment. He had tuberculous meningitis and, in the opinion of physicians, were it not for streptomycin treatment, he would not be alive today. Keith is getting well and he thinks health is the best gift any little boy could have for Christmas.

Value of Soaps

Soaps have some germicidal power, especially when used with hot water, but this power is rather limited. Cleaning with soap and hot water kills some of the less resistant disease germs but the effect is largely mechanical through removal of dirt and infective material.

Where Catfish Feed

Since the beginning of pole and line angling, the question as to where catfish feed has perplexed most fishermen. Missouri Conservation commission found that channel catfish feed largely at night with the heaviest period coming at dusk. For the most part, feeding during the twilight hours will be confined to the channel and deep water. As darkness sets in, the catfish tend to invade shallower water near the stream banks.

Remarkable Memory

A WESTERNER was showing his eastern guest the sights.

"That old Indian over there has the best memory in the whole West," he explained. The Easterner decided to test the Indian.

"What did you have for supper the tenth of June ten years ago?" he asked him.

"Eggs," immediately replied the Indian.

Ten years later, while again visiting his western friend, the Easterner saw the same Indian. Approaching him in greeting he held up his hand and said, "How!"

Without hesitation the Indian replied, "Scrambled!"

Job Requirement

"I can't understand why I didn't get that job," said Betty.

"Well, what did the manager ask you?" inquired her friend.

"He asked if my punctuation was good."

"And what did you say?"

"I said I'd never been late for work in my life."

PERSONALITIES PLUS

On the third day one of them fell asleep, and his book fell with a thud. It broke the ice. The other man picked up the book and the following dialogue took place:

"Going across?"

"Yes."

"So am I."

Peace Insurance

Thomas A. Edison had a friend, Ernst E. Caulkins, a well-known man, who, like the inventor, refused to let deafness become an affliction.

As one deaf man to another, Calkins once asked Edison: "Why is it that you, of all men, have not tried some electrical device for making hearing easier."

"Too busy," the inventor replied. "A lot of time is wasted in listening."

And then, with a grin, he added: "If I had one of those things, my wife would want to talk to me all the time."

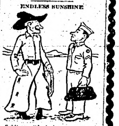
Bonanza

"Harry," said the auditor's wife, "aren't attics the most wonderful things to have around."

"Yes, indeed," agreed the agreeable man. "What did you discover now, darling?"

"The new look," replied the happy housewife, "in an old trunk."

ENDLESS SUNSHINE



Soldier: "And do you mean to tell me that you have 365 days of sunshine each year in Texas?"

Texan: "That's right, and I may add that's a mighty conservative estimate."

X Marks The Spot

An elderly man standing in a line felt someone nudge him on the back. Turning sharply, he saw a youth about to leave the place behind him.

"I'm just going across the road to buy some cigarets," said the youth.

"That's no reason why you should bump me on the back," retorted the elderly man.

"I didn't bump you on the back," the young man said, just as indignantly. "I just put a chalk mark on your coat so that I shouldn't forget my place in the line."

ALL-PURPOSE MATE

"My wife thinks she should have a washing machine."

"You're lucky. Mine thinks she married one."

Putt Putt

Mrs. Hatfield: "You think so much of your old golf game that you don't even remember when we were married."

Hatfield: "Of course I do, my dear, it was the day I sank that 30-foot putt."

Opinions Vary

"What did the audience do when you told them you never paid a dollar for a vote?"

"Well, some of them cheered, and some of them got up and left!"

Better Shoes in Sight

During the past year a better process for waterproofing shoe leather has been developed, which is expected to improve the product.

History of Headlight

In the early days of railroading, trains ran only in daylight hours, and headlights were unknown. As railroads developed, however, night operations became increasingly necessary, and inventive minds went to work to devise ways of illuminating the track ahead. The first crude step was taken under direction of Horatio Allen of the South Carolina railroad. He attached a small flat car to the front of the locomotive, covered the car with a heavy layer of sand on which he kept a bonfire of pine knots. This was in the early 1830s.

Lightless New Match

A safety match which reveals neither flame nor light when struck has been demonstrated. The match looks like any other safety match except the head, which is much larger than the ordinary one. When struck, the head generates such intense heat that it ignites at once any surface it touches. Wind of gale force will not blow it out.

Ancient Advertising

Advertising as we know it today is a comparatively recent art. But some forms of advertising are as old as barter and trade. Three thousand years ago signs on papyrus advertising for runaway slaves were hung in the market place of Thebes. The Romans wrote announcements of gladiatorial contests on the walls of their arenas, and ancient innkeepers hung vine leaves over their doors to show they had wine for sale.

World Farm Census

Plans are under way to obtain a world census of agriculture in 1950. Statistics will include crop acreages, livestock owned, size of farms and type of ownership.

Founded by Lottery

The British museum was founded on the proceeds of a state lottery, the managers of which were the Archbishop of Canterbury, the lord chancellor and the speaker of the house of commons.

Charcoal for Masks

Powdered charcoal made from coconut shells is used in gas masks because it absorbs great quantities of the gas. World Book encyclopedia points out the difference between adsorption and absorption. A sponge absorbs water because the water soaks into it. Charcoal adsorbs poison gas because the gas sticks to the surface but does not sink in.

Know Types of Aluminum To Make Better Purchase

Aluminum has proved its durability and usefulness in the kitchen, according to Mrs. Glenna Lamkin, home economics department, University of Illinois college of agriculture. Knowing the types of aluminum will make shopping for it easier and more satisfactory.

Aluminum is combined with other metals to make it hard enough to resist warping and bending. Utensils may be of cast or stamped aluminum.

Cast aluminum is used for sturdy top-of-stove pans as well as roasters and casseroles for oven cookery. These are made by pouring metal into molds designed for pans with thick bottoms and sides; they taper to reduce thickness to give even heat distribution. Chromium and nickel are sometimes used as surface finish for these pans.

Stamped ware is made by placing sheets of aluminum of desired gauge in heavy presses which stamp out the utensils. Heavier gauge pans are generally a better choice, as they resist warping. Light-weight utensils bend and warp easily.

Brushing Woolens

Brush woolens carefully with a firm-bristled brush after each wearing. Open the pleats and brush between them in a straight downward line. Brush into seam lines, under lapels and any other place where there may be rubbing action which will wear out material.

Exterior Lighting

The tower of the Singer building in New York was floodlighted in 1907, the first instance of lighting the exterior of a large building in this manner.

Pipeline Hub

Few people are aware that Kansas City is the hub of a 3,135-mile pipeline transportation system.

Progress in Drying Grain

Results of experiments in chemical drying of seed grain, using calcium chloride as the drying agent, justify further investigations of this method, according to the U. S. department of agriculture.

We wish to express our appreciation to the patrons and friends of the City Dairy who turned out in such large numbers to attend Open House in our new plant last Friday.

Centennial Queen Candidates Invited to St. Paul Carnival

A 1949 Minnesota Territorial Centennial Queen, who will rule over all centennial events of the year, will be chosen at the St. Paul Winter Carnival, Feb. 11 thru 20, Richard Sackett, deputy director, Minnesota Territorial Centennial, announced today.

Her Royal Highness will be picked by judges from the winners of thirty-eight contests now being organized throughout the state, under joint sponsorship of the Minnesota Territorial Centennial and the St. Paul Winter Carnival.

Cities and towns in each district are being invited by district sponsors to hold local contests within the next two months, and enter their winners in a later final district contest staged to select the girl who is to compete in St. Paul.

Selection of the Minnesota Territorial Centennial Queen at the St. Paul Auditorium Sunday, February 13, and the colorful coronation ceremonies which follow, will be a major event of the carnival.

Also chosen by the judges will be seven centennial princesses, one from each of the seven congressional districts outside of the Twin Cities, to serve as ladies-in-waiting to the queen.

Only qualifications required of contestants are that they must be single, at least seventeen years old, and residents of the communities they represent.

District finalists will be guests of the carnival six days, Friday, February 11, thru Wednesday, February 15. They will ride on floats in the carnival's two major parades, and take part in every other main event during their stay.

Cities and town conducting district contests under sponsorship of Junior Chambers of Commerce are Bemidji, Chisago City, Crookston, Detroit Lakes, Fergus Falls, Hastings, Hibbing, Hutchinson, Little Falls, Mankato, Marshall, Montevideo, Owatonna, Pipestone, Red Wing, Redwood Falls, St. Cloud, Stillwater, Thief River Falls, Virginia and Windom.

Rules governing the statewide contest, or other information desired, may be had by addressing the St. Paul Winter Carnival, 89 East Fifth St., St. Paul, Minnesota.

NORTHERN PIKE SEASON EXTENDED

To Close February 15 Instead of Dec. 31st

Minnesota's season on northern pike, originally scheduled to close December 31, has been extended to February 15, it was announced to day by Hjalmar O. Swenson, supervisor, bureau of fisheries, division of game and fish. After the February closing, the season on northerns will open again May 15.

"It is estimated that 30 to 25% less northern pike were taken during 1948 than during 1947," Swenson said, "due to the shorter season and reduced bag limit. This has made a substantial increase in the northern pike population, so that we can go back to the original open season dates, but the limit will remain at three."

Swenson said that due to the late opening (June 15) this year, more anglers now realize the importance of this species, so fewer fish will be destroyed in the future.

At the same time, Swenson announced, effective December 1, the closing of 268 Minnesota lakes to winter fishing, darkhouse fishing, angling, or the taking of northern pike.

SOLDIERS BONUS AMENDMENT GETS APPROVAL NOV. 2

State Canvassing Board Lists Official Figures in November Election

The soldiers' bonus amendment was approved in the November 2 election by a margin of 35,801 votes, official returns of the state canvassing board showed last week.

The amendment—authorizing payment of a bonus by the legislature to veterans of World War II—received 664,703 "yes" votes and 420,518 "no" votes. A majority of the total vote—officially recorded at 1,257,804—was required for passage.

Enactment of a bonus bill by the legislature, which convenes Jan. 3, is virtually certain since Gov. Youngdahl and legislative leaders have indicated they will consider a vote on the amendment as a "mandate of the people."

Mayor Hubert Humphrey of Minneapolis, Democratic-Farmer Labor, defeated Sen. Joseph H. Ball, Republican, by a plurality of 243,693 votes.

Gov. Youngdahl, Republican, beat Charles Halsted, Brainerd, DFL, by 97,806 votes.

Secretary of State Mike Holm got the biggest vote on the state ballot. He received 746,678 against 447,028 for a majority of 299,60 over Koscie H. Marsh, St. Paul, DFL.

Associate Justice Thomas F. Gallagher, re-elected to the high tribunal, had the largest plurality of any candidate. His vote of 666,097 gave him an edge of 319,613. Justice Oscar R. Knutson won the second place to retain his post.

The only DFLer on the state ticket to win election was Clifford C. Peterson, who defeated Rollin G. Johnson, Republican incumbent for the state railroad and warehouse commission.

The total vote failed to reach the peak of 1,301,000 recorded in 1940.

Texan Retires Faithful Model 'T' to Stable Life

EL PASO, TEX.—The Texan who recently retired his 29-year-old car, saying he wanted it to die in the stable like an old faithful horse, took delivery of its successor—a spanking, new jeep station wagon and vowed that it would "last 29 years, too."

"It has everything that old Model 'T' had, and took me over a half million miles. There's no reason the jeep shouldn't last that long. The question is, can I?"

He figures what finally licked his old bus was the difficulty of getting spare parts. It wasn't too comfortable anymore, either.

The jeep distributor in El Paso asked him if he wanted to trade it in.

"No, sir!" was the prompt reply. "That car isn't going to finish its days as some beaten up 'hot-rod.' It is going right into my garage where it can take it easy, just like an old horse that has given faithful service."

Science to Stare 65 Million Miles at Mars for Life Signs

CHICAGO—University of Chicago scientists are getting ready to take a look at Mars with a newly developed electronic device to see if there's any life on the planet.

The device, called a spectral recorder, can analyze matter millions of miles out into space. It will be hooked up to McDonald observatory's 82-inch reflecting telescope at Fort Davis, Tex., when Mars comes within 65 million miles of earth—the closest until 1950.

The astronomers want to know if the green patches on Mars are identical to vegetation growing on earth and whether polar caps are composed of frozen moisture.

They said that if there was thriving plant life on Mars there was a possibility that animal life existed, although probably of a different evolutionary nature than that on earth.

Wolves Find Way to Escape From Circle of Red Hunters

MOSCOW.—The favorite method of hunting wolves in Russia is to make a ring of red flags around the place where the wolves are thought to be hiding. A small gap is left in the ring and here the hunters wait to open fire when the wolves make for the gap.

For hundreds of years this method of hunting has been successful for the wolves feared to run through the cordon of waving red flags. But now some educated wolves in the Moscow area have learned to run through the flag ring and thus avoid the hunters.

It is essential to kill the wolves, says a Moscow paper, because they prey on elks, of which there are nearly 3,000 in the Moscow province forest areas.

Government Orders Price Support Cut on Potatoes in 1949

The government last Wednesday reduced its price guarantee on next year's potato crop by one-third. It also recommended a substantial cut in potato acreage.

Both moves are designed to discourage overproduction and save some of the money which has been paid to farmers for producing more potatoes than the country would eat. About $100,000,000 has been paid out in potato price supports so far this year.

The lower support level, at 60 per cent rather than 90 per cent of parity, make lower retail prices for potatoes possible, although not certain.

Officials of the department of agriculture, which announced the new policy, explained that the lower production goal and reduced guarantee should result in a smaller crop of potatoes than was harvested this year. If supply and demand are in balance, they surmised, retail prices might not decline appreciably.

Nevertheless, consumers, who also are taxpayers, are bound to benefit. Not so much of their money will go to support prices.

The support at 60 per cent of parity is the lowest level allowed under the long-range farm bill passed by the 80th congress. Under the old farm law, potatoes were supported at 90 per cent of parity. This means that if the market price goes below that figure, the farmer can sell them to the government at the guarantee level.

"Fairest Deal For Dairy Farmers"

Says FRED S. LARSON, Milltown, Wis. Dairy farmer

"Dairy farmers get the fairest deal through Land O'Lakes Creameries," says Mr. Larson, who sells to the Milltown, (Wis.) cooperative Creamery Association.

"And that goes for good years as well as bad. During hard times, Land O'Lakes helped to stabilize prices—averting ruin for many of us."

Mr. Larson, a member of his cooperative for more than 25 years, is convinced that cooperative marketing pays. "Land O'Lakes is the farmer's own organization and what it saves in the marketing process is paid back directly to the members."

Cooking Fish

Most important thing to remember in cooking fish is that it too often is overcooked. Just enough cooking to enable the flesh to be flaked easily from the bones will leave the fish moist and tender and bring out its delicate flavor.

Duke, a Springer Spaniel dog, belonging to Wallace Johnson, met his death last Wednesday forenoon. Duke had just received a nice juicy bone at Walt's Cafe and had carried it across the street. There he ran into some other dogs who decided to take the bone away from him. In the excitment he backed under a passing car driven by Conrad Engelstrud, and was instantly killed. Poor old Duke was a good dog and will be missed by many of our citizens. Local duck hunters all had a soft spot in their hearts for Duke as many a duck would have been lost had he not been there to retrieve it for them.

Phillip Brockopp, of this place was seriously injured last Monday evening when a car hit his wagon and threw him into the ditch. Mr. Brockopp was coming into town from the west driving his team with a wagon load of sheep that he was going to ship the next morning. At the crossroads west of town he met Olaf Green and they stopped to talk. While the neighbors were talking they saw lights of a car coming from the west. The driver of this car evidently did not see the wagon, knocking off one wheel and throwing Mr. Brockopp off into the ditch. The horses broke loose and Mr. Green ran to catch them. While he caught the horses the car pulled out with a burst of speed toward town. Mr. Green then tied up the horses, got Mr. Brokopp into his car, came into town and got a truck to bring in the sheep and took Mr. Brockopp to a Thief River Falls hospital. There it was found that no bones were broken, but several bloodvessels were ruptured and ligments of one of his legs were torn. It is thought he will be confined to the hospital for some time.

Sheriff Toftner was called on the case and several clues were found but as yet the car that was in the accident has not been found.

Thanksgiving

Thanks to many people for many things

THIS IS THE SEASON OF THANKSGIVING . . .

And there is much for which we can all be thankful in this great country of ours.

Certainly we are thankful for a bountiful harvest of grain and corn, for a high level of production and employment, for a standard of living that is the envy of the world.

Most of all, perhaps, we are grateful for our American heritage . . . freedom of opportunity, freedom of choice, freedom to think and worship according to our own beliefs.

We Feel as a Chevrolet dealer it is an appropriate time to convey our sincere appreciation to the people of this community for their loyalty, patience and understanding.

For Despite Chevrolet's production of more cars and trucks during 1948 than any other manufacturer there is still a long "waiting list" for America's most-wanted cars and trucks.

Chevrolet is doing everything within its power to maintain and increase production. Meantime, we would like to express our thanks . . .

Thanks to Buyers and Prospective Buyers of New Chevrolets for your generous recognition of the honest value built into this first-choice car in the low-priced field. More people have bought Chevrolet cars and trucks, during the eighteen-year period from 1931 to date, than have bought the cars and trucks of any other manufacturer.

Thanks to Those Who Are Waiting for Orders to be Filled for your patience and understanding. You can be sure we are doing our best to treat all customers fairly . . . doing our best to speed the day when we can give you the good news, "Your waiting days are over!"

Thanks to Service Customers for the opportunity to keep your present cars in safe driving condition. We have tried to serve you well, and appreciate your patronage.

Television on the Farm

Buck Childs' home has become mighty popular ever since he got that television set—one of the few sets in our town, outside of Andy's Garden Tavern.

Not only do the kids stay home nights, but the neighbors drop in to see whatever's being telecast. And Buck and the missus always make them welcome, with a mellow glass of beer or ale (with cider and cookies for the youngsters).

While I guess everyone admits that television still has far to go, it's not hard to see that it will some day be as much a part of American home and farm life as the temperate glass of beer that Buck serves, and the hospitality that goes with it.

And from where I sit, anything that adds to gracious living in America—brings folks together for temperate, quiet entertainment—is a boon to this home-loving land of ours. (We're thinking of buying a television set ourselves!)

BURNQUIST RULES ON HOLT MATTER

Says Village Cannot Buy Shares in Locker Plant

J. A. A. Burnquist, Minnesota attorney general, held in a recent ruling that the village of Holt does not have the right to expend village funds to buy shares of stock in the privately owned locker plant at Holt, even tho an election were held on the question and the voters approved the investment.

Burnquist held, in addition, that there is no authority for holding an election on any such question, and that it is beyond the power of the village to pay for the expense of holding such an election.

CITY PREPARES FOR BOND ISSUE VOTE ON DEC. 20

Asks Voters to Approve $250,000 Bond Issue for Water Treatment Plant

With the publication elsewhere in this issue of the Times of a sample ballot, Thief River Falls voters are reminded that they are expected to participate in another municipal election Monday, December 20.

On that day they will be asked to go to the polls to register their approval of the issuance by the city of $250,000 in bonds to complete the financing of the proposed new water treatment plant, which is generally conceded to be the city's most urgent need at the present time.

An initial bond issue in the amount of $250,000 was sold for the same purpose three years ago, but the bids received were far in excess of the available funds and were therefore rejected. The greater part of the proceeds of the bond issue were thereupon invested in government securities.

The two issues, aggregating $500,000, will, it is hoped, be adequate to cover the cost of the project on the basis of present building costs.

The new issue, if approved, will be sold on the basis of an interest rate not exceeding two and one-half per cent, and will be retired serially in from three to twelve years.

The city has acquired a site for the proposed structure in the old millyard on the east side of the Red Lake river, and the council has already entered into contracts for much of the piping and other equipment required, which involves waiting many months for delivery.

One of the major improvements involved in the project will be the removal of the water intake from its present location not far above the power dam to a point up above the Tindolph park swimming pool in Red Lake river.
